EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act, 1956, (section 16 and the Third Schedule) provides that as from the local financial year 1957–58 owner's rates will cease to be payable and rents will be reduced by the amount of owner's rates payable in 1956–57. These regulations amend the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1956, to provide that, for the purpose of calculating rent allowances, there shall be a corresponding reduction in the rateable value of a house owned and occupied by a member of a police force.

The regulations also remedy a defect in the rates of pay prescribed for male constables.
