CHAPTER lxix.

An Act to incorporate a Company for establishing and holding Markets and Fairs and building a Town Hall in the town of Pontypridd and parish of Llanwonno in the county of Glamorgan; and for other purposes. [28th June 1877.] A.D. 1877.

WHEREAS a market has for many years past been held in the town of Pontypridd and parish of Llanwonno in the county of Glamorgan, and the substitution for such market of markets and fairs under Parliamentary authority, with proper regulations and management, and an improved market place, market house, and other buildings and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, would be of local and public advantage:

And whereas the owners or reputed owners of the lands on which the market is now held, hold and enjoy all the tolls derived from the existing market, and it is expedient that the Company to be incorporated by this Act should be authorised to purchase such lands and tolls from them, and that they should sell the same to such Company as herein-after provided:

And whereas the erection of a Town Hall with other buildings and conveniences on part of the lands now used as a market place would be of public and local advantage:

And whereas the several persons herein-after named, with others, are desirous of effecting the objects aforesaid, and it is expedient to incorporate them into a Company, and to confer upon the Company the powers necessary for the purposes and objects aforesaid:

And whereas it is expedient that the markets and fairs held and to be held and the tolls taken within the said town and parish under the powers of this Act should be subject to the provisions hereof:

A.D. 1877.

And whereas plans showing the lands to be taken for the purposes of this Act, and books of reference to those plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of those lands, have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Glamorgan at his office, and those plans and books of reference are in this Act referred to as the deposited plans and books of reference:

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Pontypridd Markets, Fairs, and Town Hall Act, 1877."

Certain provisions of general Acts herein named incorporated.

2. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," Part I. (relating to the cancellation and surrender of shares) and Part III. (relating to debenture stock) of "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," are, except where expressly varied by this Act, incorporated with and form part of this Act.

Interpretation of terms.

3. In this Act the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or partially incorporated herewith have the same respective meanings, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction. The expression "the Company" means the Company incorporated by this Act; the expression "the undertaking" means the markets, fairs, market houses, market places, Town Hall, and other buildings and conveniences, lands, and property from time to time belonging to the Company; the expression "cattle" shall mean bulls, oxen, cows, heifers and calves, rams, wethers, ewes and lambs, goats, kids, and swine; the expression "horses" shall mean horses, geldings, mares, foals, colts, and fillies, and shall include asses and mules; and in this Act and (for the purposes of this Act) in enactments incorporated with this Act "court of competent jurisdiction" shall have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which it is used were a simple contract debt, and not a debt or demand created by statute; and the term "superior courts" shall include any court of competent jurisdiction.

Limits of Act.

4. The limits within which this Act shall be in force shall be the district for the time being of the urban sanitary authority of Pontypridd in the county of Glamorgan.

Company incorporated.

5. Matthew Wayne Morgan, Charles Bassett, William Jones, William Williams, Robert Smyth, John Calvert, John Jones, David Leyshon, Hopkin Smith Davies, and all other persons and corporations who have already subscribed to or shall hereafter become proprietors in the undertaking, and their executors, administrators, successors, and assigns respectively, shall be and are hereby united into a company for the purpose of continuing the existing markets, and of establishing markets and fairs, and making and maintaining places for holding the same, and for erecting and maintaining a Town Hall, and other the works by this Act authorised, and for other the purposes of this Act and of the undertaking hereby authorised, and for those purposes shall be and are hereby incorporated by the name of "The Pontypridd Markets, Fairs, and Town Hall Company," and by that name shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to purchase, take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property for the purposes of this Act.

Power for Company to establish markets and fairs.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company may establish and maintain the markets and fairs, Town Hall, and other works, and exercise the powers herein-after mentioned:

They may from time to time establish and provide a market or markets in addition to or in lieu of the existing market, and in or on the site of the existing market place, for the sale of cheese, corn, butter, and fruit, vegetables, fish, meat, hay, and other marketable commodities, upon the lands herein-after mentioned or some part or parts thereof:

They may from time to time within the limits of this Act establish and provide a market or markets for the sale of cattle and horses and other live stock upon any lands agreed to be purchased or leased by or on behalf of the Company, or which may be acquired by them under the powers of this Act:

They may from time to time hold such fairs in such place or places as may be prescribed by regulations to be made under the powers of this Act within the limits thereof:

They may make and maintain all requisite and convenient market places, market houses, weighing houses, weigh-bridges, toll-houses, shops, stalls, pens, sheds, yards, stables, fountains, water-tanks, sewers, drains, buildings, works, approaches, and conveniences connected with such markets respectively:

A.D. 1877.

They may erect and maintain upon the lands herein-after mentioned a Town Hall, with all proper approaches thereto, and with such other buildings, including shops, warehouses, offices, and cellars, as may be conveniently holden and enjoyed therewith:

They may from time to time enter on, take, hold, and use such of the lands described in the deposited plans and books of reference as may be required for any of the purposes of this Act.

Description of lands for market.

7. The lands to be taken by the Company for the purposes of this Act are the following; viz.,

The several buildings now used as a market house, china warehouse, and for the purposes of a corn and vegetable market, and the several shops, workshops, and offices adjoining thereto, and in the several occupations of Charles Monk, William Poole, Ruth Parlour, and others, and belonging or reputed to belong to Clara Thomas and George William Griffiths Thomas, together with the sites of such several buildings respectively, situate and being in the parish of Llanwonno in the town of Pontypridd in the county of Glamorgan;

The several yards, areas, passages, and approaches appurtenant or belonging to the said market house and buildings;

A piece or parcel of land on the northern side of the said buildings, belonging or reputed to belong to the said Clara Thomas and George William Griffiths Thomas, and forming or lately forming part of a field known as Gellywasted Field;

All which said lands and property are described in the deposited plans and books of reference, and are situate in the town of Pontypridd and parish of Llanwonno in the county of Glamorgan.

Capital.

8. The capital of the Company shall be thirty thousand pounds in three thousand shares of ten pounds each.

Shares not to issue until one fifth paid up.

9. The Company shall not issue any share created under the authority of this Act, nor shall any such share vest in the person or corporation accepting the same, unless and until a sum not being less than one fifth of the amount of such share is paid in respect thereof.

Calls.

10. One fifth of the amount of a share shall be the greatest amount of a call, and three months at least shall be the interval between successive calls, and not more than three fifths of the amount of a share shall be the utmost aggregate amount of the calls made in any year upon any share.

11. If any money is payable to a shareholder being a minor, idiot, or lunatic, the receipt of the guardian or committee of his estate shall be a sufficient discharge to the Company.

Receipt clause in case of persons not sui juris.

12. The Company may from time to time borrow on mortgage any sum not exceeding in the whole seven thousand five hundred pounds, and the Company may when twenty thousand pounds of the said capital has been bonâ fide issued and accepted, and one half thereof has been paid up, borrow on mortgage any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole five thousand pounds, and when and as each further sum of five thousand pounds of the said capital has been bonâ fide issued and accepted, and one half the amount thereof respectively has been paid up, the Company may borrow on mortgage such further sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds in respect of each such five thousand pounds; but in none of the before-mentioned cases shall any part of the respective sums be borrowed until the Company have proved to the justice who is to certify under the 40th section of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, before he so certifies, that the whole of the portion of capital in respect of which the Company propose to exercise the power of borrowing hereby granted has been issued and accepted, and that one half thereof has been paid up, and that not less than one-fifth part of the amount of each separate share in such capital has been paid on account thereof before or at the time of the issue or acceptance thereof, and that such portion of capital was issued and accepted bonâ fide, and is held by the persons or corporations to whom the same was issued, their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, and that such persons or corporations, their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, are legally liable for the same; and upon production to such justice of the books of the Company, and of such other evidence as he shall think sufficient, he shall grant a certificate that the proof aforesaid has been given, which shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

Power to borrow money on mortgage.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a receiver.

13. The mortgagees of the Company may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal, or principal and interest, due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver. In order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of arrears of principal, the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver is made shall not be less than three hundred and seventy-five pounds in the whole.

14. The Company may create and issue debenture stock, subject to the provisions of Part III. of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863;

A.D. 1877.

but, notwithstanding anything therein contained, the interest of all debenture stock at any time created and issued by the Company shall rank pari passu with the interest of all mortgages at any time granted by the Company, and shall have priority over all principal moneys secured by such mortgages.

Application of moneys.

15. All moneys raised under this Act, whether by shares, debenture stock, or borrowing, shall be applied for the purposes of this Act only.

Priority of mortgages over other debts.

16. All money raised or to be raised by the Company on mortgage or debenture stock under the provisions of this Act shall have priority against the Company, and the property from time to time of the Company, over all other claims on account of any debts incurred or engagements entered into by them after the passing of this Act: Provided always, that this priority shall not affect any claim against the Company or their property in respect of any rent-charge granted or to be granted by them in pursuance of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, or in respect of any rent or sum reserved by or payable under any lease granted or made to the Company in pursuance of any Act relating to the Company, which is entitled to rank in priority to or pari passu with the interest on their mortgages or debenture stock, nor shall anything in this section contained affect any claim for land taken, used, or occupied by the Company for the purposes of the Company's undertaking and works, or injuriously affected by the construction thereof, or by the exercise of any powers conferred on the Company.

First ordinary meeting.

17. The first ordinary meeting of the Company shall be held within six months after the passing of this Act.

Number of directors.

18. The number of directors shall be nine, but the Company may from time to time reduce the number, provided that the number be not less than five.

Qualification of directors.

19. The qualification of a director shall be the possession in his own right of not less than ten shares.

Quorum.

20. The quorum of a meeting of directors shall be five, and if the number of directors is reduced to five the quorum shall be three.

Quorum of general meetings.

21. The quorum of general meetings (whether ordinary or extraordinary) of the Company shall be seven shareholders, present personally or by proxy, holding in the aggregate not less than seven hundred pounds in the capital of the Company.

A.D. 1877.

First directors.

22. Matthew Wayne Morgan, Charles Bassett, William Jones, William Williams, Robert Smyth, John Calvert, John Jones, David Leyshon, and Hopkin Smith Davies shall be the first directors of the Company, and shall continue in office until the first ordinary meeting held after the passing of this Act; at that meeting the shareholders present in person or by proxy may either continue in office the directors appointed by this Act, or any of them, or may elect a new body of directors, or directors to supply the place of those not continued in office, the directors appointed by this Act being, if qualified, eligible for re-election; and at the first ordinary meeting to be held in every year after the first ordinary meeting the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall (subject to the power herein-before contained for reducing the number of directors) elect persons to supply the places of the directors then retiring from office, agreeably to the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; and the several persons elected at any such meeting, being neither removed nor disqualified, nor having died or resigned, shall continue to be directors until others are elected in their stead in manner provided by the same Act.

Election of directors.

Shareholders to convene extraordinary meetings.

23. Seven or more shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than one fifth of the subscribed capital of the Company may require that an extraordinary meeting of the Company shall be called.

Newspaper for advertisements.

24. The newspaper in which advertisements relating to the affairs of the Company are to be inserted shall be some newspaper published or circulating in the county of Glamorgan.

Lands for extraordinary purposes.

25. The Company may purchase by agreement, in addition to the lands shown on the deposited plans, for all or any of the purposes of this Act, any quantity of land not exceeding five acres.

Period for compulsory purchase of lands.

26. The powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the expiration of three years from the passing of this Act.

Power to take easements, &c. by agreement.

27. Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to sell and convey or release lands, may, if they think fit, subject to the provisions of that Act and of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, and of this Act, grant to the Company any easement, right, or privilege, not being an easement of water, required for the purposes of this Act, in, over, or affecting any such lands; and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rentcharges, so far as the same are applicable in this behalf, shall extend and apply to such grants and to such easements, rights, and privileges as aforesaid respectively.

A.D. 1877.

Power to purchase existing market and other rights.

28. Before the Company demand, receive, or are entitled to any toll or other payment under the provisions of this Act they shall purchase by agreement the several buildings now used as a market house, and the other buildings, lands, and premises mentioned in section 7 of this Act, or such of the said buildings and so much of the said lands as may be required for the purposes of this Act, from the said Clara Thomas and George William Griffiths Thomas, or their heirs, sequels in estate, or assigns, or other the owners or owner thereof for the time being, and also all their franchises, rights, and privileges of holding a market or markets within the town of Pontypridd, and the tolls, piccage, stallage, or other dues to which they are now entitled, and all other rights, privileges, and interests which belonged to them in any matter relating to markets within the limits of this Act.

Purchase may be according to 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 106., and when completed no market to be held except by the Company.

29. Such purchase shall be made in such manner and subject to such provisions and regulations as are in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, contained with respect to the purchase of land by agreement, and when such purchase shall have been made and the Company shall have established a market, no market of any description shall thenceforth be held within the limits of this Act except under and subject to the provisions of this Act, or any bye-law made in pursuance thereof: Provided always, that the Company shall not demand, receive, or be entitled to any stallage, rent, or toll other than such as have heretofore been demanded and paid until they have obtained a certificate from two justices that the market place, building, or other convenience in respect of which the stallage, rent, or toll is demanded has been provided and is fit for public use.

Power to continue market and hold markets and fairs.

30. From and after the purchase by the Company of the existing market they may, if they think fit, continue to hold the same on the days and at the times and places at which it has heretofore been held, and may hold markets and fairs on such other days and at such other times and places within the limits of this Act as the Company shall from time to time by any regulation made under the powers of this Act determine.

Power to take tolls, &c. as in schedule.

31. The Company may, subject as aforesaid, demand and take from any person whomsoever occupying or using the market, or any market house, market place, building, or convenience by this Act authorised, or any part thereof, in any place in which markets have heretofore been held, or where markets and fairs may hereafter be held in pursuance of any regulation made under the powers of this Act, or any stand, stall, shed, pen, station, place, or space therein respectively, or bringing into the market anything specified in the schedule hereto, whether on a fair day or market day, or otherwise, any stallages, rents, tolls, and other payments in respect thereof not exceeding the several amounts specified in the said schedule; and nothing specified in the said schedule shall be publicly exposed for sale, exhibition, or other purpose by any person other than a licensed hawker within the limits of this Act elsewhere than in the market, or in the existing market, so long as sufficient and convenient space and accommodation are provided therein; and any person other than a licensed hawker who shall publicly expose for sale, exhibition, or other purpose anything contrary to this enactment shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with the right (if any) of the occupier of any house, shop, or premises within the limits of this Act to expose for sale, exhibition, or other purposes, in, upon, or in front of his house, shop, or premises anything specified or referred to in the said schedule, being his own property or part of his stock in trade: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the owner of any horse, or any licensed horse dealer on behalf of such owner, from selling or exposing the same for sale otherwise than by auction on his own premises, or for showing or trying any horse preliminary to any such sale or intended sale thereof.

Tolls for weighing and measuring.

32. The Company may demand and take in respect of weighing and measuring and pitching and storing anything from any person bringing or requiring such thing to be weighed or measured or pitched or stored any tolls not exceeding the tolls in respect thereof specified in the schedule to this Act.

Tolls for weighing carriages.

33. Any person for the time being appointed to attend the machines for weighing waggons, carts, or other carriages within the limits of this Act may demand from the person desiring the same to be weighed such tolls or other payments as the Company may from time to time appoint, and such tolls or other payments, not exceeding those specified in the schedule to this Act, shall be paid before any waggon, cart, or carriage in respect of which the same are payable shall be weighed.

As to tolls to be taken after Company shall have purchased market rights.

34. From and after the said purchase by the Company, the tolls and other payments by this Act authorised shall be in lieu of and not in addition to any tolls or payments which were or might have been levied before such purchase in respect of any such franchise, right, or privilege purchased under the authority of this Act.

A.D. 1877.

Saving rights.

35. Subject to the provisions of this Act, nothing herein contained shall prejudice, increase, diminish, alter, take away, or give validity to any franchises, rights, privileges, powers, or authorities of any person with respect to the holding of markets or of taking tolls or dues within the limits of this Act, until and except so far as such franchises, rights, and powers (if any) shall be purchased by the Company under the powers of this Act.

Power to let stalls, &c.

36. The Company may from time to time let to any person any stall, shed, pen, standing, or other convenience in any market authorised by this Act for any time not exceeding three years at such annual rent (not exceeding the maximum annual rent authorised by the schedule hereto) and on such terms, subject to the provisions of this Act, as they think reasonable.

Power to let Town Hall, &c.

37. The Company may let the Town Hall, buildings, shops, warehouses, offices, and cellars aforesaid for any period not exceeding twenty-one years at such annual rent as they think reasonable, without taking any fine or premium thereon, and with such remedies for the recovery of such rent, and other conditions, as they may think fit.

Recovery of tolls.

38. If any person liable to the payment of any stallage, rent, toll, or charge payable to the Company under this Act does not pay the same when demanded, the Company, or any person authorised by the Company to collect the same, may seize and detain the goods, commodity, cattle, or horse in respect of which the same is payable, or any other goods, commodity, cattle, or horse belonging to the person liable to pay the same and within the limits of this Act, and if the stallage, rent, toll, or charge, and the reasonable charges of the seizure and detention, and of the keeping and maintaining of the goods, commodity, or animal seized, is not paid within four days from the time of seizure, or in case of perishable articles within six hours from the time of seizure, the Company may sell the goods, commodity, cattle, or horse seized, and out of the money arising thereby may pay and retain the stallage, rent, or toll, and the charges aforesaid and those of the sale, returning the overplus (if any) to the owner of the goods, commodity, cattle, or horse seized, or such stallage, rent, toll, or charge may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Expenses of Act.

39. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.
