POLICE, OVERSEAS SERVICE

The Police (Overseas Service) (British Element Trieste Force) Regulations, 1950

1950 No. 495

Made - - - -	28*th March*, 1950
Laid before Parliament	31*st March*, 1950
Coming into Operation	1*st April*, 1950

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by Section 1 of the Police (Overseas Service) Act, 1945(a), I, the Right Honourable Evelyn John St. Loe Strachey, His Majesty's Secretary of State for War hereby make the following Regulations :—

1.—(1) The function of the special police corps of the Allied Military Government of the Free Territory of Trieste (British Element) (hereafter in these Regulations referred to as " the Corps ") is to perform, under the control of the Secretary of State and in conjunction with the Venezia Giulia Police Force, police duties in Trieste and Venezia Giulia.

(2) The Corps shall consist of those persons appointed to be members of it in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.

2.—(1) The members of the Corps shall be appointed by the Secretary of State.

(2) A member of the Corps may resign, subject to his giving three months' notice.

(3) A member of the Corps may be discharged by the Secretary of State, subject to his being given three months' notice.

3.—(1) A member of the Corps may be dismissed by the Secretary of State if he is found guilty of serious misconduct or a serious offence against discipline:

Provided that where some person authorised by the Secretary of State in that behalf exercises the powers conferred by this Regulation, an appeal against dismissal shall lie to the Secretary of State.

(2) An appeal under this Regulation shall be brought within one month of the date of the dismissal and a successful appellant shall be reinstated as a member of the Corps as from the date of that dismissal.

4. Any function of the Secretary of State under these Regulations (other than the consideration of an appeal under the preceding Regulation) may be performed by any person acting under his authorisation in that behalf.

5.—(1) In these Regulations the expression " the Corps " has the meaning assigned to it in Regulation 1 of these Regulations.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

6. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Overseas Service) (British Element Trieste Force) Regulations, 1950, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1950.

Dated this 28th day of March, 1950.

John Strachey.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the scheme, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Police (Overseas Service) Act, 1945, empowers the Secretary of State to make regulations for the government, discipline, pensions, allowances and gratuities in respect of persons engaged under his control in the performance of police duties in any foreign country.

The Police (Overseas Service) British Element Trieste Force has been established under the control of the Secretary of State for police duties in Trieste and Venezia Giulia.

These regulations provide for the appointment, resignation and dismissal of members of the force.
