1952 No. 2261 (S. 119)

The Police (Scotland) (Amendment) Regulations, 1952

Made - - - - 19*th December*, 1952
Coming into Operation 31*st December*, 1952

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 4 of the Police Act, 1919(a), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Scotland) (Amendment) Regulations, 1952, and shall come into operation on the 31st day of December, 1952.

2. The Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1952(b), shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in the Schedule to these Regulations.

Dated this 19th day of December, 1952.

James Stuart,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

SCHEDULE

1. For paragraph (3) of Regulation 9 there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(3) A member shall be required to pass the elementary qualifying examination in order to be eligible for promotion to the rank of sergeant:

Provided that a member who has passed the advanced qualifying examination shall be eligible for promotion to the said rank.

A member shall be required to pass the advanced qualifying examination in order to be eligible for promotion to the rank of inspector."

2. In paragraph (5) of Regulation 34 for the words "thirty-first day of December, 1952" there shall be substituted the words "thirty-first day of December, 1954".

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Police (Scotland) Regulations, 1952, which deal with the conditions of service of members of police forces in Scotland.

Paragraph 1 of the Schedule makes the passing of either the elementary or the advanced examination a qualification for promotion to the rank of sergeant.

Paragraph 2 continues supplementary rent allowances for a further two years.
