(2) So far as the motor vehicle allowance falls to be calculated by reference to completed months of authorised use ending, or mileage of authorised use performed, on or after 1st August 1968, it shall be calculated in accordance with the principal regulations as amended by regulation 3 of these regulations, which shall have effect accordingly.

(3) Nothing in regulation 3 of these regulations shall affect the calculation of the motor vehicle allowance so far as it falls to be calculated by reference to completed months of authorised use ending, or mileage of authorised use performed, before 1st August 1968.

5. These regulations shall come into operation on 20th December 1968 and, save as provided in regulation 4 hereof, shall have effect as from that date.

William Ross,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.
6th December 1968.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Police (Scotland) Regulations 1968 to provide for increases in the rates of motor vehicle allowances in respect of motor cars. These allowances are payable on an annual basis and are calculated by reference to completed months of authorised use and mileage performed in the year in question. Regulation 4 makes transitory provision for the calculation of these allowances in the year ending 30th April 1969 and provides (in exercise of the power conferred by section 26(3) of the Police (Scotland) Act 1967) that regulation 4 shall have effect as from 1st August 1968 as respects the calculation of motor vehicle allowances by reference to months of use completed, or mileage performed, on or after that date.
