These Regulations amend the Police (Discipline) (Scotland) Regulations, 1952, by making further and more specific provision in respect of suspension from duty.

OVERSEAS SERVICE

1955 No. 1852

The Police (Overseas Service) (Cyprus) Regulations, 1955

Made - - - -	8th December, 1955
Laid before Parliament	9th December, 1955
Coming into Operation	10th December, 1955

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section 1 of the Police (Overseas Service) Act, 1945(a), I, the Right Honourable Alan Lennox-Boyd, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Overseas Service) (Cyprus) Regulations, 1955, and shall come into operation on the tenth day of December, 1955.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6 c. 17.

2. The Cyprus Police Unit (hereinafter referred to as "the Unit") shall consist of persons nominated by the Secretary of State to serve as members of the Unit and of the Cyprus Police Force (hereinafter referred to as "the Police Force") and appointed as members of the Police Force.

3.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force in Cyprus the provisions of any such law relating to the government and discipline of the Police Force shall apply to every member of the Unit while serving in the Police Force as if those provisions were set out in these Regulations with the necessary modifications.

(2) The disciplinary authority for the Unit shall, for the purposes of subsection (2) of section 2 of the Police (Overseas Service) Act, 1945, be the disciplinary authority for the Police Force.

4. A member of the Unit—

(a) may resign subject to his giving to the Secretary of State three months' notice or such shorter period of notice as may be agreed;

(b) may be discharged by the Secretary of State subject to his being given three months' notice or such shorter period of notice as may be agreed;

(c) shall cease to be a member of the Unit when he ceases to be a member of the Police Force.

5. Any function conferred on any person or authority by these Regulations may be performed by any other person or authority acting under his, or their, authorization in that behalf as the case may be.

Dated this 8th day of December, 1955.

Alan Lennox-Boyd,
Secretary of State for the Colonies.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Police (Overseas Service) Act, 1945, empowers the Secretary of State to make regulations for the government and discipline of persons engaged under his control in the performance of police duties in any territory outside the United Kingdom.

The Cyprus Police Unit has been established under the control of the Secretary of State for the Colonies for police duties in Cyprus.

These regulations provide for the appointment, discipline, resignation and discharge of members of the Unit.
