Regulation 2 removes dismissal from the armed forces, civil service or a police force as a disqualification for appointment to a police force.

Regulation 4 enables a member of a police force to take the promotion examination in education subjects at any time after he has completed his period of probation instead of having to wait for four years before doing so.

Regulation 7 provides that a constable who has resigned from a police force and subsequently joins up again shall, as is the case where a constable transfers, be entitled to count his previous service for the purpose of reckoning his pay.

Regulation 9 amends the conditions of grant of a second additional increment in cases where an additional increment has been withdrawn.

Regulation 10 amends the conditions for reducing or withdrawing a supplementary rent allowance.

Regulations 14, 15 and 16 amend the provisions relating to sick leave, medical treatment, and pay during sick leave.

Regulations 5, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 17 and 18 are drafting amendments.

After the word " Leggings " there shall be inserted the words " Breeches and Puttees ".

Second Appendix

Paragraph (9) shall be omitted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Regulations amend the Police (Scotland) Regulations which deal with the conditions of service of members of police forces in Scotland.

The amendment to Regulation 64 empowers the Secretary of State to fix flat rate rent allowances for single policemen after consultation with the police authority.

The amendment to Regulation 64A extends for a further year the supplementary allowance payable, on certain conditions, to policemen, who, as a result of the present housing shortage, are living apart from their families.

The purpose of the amendments to Regulations 79 and 80 is to alter the scale of issue of police uniform.

The amendment to the Second Appendix abolishes fees for promotion examinations.
