POLICE

The Police (Scotland) Amendment (No. 3) Regulations, 1961

Made - - - -	30th September, 1961
Laid before Parliament	6th October, 1961
Coming into Operation	9th October, 1961

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 11 of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1956(a), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, and no representations having been made to me in pursuance of subsection (6) of the said section 11, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Police (Scotland) Amendment (No. 3) Regulations, 1961, and shall come into operation on the 9th day of October, 1961.

2. The Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1956(b), as amended, shall have effect subject to the amendment specified in the Schedule to these regulations.

Dated this 30th day of September, 1961.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

SCHEDULE

After Regulation 49 there shall be inserted the following regulation:—

"Promotion examination allowance

49A.—(1) A member of a police force who on or after the first day of January, 1961, has taken or takes an examination or paper in consequence of which he obtains a pass in the elementary qualifying examination held under these regulations shall be paid by the police authority of the police force of which he was or is a member at the time when he took or takes the examination or paper a constable's promotion examination allowance of £30 unless he has previously obtained a pass, or been deemed to have obtained a pass, in the elementary qualifying examination held under these regulations, or under the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1952(c), the Police (Women) (Scotland) Regulations, 1934(d) or the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1920(e), or has, while serving in a police force service in which may be reckonable as pensionable service for the purpose of regulations made under the Police Pensions Acts, 1948 and 1961(f), received a payment for passing the examination which qualifies him for promotion to the rank of sergeant in that police force.

(a) 4 & 5 Eliz. 2. c. 26. (b) S.I. 1956/1999 (1956 II, p. 1766).
(c) S.I. 1952/1355 (1952 II, p. 2546). (d) S.R. & O. 1934/659 (Rev. XVIII, p. 223: 1934 II, p. 51).
(e) S.R. & O. 1920/2113 (Rev. XVIII, p. 193: 1920 II, p. 548).
(f) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 24 and 9 & 10 Eliz. 2. c. 35.

(2) A member of a police force who on or after the first day of January, 1961, has taken or takes an examination or paper in consequence of which he obtains a pass in the advanced qualifying examination held under these regulations shall be paid by the police authority of the police force of which he was or is a member at the time when he took or takes the examination or paper a sergeant's promotion examination allowance of £30 unless he has previously obtained a pass in the advanced qualifying examination held under these regulations, or under the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1952, the Police (Women) (Scotland) Regulations, 1934 or the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1920, or has, while serving in a police force service in which may be reckonable as pensionable service for the purpose of regulations made under the Police Pensions Acts, 1948 and 1961, received a payment for passing the examination which qualifies him for promotion to the next rank above sergeant in that police force:

Provided that payment of a sergeant's promotion examination allowance to a member of a police force who obtains a pass in the advanced qualifying examination while holding the rank of constable shall not be made until he has been promoted otherwise than temporarily to a rank above constable.

(3) This regulation shall apply in relation to a reversionary member of a home police force within the meaning of Regulation 70 of the Police Pensions (Scotland) Regulations, 1955(a), who is, under section 2 of the Police (Overseas Service) Act, 1945(b), or section 5 of the Overseas Service Act, 1958(c), entitled at the end of his period of overseas service to revert to his home police force, as it applies to a member of a police force, except that the allowance under paragraph (1) or (2) of this regulation shall be paid, subject to the proviso to paragraph (2) of this regulation, on his resuming service by the police authority of the police force in which he resumes service."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1956, by providing for the payment of allowances to members of police forces who pass the promotion qualifying examinations.
