EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations provide for increased rates of pay.

The Police (Women) (No. 2) Regulations, 1951

1951 No. 2254

Made - - - - 19*th December*, 1951
Coming into Operation 31*st December*, 1951

I, the Right Honourable Sir David Maxwell Fyfe, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section four of the Police Act, 1919(a), hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. For Regulation 4 of the Police (Women) (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948(b), there shall be substituted the following Regulation:—

"4. No person shall be eligible for appointment to a police force and the services of a woman member of a police force may be dispensed with at any time if without the consent of the chief officer of police—

(a) she carries on any business or holds any other office or employment for hire or gain, or

(b) she resides at any premises where her husband or any member of her family keeps a shop or carries on any like business, or

(c) she holds, or her husband or any member of her family living with her holds, any licence granted in pursuance of the liquor licensing laws or the laws regulating places of public entertainment in the area of the police force in which she seeks appointment or to which she has been appointed, as the case may be, or has any pecuniary interest in such licence, or

(d) her husband, not being separated or divorced from her, keeps a shop or carries on any like business in the area of the police force in which she seeks appointment or to which she has been appointed, as the case may be:

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 46. (b) S.I. 1948 (No. 1217) I, p. 3403.

Provided that, in case of refusal of consent, there shall, in a borough police force, be an appeal to the watch committee, whose decision shall be final.

For the purpose of this Regulation, the expression 'member of her family' shall include parent, son, daughter, brother and sister.".

2. In paragraph (2) of Regulation 28(a) of the said Regulations for the figure "4s. 3d." there shall be substituted the figure "5s. 1d." and for the figure "3s. 9d." there shall be substituted the figure "4s. 6d.".

3. In sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of Regulation 39(b) of the said Regulations for the words "section one of the Police and Firemen (War Service) Act, 1939, applied to her" there shall be substituted the words "she has served in His Majesty's forces".

4. In Regulation 58 of the said Regulations for the figure "2s. 6d." there shall be substituted the figure "3s.".

5. For the Table subjoined to paragraph (1) of Regulation 60(a) of the said Regulations there shall be substituted the following Table:—

"TABLE

Rank	Amount
Inspector	£43 a year
Sergeant	£38 a year
Constable...	£32 a year:"

6. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Women) (No. 2) Regulations, 1951, and shall come into operation on the thirty-first day of December, 1951.

David Maxwell Fyfe,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
19th December, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Regulation 1 amends Regulation 4 of the Police (Women) (Consolidation) Regulations, 1948 (which relates to disqualification for membership of a police force), by making the disqualification for a woman member discretionary instead of mandatory, by extending the chief officer of police's discretion, and by excepting from the provisions of paragraph (d) of the Regulation a woman member's husband who is living apart from her. Regulation 2 increases the allowance for overtime. Regulation 3 allows service in the armed forces which counts for pension purposes to count for the purposes of pay. Regulation 4 increases the boot allowance. Regulation 5 increases the detective duty allowance.
