monalty, and Citizens of the City of London, and was thereby appropriated towards raising the said Fund, and so to be applied as therein mentioned; and that for all Sorts of Coals which should be imported or brought into the Port of the said City of London, or the River of Thames within the Liberty of the said City, upon the same River to be sold by the Chaldron or Ton, there should be paid, by way of Imposition thereupon, according to the Rates and Duties therein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) for all such Sorts of Coals or Culm as were usually sold by the Chaldron, and which should be imported into the said Port or Members thereof from and after the Twenty-ninth Day of September which should be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred, over and above all other Impositions and Duties and the Sum of Four-pence Metage per Chaldron thereinbefore imposed as therein mentioned, the further Sum of Sixpence for every Chaldron thereof, and for such Sort of Coals as were sold by the Ton, for every Ton thereof containing Two thousand Weight the like Sum of Sixpence, which said Imposition of Sixpence should continue from the Twenty-ninth Day of September for and during the Term of Fifty Years, and no longer: And whereas by several Acts passed in the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Second, and in the Seventh and the Forty-fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the said Duty of Sixpence for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals imported as aforesaid was from Time to Time continued for divers Terms of Years, the last of which expired on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven: And whereas by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled
10 G. 4. c. 136. An Act for improving the Approaches to London Bridge, it was enacted, amongst other things, that it should be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City of London, in Common Council assembled, to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One Million Pounds, upon the Credit of the Fund created by the now-reciting Act, as therein is mentioned; and it was thereby further enacted, that for providing a Fund for the Purposes of the now-reciting Act after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, when the said Imposition of Sixpence for every Chaldron or Ton of Coals or Culm should cease, a like Imposition, Rate, or Duty of Sixpence for every such Chaldron of Coals and Culm and Small Coal imported into the Port of London, or the River Thames within the Liberty of the said City, should be payable for the Term of Twenty-one Years, to be computed from the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, unless the Sums of Money charged thereon should be sooner paid off and discharged: And whereas by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign
11 G. 4. & 1 W. 4. c. 64. of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to make further Provision for defraying the Expences of making the Approaches to London Bridge and the Removal of Fleet Market, it was enacted, amongst other things, that all the Funds which, before and at the Time of the passing of the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, constituted and formed the Fund called "The Orphan Fund," should, from

from and after the passing of the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, be charged with the raising and paying off the Capital Sum of One Million Pounds, with Interest thereon, allowed to be raised under the Provisions of the said before-recited Act for executing the Improvement of the said Approaches, in addition to the Capital Debt remaining charged thereon before the passing of the said Act, and that all such several and respective Funds as were not permanent should, after all the Principal Sums raised and borrowed and all the Annuities charged upon the said Fund called "The Orphan Fund," and then due and owing, had been paid off and discharged, be continued, and the whole thereof be applicable to the Purposes of the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth and of the now-reciting Act, until the Sums charged and to be charged thereon by virtue of the same Acts respectively should be paid off and discharged; and it was further enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, at any Time or Times after the passing of the now-reciting Act, to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, upon the Credit of the Fund created for improving the Approaches to London Bridge as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for improving the Site of the Royal Exchange in the City of London, and the Avenues adjoining thereto, it was enacted, amongst other things, that for the Purposes of that Act it should be lawful for the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, to borrow and raise any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, upon the Credit of the Fund created for improving the Approaches to London Bridge as aforesaid; and it was thereby further enacted, that the Fund created for improving the Approaches to London Bridge as aforesaid should be and the same was thereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which should be secured by the Bond or Bonds to be executed as therein mentioned; and it was thereby further enacted, that all such several and respective Funds, constituting or forming Part of the said Fund created for improving the Approaches to London Bridge, as were not permanent, after all the Principal Sums raised and borrowed and all the Annuities charged upon the said Funds, and then due and owing, had been paid off and discharged, should be and were thereby continued until the Annuities and Sums charged and to be charged thereon by virtue of the now-reciting Act should be paid off and discharged; provided nevertheless, that the Rates or Duties which by the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth were continued for a Term which would expire on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, unless the Sums of Money charged thereon should be sooner paid off and discharged, should not be continued by the now-reciting Act beyond the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight: And whereas by an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty,

1 & 2 Vict. c. 100.

2 & 3 Vict. c. 80.

Majesty, intituled An Act to empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to raise a Sum of Money for making additional Thoroughfares in the Metropolis, it was enacted, amongst other things, that for providing a Fund for the Purposes of the now-reciting Act it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, from Time to Time, with such Consent as therein mentioned, to charge the Funds therein-after mentioned and made subject as after mentioned with the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds, together with Interest on the Sum or Sums to be charged from the Time of charging the same, not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be payable half-yearly; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said Fund called "The Orphan Fund," and the Fund called "The London Bridge Approaches Fund" and all and singular the Funds, Duties, Impositions, and Revenues created, constituted, imposed, or continued by the said recited Acts of the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, and the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, or any or either of them, should be the Fund to be charged by Her Majesty's said Commissioners, and should be applicable, after the Sums already borrowed thereon should have been paid off and discharged, to the Payment of all such Monies as might be so charged thereon by the Commissioners for executing the now-reciting Act, and the Interest thereof, until the Sum or Sums, and Interest to be charged thereon as last aforesaid, should be paid off and discharged; and it was by the now-reciting Act further enacted, that such Parts of the Fund theretofore made applicable to the Purposes of the now-reciting Act, and which were thereby authorized to be charged, as were not permanent, after all the Principal Monies raised and borrowed and all the Annuities charged upon the said Fund, and then due and owing, should have been paid off and discharged, should be and were thereby continued in all respects, as was directed by the said Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, until the Sums charged and to be charged thereon by virtue of the now-reciting Act should be paid off and discharged; provided nevertheless, that the Rates or Duties which by the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth were continued for a Term which would expire on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, unless the Sums of Money charged thereon should be sooner paid off and discharged, should not be continued by the now-reciting Act beyond the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight: And whereas, for the providing a Fund for the making additional Thoroughfares and Improvements in the Metropolis, to be executed under the Direction of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and more particularly an intended Thoroughfare from Coventry Street to Long-acre in the County of Middlesex, and another intended Thoroughfare from Southwark to Westminster Bridge in the County of Surrey, and for completing certain Thoroughfares in the

City of Westminster and Clerkenwell in the said County of Middlesex, in such Manner as shall be provided and determined by any Act to be passed in the present or any future Session of Parliament, it is expedient that the said Duty on Coals and Culm and Small Coal imported into the Port of London, or the River Thames within the Liberty of the said City, imposed or continued by the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth for the Term of Twenty-one Years from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, should be continued for a further Term of Four Years from the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, when the same would otherwise cease, and that the aforesaid Duty on Wines so granted as aforesaid should continue payable for a further Term of Four Years: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Rates, Impositions, and Duties on Coal imported into the Port of London, or the River Thames within the Liberty of the said City, which by the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth were continued for a Term which would expire on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, shall be and are hereby continued and made payable for a further Term of Four Years from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and all and every the Powers and Authorities, Directions and Provisions, contained or referred to in the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the collecting, levying, and recovering of the said Impositions, Rates, or Duties during the said Term of Twenty-one Years mentioned in the said Act, shall extend and apply and are hereby extended and made applicable to the collecting, levying, and recovering of the same during the said further Term of Four Years from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and all the Penalties by the said Act imposed or therein referred to, and the Regulations therein made or referred to for preventing Frauds and Covin, shall be in force, and by virtue of this Act shall and may be exercised and put in use in collecting, levying, and recovering the said Impositions, Rates, or Duties, for and during all the Term by this Act limited and appointed for Payment thereof, as if the same were herein expressly repeated and re-enacted; and all Money to be received on account of the said Impositions, Rates, or Duties shall from Time to Time, during all the Term hereby limited and appointed for the Payment thereof, be paid into the Chamber of the said City of London.

The Duty of Sixpence per Chaldron on Coals imported into the Port of London continued and made payable for the further Term of Four Years from the 5th July 1858.

II. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes aforesaid the aforesaid Duty of Four Shillings per Tun on Wines imposed by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary shall continue and be payable in all respects as the same is now payable for the further Term of Four Years from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

The Duty of 4*s* per Tun on Wines also continued for Four Years.

Public Act.

III. And be it declared and enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.

Sasine not necessary.

And every such Conveyance, being registered in the particular Register of Sasines for the County or Place in which the Lands and Heritages thereby conveyed are situated, or in the general Register of Sasines kept in Edinburgh, and which the Keepers of the said Registers are hereby required and authorized to do, shall have the full Effect of a valid and formal Disposition, followed by Infeftment and Sasine duly recorded, and shall give and constitute a good and undoubted Right and Title to the said Trustees to the Premises therein described, any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Heirs of Entail, on receiving Payment, to renounce and discharge the Price.

XCI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to all Heirs of Entail in Possession of entailed Estates in or through which the said River, Harbour, Dock, Quays, Wharfs, or other Works may be or pass, on receiving Payment in gross Sums, or by annual Payments, to renounce and discharge for themselves, and the Heirs succeeding to them in such Estates, all Claims for Price, Compensation, or other Claims which may be competent to such Heirs for or in respect of any Grounds or other Heritages which may be occupied or damaged by the said River, Harbour, Dock, or other Works; and a Discharge or Renunciation to that Effect, granted by the Heir of Entail in Possession, and recorded as Conveyances are herein-before directed to be recorded, shall have the same Force and Effect in Law as if a Conveyance had been granted and recorded as aforesaid.

Superiority not to be affected.

XCII. And be it enacted, That the Rights and Titles to be granted in manner before mentioned to the said Trustees to the Premises therein described shall not in any measure affect or diminish the Superiority of the same, but notwithstanding such Conveyances the Superiority shall remain, as before, entire in the Persons having Right to the same.

Payment or Satisfaction may be made to Owners, &c.

XCIII. And be it enacted, That all and every Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Trustees and other Persons hereby empowered to contract for, sell, feu, and convey Lands or other Heritages, and any other Owners and the Occupiers of any Lands or other Heritages through, in, or upon which the said River, Harbour, Quays, Wharfs, Docks, and other Works hereby authorized shall pass or be made, may accept and receive such Satisfaction as they shall think adequate for the Price or Value of such Lands and Heritages, and for the Damages to be sustained by making, completing, and repairing the said Works, either in gross Sums or in annual Payments.

If Parties cannot agree, the Sheriff to impannel a Jury.

XCIV. And be it enacted, That in case the Price or Value to be paid for any Lands, Tenements, or other Heritages taken or used for the Purposes of this Act cannot be settled, adjusted, and agreed upon, by Arbitration or otherwise, by and between the said Trustees, or their Agents, and the Proprietors or Occupiers of and Persons interested in such Lands, Tenements, or other Heritages, or if any such Proprietors or Occupiers of or Persons interested in such Lands, Tenements, or other Heritages shall, for the Space of One Calendar

Month after Notice in Writing given to the principal Officer or Officers of any Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or to the Proprietors or Persons interested as aforesaid, or left at the last or usual Place or Places of his, her, or their Abode, or in case such Proprietor or Person be absent or not known, with his, her, or their Factor or known Agent, or if there be no such Factor or Agent then with the Tenants or Occupiers, or any of them, of such Lands or other Heritages, neglect or refuse to treat or shall not agree with the said Trustees, or by reason of Absence shall be prevented from treating, or through Disability cannot treat for themselves, or make such Agreement as shall be necessary for enabling the said Trustees to proceed in widening, deepening, and improving the said River, enlarging the said Harbour, or constructing the said Wet Dock, Wharfs, and other Works, or shall not produce and evince a clear Title to the Premises in dispute, or to the Interest which they claim therein, to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, or if the said Trustees shall, for the Space of One Calendar Month after Notice in Writing given to their Clerk or Treasurer for the Time being, by any Proprietor or Occupier of or Persons interested in any Lands or Heritages taken or used for the Purposes of this Act, neglect or refuse to treat with such Proprietor or Occupier or other Person, or cannot agree with him, then and in every such Case the said Trustees, or the Proprietor or Occupier or other Person interested in or entitled to such Lands or Heritages, shall be and they are hereby respectively empowered to make Application in Writing to the Sheriff of the County within which such Lands or Heritages may be situated, for the Purpose of having such Price or Value ascertained by the Verdict of a Jury; and the Applicant in such Cases shall be deemed to be the Pursuer, and such Sheriff is thereupon required to summon an Assize of not more than Fifty nor less than Thirty-six duly qualified Persons, in the Manner in which Juries are in use to be summoned in Scotland, to meet, under suitable Penalties, at such Time and Place as such Sheriff shall think fit to appoint, not being less than Nine Days after such Application being made, out of which Number such Sheriff shall impannel a Jury of Thirteen Persons, all Parties concerned having their lawful or reasonable Challenges or Exceptions against any of the said Jurymen; and such Sheriff is hereby empowered and required to summon and call before him every Person who shall be thought necessary by either Party to be examined as a Witness or Haver touching the Matter in question before such Jury; and such Sheriff may order and authorize such Jury, or any Three or more of them, to view the Places or Premises in controversy; and such Jury upon their Oaths (which Oaths, as well as the Oaths to such Persons as shall be called on to give Evidence, such Sheriff is hereby empowered to administer,) shall inquire into, assess, and fix, by the Verdict of a Majority of their Number, the Sum of Money to be paid for such Lands or Heritages as aforesaid; and such Sheriff shall give Judgment for the Purchase Monies or Recompence assessed by such Jury; which Verdict, and the Judgment thereupon, shall be signed by such Sheriff, and shall be binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes against all Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, and all other Persons whomsoever, without being subject to Reduction, Advocation, cation, or Suspension, or to any Question or Review in any way whatsoever; and if any Person so summoned and returned as aforesaid upon such Jury shall not appear, or appearing shall refuse to give in his Verdict, or in any other Manner wilfully neglect his Duty contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or if any Person so summoned to give Evidence, after having been paid or tendered, upon Appearance being made, a reasonable Sum, to be fixed by such Sheriff, for his Costs, Charges, and Expences, shall refuse to be sworn and examined or give Evidence, every Person so offending, having no reasonable Excuse, to be allowed by such Sheriff, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Verdicts of Juries, &c. to be deemed Records.

XCV. And be it enacted, That the Verdicts of the Juries, and the Judgments of the Sheriff thereon, shall be kept by the Sheriff Clerk of the County within which such Lands may be situated, and shall be deemed Records to all Intents and Purposes, and the same, or Extracts or true Copies thereof, duly authenticated, shall be Evidence in all Courts whatsoever; and all Persons shall have Liberty to inspect the same, paying for each Inspection the Sum of One Shilling, and no more, and to take Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom, paying for every Copy or Extract after the Rate of Three-pence for every Seventy-two Words.

For settling Costs, &c.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That in every Case in which the Verdict of a Jury shall be given for the same or a greater Sum than shall have been previously offered by the said Trustees for the Purchase of any Lands or Heritages to be used or taken by them for the Purposes of this Act, all the Costs, Charges, and Expences of summoning such Jury, and of Witnesses, and of Counsel, and of the Trial, and of the Bond hereinafter mentioned to be given by the Party requiring such Jury to be summoned, shall be defrayed by the said Trustees, and such Costs, Charges, and Expences shall be settled and determined by such Sheriff; and in case such Costs, Charges, and Expences shall not be paid to the Party or Parties entitled to receive the same within Five Days after the same shall have been demanded, then the same shall and may be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of any Goods or Chattels of the said Trustees, or of the Treasurer of the Trustees, unless such Treasurer shall pay such Costs, Charges, and Expences out of any Monies received by him by virtue of this Act (and which he is hereby authorized to do), under a Warrant to be issued for that Purpose by such Sheriff, which Warrant such Sheriff is hereby authorized and required to issue under his Hand, on Application made to him for that Purpose by any Party entitled to receive such Costs, Charges, and Expences; but if the Verdict of the Jury shall be given for a less Sum than shall have been previously offered by the said Trustees, One Half of the said Costs, Charges, and Expences shall be defrayed by the Party with whom the said Trustees shall have such Controversy or Dispute, and the Remainder shall be defrayed by the said Trustees; and the former Half of such Costs, Charges, and Expences, having been ascertained and settled in manner herein-before mentioned, shall and may be deducted out of the Money adjudged to be paid to such Party or Parties as aforesaid as so much Money advanced advanced to and for his, her, or their Use, and the Payment or Tender of the Remainder of the Money so adjudged shall be deemed and taken, to all Intents and Purposes, to be a good Payment or Tender in satisfaction of the whole thereof: Provided always, that in Cases in which, by reason of Absence in Foreign Parts or from any other Cause or Disability not herein-before provided for, any Person shall have been prevented from treating and agreeing as aforesaid, the whole of such Costs and Charges and Expences shall be borne and paid by the said Trustees.

Jury to be under same Regulations, &c. as on Justiciary Trials, &c.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That every such Jury or Juryman as aforesaid shall, in so far as not hereby otherwise provided, be under and subject to the same Regulations, Pains, and Penalties as if such Jury or Juryman had been returned to pass upon any Justiciary Trial in Scotland; and all and every Person and Persons who, in any Examination to be taken in virtue of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence before any such Jury as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall and may be prosecuted for the same, and upon Conviction thereof shall be subject to such Punishment and Disqualification as any Person can or may be subject to for wilful and corrupt Perjury by the Laws or Statutes of that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland.

A Special Jury may be called.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees or any of the said Parties, in any Case where the Matters aforesaid are ordered to be assessed and ascertained by the Verdict of a Jury, to apply to such Sheriff as aforesaid to direct that the same shall be assessed and ascertained by a Jury especially chosen from disinterested Persons qualified to act as Special Jurors in Scotland, and the said Sheriff shall thereupon cause to be returned to the Clerk of such Sheriff a List of Thirty-six Persons qualified to be Special Jurors in Scotland, and shall appoint a Day for the Parties or their Agents to appear before such Sheriff Clerk, to reduce the Number of such Jury, and on the Day appointed the Parties or their Agents shall appear before such Sheriff Clerk, and, alternately beginning with the Party who had originally applied to have the Matters aforesaid assessed or ascertained by a Jury, shall strike off One from the said List until the Number of Jurymen is reduced to Twenty, which Twenty only shall be summoned to attend the said Sheriff on the Day appointed for the Trial of the Matter aforesaid, and if either of the Parties or their Agents shall fail to attend on the Day appointed for reducing the Number of Jurymen, then the other Party attending shall proceed to strike off One of the said List, and the Sheriff Clerk shall strike off One alternately till the List be reduced to Twenty as aforesaid; and on the Day appointed for trying the Matters aforesaid the Jury shall consist of such Thirteen of the said Twenty as shall first appear on the Names being called over, all Persons having their lawful Challenges or Exceptions against any of the said Jurymen; and where a full Jury shall not appear, or shall not remain after such Challenges as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to the said Sheriff to add to the List of the Jury the Names of such other disinterested Persons qualified to act as Special Jurymen in Scotland, who may then be attending the Court, as may be necessary to make a Jury of Thirteen, all Parties having also their lawful Challenges or Exceptions against such Persons; and the said Sheriff shall and may proceed to the Trial of the Matters aforesaid with those Persons who were originally inserted in such List of Jurors, together with the Persons added in manner aforesaid, in the same Manner as the said Sheriff might and ought to have done if all the said Persons whose Names were inserted in the said original List had appeared to try the Matters aforesaid; and the said Sheriff may order and authorize the said Jury, or any Three or more of them, to view the Land, Place, or Premises in controversy; and the Verdict shall be returned by a Majority of such Thirteen Persons as aforesaid.

Upon Payment or Consignation of Price, Trustees to enter upon Lands, &c.

XCIX. And be it enacted, That upon Payment or legal Tender of such Sums of Money as shall have been contracted or agreed for between the Parties, or assessed by Jury, for the Purchase of any Lands or Heritages to be taken for the Purposes of this Act, within One Calendar Month after the same shall have been contracted, agreed for, or assessed as aforesaid, to the Proprietor of such Lands or Premises, or to such other Person as shall be interested therein as aforesaid, or if the Person so interested shall not be able to make a good Title thereto to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, or cannot be found, or shall refuse to receive the same, or execute such Conveyance, then, upon the Payment of such Sums of Money, within One Calendar Month after the same shall have been contracted for or assessed as aforesaid, into any of the said Banks, for the Use of such Person or Persons so interested as aforesaid, then and in all or any of the said Cases, as often as the same shall happen, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, and their Agents, Workmen, and Servants, immediately to enter, or if they have entered to continue, upon such Lands or Heritages respectively, and then and thereupon such Lands or Heritages, together with the yearly Profits thereof, and all the Estate, Use, Trust, and Interest of any Person therein, shall from thenceforth be vested in and become the sole Property of the said Trustees and their Successors, to and for the Purposes of this Act for ever; and such Payment, Tender, Deposit, or Investment shall not only bar all Right, Title, Claim, Interest, and Demand of the Person entitled to or interested in such Lands or other Heritages, but shall also extend to and be deemed and construed to bar the Courtesy of the Husband and the Terce of the Wife of every such Person, and all other Right, Title, or Interest of every other Person whomsoever therein.

If Price exceeds 200*l.*, and belongs to incapacitated Persons, it shall be consigned.

C. And be it enacted, That if any Monies shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands or Heritages purchased, taken, or used for the Purposes of this Act, which shall belong to any Corporation, Married Woman, Infant, Lunatic, or Person or Persons under any other Disability or Incapacity, or as a Recompence for Damages caused thereby, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, with all convenient Speed be paid into any of the said Banks, and without Fee or Reward; to the Intent that such Money shall be applied, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the Court of Session, to be signified by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary Way by the Person who would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of such Lands and Heritages, in the Purchase or Redemption of the Land Tax, or towards the Discharge of any Debt, or such other Incumbrance, or Part thereof, as the said Court shall authorized to be paid, affecting the same Lands or Heritages, or affecting other Lands or Heritages standing settled therewith to the same or the like Uses, Intents, or Purposes; or where such Money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Lands and Heritages, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and in the same Manner, as the Lands or Heritages which shall be so purchased, taken, or used as aforesaid stood settled or limited, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect; and in the meantime, and until such Purchases shall be made, the Interest or annual Produce of such Money shall from Time to Time be paid, by Order of the said Court, to the Person who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands and Heritages so hereby directed to be purchased, in case such Purchases or Settlement were made.

CI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Money so agreed or awarded to be paid for any Lands or Heritages purchased, taken, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Corporation, or any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall (at the Option of the Person for the Time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands or Heritages so purchased, taken, or used, or of his Guardian or Guardians, in case of Infancy or Lunacy, to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands,) be paid into one of the said Banks, to be applied in manner herein-before directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid, at the like Option, to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the Person making such Option, and approved of by the said Trustees, (such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties,) in order that such Principal Money, and the Interest arising thereon, be applied in any Manner before directed, so far as the Case may be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court.

CII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where such Money so agreed or awarded to be paid as last before mentioned shall be less than Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands or Heritages so purchased, taken, or used for the Purposes of this Act, in such Manner as the said Trustees shall think fit, or in case of Infancy or Lunacy then to his Guardian or Guardians, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons so entitled respectively.

CIII. And

If Persons cannot be found, or refuse to accept, Price to be consigned.

CIII. And be it enacted, That in case the Person or Persons to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be awarded as aforesaid shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make good a Title to the Premises to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, or in case the Person to whom any such Sum of Money shall be so awarded as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person entitled to such Lands or Heritages be not known or discovered, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or any Two or more of them, to pay the Sums of Money so awarded as aforesaid into any of the said Banks to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Lands or Heritages, (describing them, if they are known, and if they are not known then generally to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Lands or Heritages, without any Description of them,) subject to the Order, Control, and Disposition of the said Court of Session; which said Court, or either of the Divisions thereof, on the Application of any Person making claim to such Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Petition, shall be and are hereby empowered, in a summary Way of proceeding, or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem meet, to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier of any of the said Banks who shall receive such Sums of Money is and are hereby required to give Receipts for the same, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same are received, to such Person as shall pay any such Sums of Money into such Bank is aforesaid.

Where Question shall arise touching Title, &c.

CIV. And be it enacted, That where any Question shall, with the Exceptions herein-before provided, arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into any such Bank as aforesaid, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Lands or Heritages, or of any Estate, Right, or Interest in any Lands or Heritages to be purchased in pursuance thereof, or to any Interest of such Money, the Person who shall have been in Possession of the Lands or Heritages at the Time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Lands or Heritages, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Session; and the Interest of such Money and also the Principal Sums shall be paid, applied, and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the Court that such Possession was a wrongful one, and that some other Person was lawfully entitled to such Lands or Heritages, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

Court of Session may order the Costs of Purchase, Reinvestment, &c. to be paid by the Trustees under this Act.

CV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of any Party entitled to any Lands to be taken or used, or in respect of which any Satisfaction or Compensation shall be payable under the Authority of this Act, except in Cases where Parties shall refuse to convey such Lands, the Purchase Money for the same, or the Money payable for such Compensation, shall be required to be paid into any of the said Banks in Scotland, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Session to order the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the Purchase or the taking or using of such Lands, or which may be incurred in consequence thereof, and also the the Costs, Charges, and Expences of the Reinvestment of the Purchase or Compensation Money in other Lands, and likewise the Costs, Charges, and Expences (occasioned only by the Exercise of the Powers conferred by this Act, and not by Litigation between the Claimants or otherwise,) of any Proceedings had as herein-before authorized for the Re-investment of such Purchase or Compensation Money, and for the Payment of the Interest thereof, or so much of such Costs, Charges, and Expences as the said Court shall think reasonable, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining the proper Orders for such Purposes, to be paid by the said Trustees out of the Monies to be received by virtue of this Act, and the said Trustees shall from Time to Time pay such Sums of Money for such Costs, Charges, and Expences as the said Court shall direct.

Where Lands are burdened.

CVI. And be it enacted, That in case any Lands or Heritages to be taken or used for the Purposes of this Act shall happen to be burdened with any Heritable Debt to any Person, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, upon Application made to them by such Heritable Creditor, and the said Trustees are hereby authorized and required, to pay such Sums of Money agreed for and adjusted or assessed in manner aforesaid for such Lands burdened with Heritable Debt, to such Heritable Creditor, in part of the Principal Money due on such Heritable Debt: Provided always, that upon Receipt of such Sum or Sums such Heritable Creditor shall acknowledge the Receipt of such Sum or Sums of Money, either by Endorsement to be made upon the Security for such Heritable Debts, and signed by such Heritable Creditor in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, in satisfaction of so much of the Principal Money due upon such Heritable Debt, or otherwise by such other Receipt, Acknowledgment, or Discharge for such Payment as shall by the Law of Scotland be good and effectual to the Debtor.

For Sale of superfluous Lands.

CVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees and they are hereby required, within Ten Years after the passing of this Act, to sell, for such Price or Consideration as they may deem reasonable, any Part of the Lands to be purchased under the Authority of this Act which may not be necessary for the Purposes thereof, in such Manner as they shall deem most advantageous; and the Contracts, Sales, and Conveyances to be made by the said Trustees shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes: Provided always, that the said Trustees, before they shall dispose of any such superfluous Lands, shall first offer to sell the same to the Person or to the several Persons whose Lands or Premises shall immediately adjoin the Lands so proposed to be sold; and such respective Persons, in case they shall be desirous of purchasing the same, shall signify their Intention so to do to the said Trustees within Thirty Days after such Offer of Sale shall have been made; and in case such Persons shall decline to avail themselves of such Offer, or neglect to signify their Intention so to purchase, for the Space of Thirty Days after due Notice in Writing requiring them so to do, the Right of Pre-emption of every such Person so declining or neglecting, in respect of the Lands included in such Offer of Sale, shall cease; and a Declaration before the Sheriff of the County where such Lands are situate by some Persons not interested in such Lands, stating that the Person entitled to such Right of Pre-emption was not in Scotland, or was not found, or was not capable of entering into a Contract for the Purchase of such Lands, or that such Offer was made by or on behalf of the said Trustees, and was refused or was not accepted by the Person to whom the same was made within the Space of Thirty Days from the Time of making the same, shall in all Courts whatsoever be sufficient Evidence that such Offer was made, and was refused or was not accepted within the Time aforesaid, as the Case may be, by the Person to whom such Offer was made; and in case any such Person as aforesaid shall be desirous of purchasing any such Land, and such Person and the said Trustees shall not agree with respect to the Price thereof, then the Price thereof shall be ascertained by a Jury in the Manner by this Act directed in regard to the disputed Value of Lands to be taken by the said Trustees; and the Expence of hearing and determining shall be paid in the like Manner as in this Act is directed with respect to the disputed Value of Lands to be taken or used by the said Trustees, mutatis mutandis; and the Money produced by the Sale of Lands so to be made by the said Trustees shall be applied to the Purposes of this Act; and all Conveyances which shall be made by the said Trustees pursuant to the Authority in them by this Act reposed shall be adjudged sufficient to vest such Estate in the Purchaser as the same shall be conveyed by the said Trustees.

Provision for Deficiencies of Land Tax.

CVIII. And whereas, by reason of the Exercise of the Powers by this Act granted there may be Deficiencies in the Assessments for Land Tax in the several Parishes through or in which the several Works hereby authorized may pass or be situate; be it therefore enacted, That the said Trustees shall, from and after they shall have become seised and possessed by virtue of this Act of any Premises charged with the Land Tax, and until the Works hereby authorized to be made shall be completed and assessed to such Land Tax, unless the said Trustees shall think fit to redeem the same under the Powers of the Acts for the Redemption of Land Tax, be subject and liable from Time to Time to pay and make good, to or in aid of such several Parishes as aforesaid, out of the Monies to arise by virtue of this Act, all such Sums of Money as shall be deficient in the said several Assessments for Land Tax within the said several Parishes by reason of taking down or using for the Purposes of this Act any Premises liable to such Assessments according to the Rental at which the same were valued or rated at the Time of the passing of this Act, and the Treasurer appointed or to be appointed under this Act is hereby required to pay all such Deficiencies, on Demand thereof, to the Collector of the said Assessments.

Jury to ascertain Damages to Harbours, Roadsteads, Fishings, &c.

CIX. And be it enacted, That in case of Disagreement between the said Trustees and the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands, Fishings, Harbours, Roadsteads, Quays, Tenements, or other Works or Heritages, adjacent to or in the River or Frith of Clyde, which may be injured or damaged by or in consequence of the Operations under the Authority of the said recited Acts or of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to such Owners or Occupiers to apply by Petition to the Sheriff of the County within which the Injury or Damage may arise, arise, setting forth this Act, and praying him to fix and ascertain the Amount of the Recompence to be made for such Damage or Injury; and such Sheriff shall thereupon proceed to summon a Jury to ascertain the Amount of the Recompence so to be made, and shall proceed further therein, in such and the same Manner, and under such Regulations, as are herein-before directed in regard to the ascertaining the just Amount and Value of Lands, Houses, or Heritages to be injured or taken for the Purposes of this Act.

Parties applying for a Jury to find Caution for Costs.

CX. And be it enacted, That all and every Body or Person making Application for a Jury shall, if required in Writing, in all Cases where Compensation for Damage is sought to be recovered, enter into a Bond to the Clerk or Treasurer for the Time being of the said Trustees, in such Penalty as the Sheriff of the said County shall appoint, not exceeding the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to pay his or their Proportion of the Costs and Expences of summoning such Jury and taking such Inquest in the Proportion and Manner herein-before mentioned.

Obstructions to be removed.

CXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where Damage, Injury, or Obstruction shall arise to Harbours, Docks, or Roadsteads, or similar Works or Heritages below Dunglas Castle, by or in consequence of the Operations of the said Trustees, it shall be lawful for the Trustees or other Persons having Charge of or Property in the same, instead of requiring a Recompence to be made for such Damage, Injury, or Obstruction by the said Trustees for the Navigation of the said River Clyde, to require that the Obstruction shall be removed, in which Case the said last-mentioned Trustees shall be and they are hereby bound and obliged, at their Expence, with the least possible Delay after being thereunto required, either from Time to Time to remove such Obstruction, or to adopt such Measures as shall in all Time thereafter effectually prevent the Recurrence of such Obstruction; and in the event of the said Trustees for the Navigation of the said River Clyde refusing or neglecting to remove such Obstruction, or in case they shall also subsequently refuse or neglect to adopt such Measures as shall effectually prevent the Recurrence of such Obstruction as aforesaid, upon being thereunto required, to the Satisfaction of the Trustees or other Persons having the Charge of or Property in such Docks, Harbours, Roadsteads, or other similar Works, then, and in case of Difference between such last-mentioned Trustees and other Persons and the said River Trustees, it shall and may be lawful for such Trustees or other Persons as aforesaid, or River Trustees, to apply by Petition to the Sheriff of the County within which the Cause of Complaint may arise, and such Sheriff is hereby authorized and required to call such Evidence of Engineers and others before him as he shall see fit, and to adjudge therein as to him shall appear just; and the Decisions of the said Sheriff in any of the Matters aforesaid shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be subject to Review by Advocation, Suspension, Reduction, or otherwise, in any Court whatsoever, unless in Cases where the Determination of such Sheriff shall order Measures in all Time after for the preventing such Obstruction.

CXII. And

Chart of the River between Dumbarton Castle and Gourock Bay to be made.

CXII. And be it enacted, That immediately after the passing of this Act a full and accurate Survey of that Part of the River and Frith of Clyde which lies between Dumbarton Castle and the Bay of Gourock shall be made at the Expence of the said Trustees, and a Map or Chart thereof shall be drawn out and signed and certified by the Engineer or Engineers under whose Superintendence and Direction the same shall have been made; and Copies of the said Map or Chart shall be deposited with each of the Sheriff Clerks of the Counties of Lanark and Renfrew, and also with each of the Town Clerks of the Burghs of Glasgow, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, and which said Map or Chart shall be so drawn and constructed as to exhibit accurately and distinctly the several Channels, Bays, Creeks, Banks, Currents, and every other Particular necessary to convey full and distinct Information in regard to the State of the said River and Frith within the aforesaid Boundaries; and such Chart shall have marked thereon the Depths of Water in the different Parts of the River delineated on the said Map or Chart, and the several Currents and Channels, with their Courses and Direction, now existing within these Limits at the various Times of the Tide; and such Survey shall be made, and such Map or Chart constructed, under the Superintendence and Direction of One eminent Civil Engineer, to be mutually named by the said Trustees on the one Part, and the Provosts and Magistrates of Greenock and Port Glasgow jointly on the other Part; and in case the said Parties shall not be able to agree upon the Engineer so to be appointed, then and in that Event the said Survey shall be made, and the said Map or Chart shall be constructed, under the Superintendence and Direction of Two eminent Civil Engineers, one to be chosen by the said Trustees, and the other by the said Provosts and Magistrates of Greenock and Port Glasgow jointly; provided always, that if the said Two Engineers so to be appointed differ in Opinion, they shall have full Power and Authority to name a Third Engineer as Umpire, which said Third Engineer as Umpire shall alone have and exercise all the Powers and Authorities hereby given to such Two Engineers who shall name such Third Engineer as Umpire; and it shall not be lawful for nor in the Power of the said Trustees to commence, prosecute, or carry on any Operations on either Side of the River to the Westward of Dumbarton Castle until such Survey shall have been made, and such Map or Chart shall have been drawn out and deposited, duly signed and certified, as aforesaid, with the Sheriff Clerks of the said Counties of Lanark and Renfrew, and also with the Town Clerks of the said Burghs of Glasgow, Greenock, and Port Glasgow; and the said Map or Chart, when deposited as aforesaid, shall remain in the Office of the said Sheriff Clerks and Town Clerks respectively, and be in their Custody in all Time coming; and all Persons shall, at all reasonable Times, have Liberty to inspect, peruse, or make Copies of the same, as Occasion shall require, paying to such Sheriff Clerks or Town Clerks respectively the Sum of One Shilling for every such Examination, and Threepence for every Seventy-two Words of such Copy.

If Trustees refuse or neglect to appoint an Engineer,

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the said Trustees shall refuse or neglect to concur in the Nomination of an eminent Engineer for the Purposes aforesaid within One Month after a Notice the Sheriff to appoint.

a Notice in Writing shall by Order of the Provosts and Magistrates of Greenock and Port Glasgow, jointly or separately, have been given to the Clerk of the said Trustees (by Delivery of the same at his Office in Glasgow), requiring the said Trustees so to concur in the Nomination of an eminent Engineer, or shall neglect or refuse to name and appoint an eminent Engineer to act along with the Engineer nominated by the said Provosts and Magistrates of Greenock and Port Glasgow), or either of them, it shall be lawful to and in the Power of the said Provosts and Magistrates of Greenock and Port Glasgow, either jointly or separately, to apply to either of the Sheriffs of Lanarkshire or Renfrewshire, and on such Application the Sheriff to whom such Application shall be so made shall and he is hereby authorized and required to appoint an eminent Engineer, at the Expence of the said Trustees, to make all or any of the Surveys, Inspections, and Reports herein last before mentioned; and the said Trustees shall and they are hereby required to cause the Recommendation of such Engineer to be carried into effect as fully in every respect as if the said Trustees themselves had concurred in the said Appointment; and in every Case where Two Engineers who shall be so appointed as aforesaid shall differ in Opinion, and cannot agree in naming an Umpire, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, or for the said Provosts and Magistrates of Greenock and Port Glasgow, or any of them, to apply to either of the Sheriffs of Lanarkshire or Renfrewshire, as aforesaid, to name a Third Engineer as Umpire, who shall have all the Powers and Authorities with which such Two Engineers shall have been invested; and the Report of such Two Engineers, or of such Umpire, being duly signed, shall be final and conclusive against all Parties concerned.

Saving Rights of Paisley and Renfrew Railway Company.

CXIV. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal, abridge, or in any way prejudice or diminish any of the Rights or Powers conferred on and enjoyed by existing Acts of Parliament, or Common Law, or otherwise, by the Paisley and Renfrew Railway Company, all of which Rights and Powers are hereby saved and reserved entire.

In case of Removal of Company's Wharf, &c. by Trustees.

CXV. And it is hereby further especially enacted, That should the Trustees on the said River Clyde at any Time, by virtue of this Act, alter or remove the Wharf or Wharfs and Buildings thereon presently erected, or which the said Railway Company may hereafter erect, which the said Trustees are authorized to do under the Provisions of the present Act, they the said Trustees shall be bound to make and keep the Bed or Channel of the said River, up to and opposite the said Wharf, in the same proper Order and Depth as other navigable Parts of the said River near to the said Wharf.

Temporary Wharf to be provided for the Renfrew Railway.

CXVI. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees, previous to the Alteration or Removal of the said Wharf, shall, at their own Costs and Charges, make a good and sufficient temporary Wharf for the Use of the Trade resorting to the present Wharf, and shall maintain the same aye and until another Wharf shall be erected in place of that to be so altered or removed; reserving always to the said Railway Company all Claim for the Value of the said Wharf and Buildings, and any Land which the said Trustees may take and use belonging to the said Railway Company, as well as Compensation for any Damages the said Company may sustain by or in consequence of the Removal of the said Wharf and Buildings, or the taking of any Ground as aforesaid, to be ascertained in the Manner herein-before provided for ascertaining the Value of Property taken and the Compensation for Damages sustained by the Operations under this Act.

Not to affect the Agreement with Burgh of Renfrew.

CXVII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall alter, prejudice, or affect a certain Agreement entered into by and between the Magistrates and Council of the said Burgh of Renfrew and the said Trustees, respecting the Right of the said Burgh of Renfrew to the Salmon Fishing in the said River, which shall stand and subsist in full Force and Effect, and be binding on the said Parties and the Trustees to be appointed under and by virtue of this Act.

Complaint may be made for Malversation.

CXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Five or more Persons paying or who may have paid any of the said Rates or Duties to complain to the Court of Sessions, by summary Petition, against the said Trustees, or any individual Trustee or Trustees, and to the said Trustees, or any individual Trustee for the Time being, to complain against their Predecessors in Office, of any Act or Acts of Embezzlement, Malversation, or wilful Misapplication by the said Trustees, or any Person acting for them, of the Funds vested in the said Trustees under this Act, contrary to the Provisions thereof for the Application of such Funds; and the said Court of Session shall hear and determine such Complaint, and pronounce such Orders and Decrees in the Premises as the said Court may think fit: Provided always, that such Complaint shall be brought within Twelve Calendar Months after the Offence, and that no such Petition shall be received unless Security for the Expences of Process, and for any Damages which the Defendant may establish in consequence of such Action, shall have been previously found.

Reservation of Jurisdiction of Magistrates, &c.

CXIX. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to take away, abridge, or diminish any Rights, Privileges, Jurisdictions, or Powers which now belong to and are enjoyed by the Magistrates and Town Council of Glasgow, Greenock, Port Glasgow, Dumbarton, and Renfrew respectively, or by the said Magistrates or any of them, or by the Baillie on the River or Frith of Clyde, or by any of the Sheriffs or Justices of the Peace of the said Counties of Lanark, Renfrew, or Dumbarton.

Repeal of Limitation of Actions.

CXX. And be it enacted, That so much of the said recited Acts or any of them as relates to the Limitation of Actions to be brought under the Authority thereof, or to the Costs or Expences in or relative to such Actions, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal of Construction in favour of Act.

CXXI. And whereas the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third enacts, that any Doubt which shall arise about the Exposition thereof, and of the Act therein recited, shall be deemed, construed, and taken in such Manner as shall be most beneficial for the Purposes of the said Acts, and Questions have arisen as to whether the said Provision was continued in force or was repealed by the said other recited Acts of the Forty-Ninth Year of His Majesty King George the Third and of the Sixth Year of His Majesty King George the Fourth; be it enacted, That the said Provision shall be and the same is hereby repealed, but without Prejudice to any Question depending upon the previous Repeal of the said Provision.

Former Acts continued in force so far as not altered or repealed.

CXXII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall repeal, alter, or affect the said recited Acts or any of them, except in so far as the said recited Acts or any of them, or any Part thereof, may be contrary to or inconsistent with this Act, but the said recited Acts, and the whole Clauses and Provisions therein contained, except in so far as they are so altered, affected, or repealed, shall be as good, valid, and effectual for carrying this Act into execution as if the same had been repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act; and the said recited Acts and this Act shall, as to the Powers, Provisions, Matters, and Things not repealed, altered, or affected, be construed together as One Act.

Expences of Act.

CXXIII. And be it enacted, That the Charges and Expences of passing this Act shall be paid by the said Trustees from the Tolls Rates, and Duties granted, or from the Sums authorized to be borrowed by the said recited Acts and this Act.

Saving the Rights of the Crown.

CXXIV. Provided always, and be it expressly declared and enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in any of the Acts herein recited or referred to, contained, shall be held, deemed, or construed to abrogate, lessen, defeat, limit, or in any Manner prejudice the Estate, Right, Title, or Interest of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, in, to, or over the Water-way, Alveus, or Channel of the River Clyde, or in, to, or over any Lands, Grounds, or Heritages which now form or constitute, or at any Time heretofore formed or constituted, Part of the Water-way, Alveus, or Channel of the said River, or in, to, or over any Lands, Grounds, or Heritages at any Time or Times heretofore reclaimed or resumed from the Water-way, Alveus, or Channel of the said River, by reason or means or in consequence of the Works, Matters, or Things heretofore done by the Trustees acting in execution of and under the Authority of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or otherwise, or in, to, or over any Lands, Grounds, or Heritages which may at any Time or Times hereafter be resumed or reclaimed from the Water-way, Alveus, or Channel of the said River by means of the Works, Matters, or Things which may at any Time or Times hereafter be done or performed by the said Trustees acting in execution of and under the Authority of this Act or otherwise; and nothing in this Act, or in any of the Acts herein recited or referred to, contained, shall be held, deemed, or construed to abrogate, lessen, defeat, limit, or in any Manner prejudice the Right or Title of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, to any Sum or Sums of Money which has been or may be awarded, or in any Manner fixed or determined, either under the Authority of this Act, or of any of the Acts herein recited or referred to, or otherwise howsoever, as the Sum or Sums of Money, Price, Recompence, or Compensation to be paid or payable by the Trustees acting in execution of this Act, for or in respect of any Lands, Grounds, or Heritages which now form or constitute, or which at any Time heretofore formed or constituted, Part of the Water-way, Alveus, or Channel of the said River Clyde, or the Sum or Sums of Money, Price, Recompence, or Compensation to be paid or payable by the Trustees acting in execution of this Act, for or in respect of any Lands, Grounds, or Heritages at any Time or Times heretofore reclaimed or resumed from the Water-way, Alveus, or Channel of the said River, by reason or means or in consequence of the Works, Matters, or Things at any Time or Times heretofore done by the Trustees acting in execution of and under the Authority of the said Acts herein recited or referred to, or either of them, or otherwise howsoever, but the Right, Title, and Interest of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in and to all such Sum and Sums of Money, shall remain, continue, and be in full Force and Virtue, any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof, or directing Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money or any Portion thereof to the adjacent Land Owners, in anywise notwithstanding; and nothing in this Act, or in any of the Acts herein recited or referred to, shall be deemed or construed by Implication to abridge, lessen, defeat, or in any way prejudice or take away any Right, Title, or Interest, Franchise, Royalty, or Jurisdiction by Law vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors; and it shall be lawful and competent for the Lord Advocate of Scotland for the Time being, or other the proper Officer or Officers, for and in the Name and in behalf of Her Majesty, to apply, by Petition or otherwise, to the Court of Session in either of the Divisions thereof, praying the said Court to fix and determine to whom such Sum or Sums of Money belong; and the said Court shall, after hearing Parties, and receiving such Evidence as they shall consider competent and necessary, find and declare to whom such Sum or Sums of Money in whole or in part legally appertain, and decern and adjudge accordingly: Provided nevertheless, that this Reservation shall not limit or lessen the Powers or Authorities given to the Trustees acting under this or any of the before-recited Acts, as regards the Performance or Execution of the Works necessary for the Improvement and Enlargement of the Harbour of Glasgow, or as regards the Execution of any Works authorized by this or any of the said recited Acts to be done or performed by the said Trustees with the View and for the Purpose of improving the Navigation of the said River Clyde.

CXXV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others. Public Act.
