EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

By virtue of the Policing of Airports (Prestwick) Order 1975 (S.I. 1975/445) Prestwick Airport became a designated airport for the purposes of the Policing of Airports Act 1974 and, accordingly, fell to be policed by the Ayrshire Constabulary. The Policing of Airports (Prestwick) (First Supplementary) Order 1975 made certain provisions necessary or expedient in connection with the designation of Prestwick Airport and, in particular, provided for the transfer of aerodrome constables to the Ayrshire Constabulary. By virtue of the Police Pensions (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 1974 (S.I. 1974/1673) constables so transferred are entitled to reckon their previous service for the purposes of the police pensions scheme for personal and widow's benefits. This Order requires the British Airports Authority to pay to the Strathclyde Police Authority a sum which is an actuarial valuation of the pension benefits so conferred on transferred constables.
