ANNO SECUNDO & TERTIO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

Cap. cxiii.

An Act to amend and enlarge the Powers of an Act for establishing Portman Market within the County of Middlesex. [17th July 1832.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for establishing a Market in the Parish of Saint Marylebone in the County of Middlesex: And whereas Edward Berkeley Portman Esquire claimed to be entitled in Fee Simple to the Piece of Ground on which the said Market was by the said Act authorized to be opened and established, and it was by the said Act directed that the said Market should be called Portman Market: And whereas great Expences have been incurred in erecting and making divers Buildings and Works on the Piece of Ground on which the said Market was by the said Act to be established, and other very heavy Expences have been and are likely to be incurred in establishing and maintaining the said Market, and a considerable Portion of the Sums which have been expended has been applied in making Accommodations and Conveniences for the Frequenters of the said Market: And whereas the said Market hath been opened, and there is every Prospect of its being highly beneficial to the Inhabitants of the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone and Paddington, and Places adjoining: And whereas it is expedient that some of the Powers and Provisions of the said Act should be enlarged and amended, and that other Powers and Provisions should be granted and made: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said recited Act (except such of them or such Parts thereof respectively as by this Act are repealed, altered, or otherwise provided for,) shall extend and be construed to extend to this present Act, and shall operate and be in force in respect to the Objects and Purposes thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Directions, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Clauses, Matters, and Things were repeated in this Act.

Powers of recited Acts extended to this Act, except as hereby altered.

II. And be it further enacted, That inasmuch as Parts of the said Piece of Ground on which Portman Market was by the said Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth to be established may not be required for the said Market, it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to appropriate to any other Purpose, so long as he or they shall think fit, such Parts of the said Piece of Ground as shall not be so required, and the Buildings, if any, for the Time being thereon.

Power to appropriate to other Purposes Part of Ground on which Portman Market was to be established.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to permit any Person or Persons to kill, slaughter, singe, scald, or dress any Beast, Swine, Calf, Sheep, or other Cattle on any Part of the Piece of Ground on which Portman Market was by the said recited Act authorized to be established, which the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, shall think fit to appropriate to those Purposes; and no Person to whom any such Permission shall have been granted shall be subject or liable to any of the Penalties by the said recited Act imposed on Persons killing, slaughtering, singeing, scalding, or dressing any Beast, Swine, Calf, Sheep, or other Cattle within the said Market.

Permission to have Slaughter-houses.

IV. And whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, that for the sake of Distinction all the Stands in that Part of the said Market which for the Time being shall be appropriated for Waggons and Carts shall be called Waggon or Cart Stands, and all other Stands in the said Market shall be called Sale Stands; in lieu thereof be it therefore enacted, That no Part of the said Market shall be exclusively appropriated for Waggons and Carts; and that those Parts of the said Market which shall be appropriated for Stands may, at the Option of the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, be occupied either by Waggons or Carts, or used as Stands for the Sale of any of the Articles or Stands in the Market may be used indiscriminately for Waggons and Carts or for Sale Stands.

Things authorized to be sold in the said Market; and that any Stand in the said Market, when used as a Sale Stand, may be let by the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, at any Rent not exceeding the Rent per Day authorized to be taken for a Sale Stand by the said recited Act.

The Toll for a Waggon or Cart containing Hay may be 4*d.*, and containing Straw, Grass, or Vetches, may be 3*d.*, though the same may contain less than Thirty-six Trusses or Bundles.

V. And whereas by the said recited Act, for every Waggon or Cart which shall be brought to the said Market, and shall contain Hay, whether the same shall be sold in the said Market or not, a Toll not exceeding Four-pence is authorized to be taken for every Load of Thirty-six Trusses, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity than Thirty-six Trusses; and for every Waggon or Cart which shall be brought to the said Market, and shall contain Straw, Grass, or Vetches, whether the same shall be sold in the said Market or not, a Toll not exceeding Three-pence is authorized to be taken for every Load of Thirty-six Trusses or Bundles, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity than Thirty-six Trusses or Bundles; in lieu thereof be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to demand and take or cause to be demanded and taken the Sum of Four-pence for or in respect of every Waggon or Cart containing Hay, notwithstanding such Waggon or Cart shall contain a less Quantity than Thirty-six Trusses, and the Sum of Three-pence for or in respect of every Waggon or Cart containing Straw, Grass, or Vetches, notwithstanding such Waggon or Cart shall contain a less Quantity than Thirty-six Trusses or Bundles.

Power to sell any Articles not mentioned in former Act, except Cattle and Grain, and other Things prohibited by Notice.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Articles and Things not enumerated in the said recited Act may be sold in the said Market, except Oxen, Cows, and other Beasts, and Neat Cattle, Horses, Mares, Geldings, Mules, Sheep, Lambs, Calves, and Grain, and except such as shall be prohibited by the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, by Notice to be painted on a Board in legible Characters, and put up and exposed to public View in some conspicuous Part of the said Market.

Power to take Tolls on the various Articles specified in the First Part of the Schedule;

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to demand and take or cause to be demanded and taken, of and from any Person who shall first expose for Sale in the said Market any of the Articles and Things specified in the First Part of the Schedule to this Act, the Tolls not exceeding the Sums specified in the said First Part of the said Schedule.

and to take Tolls for Articles and Things resold in the wholesale Part of the Market.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall purchase in the said Market any of the Articles and Things specified in the First Part of the Schedule to this Act, and shall again expose the same for Sale on any Stand in the wholesale Part of the said Market, it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to demand demand and take, or cause to be demanded and taken, of and from such Person, the Tolls not exceeding the Sums specified in the said First Part of the said Schedule.

Power to let Hangings for dead Meat.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to let any Hangings for dead Meat in the said Market, at such Rent, not exceeding the Rent specified in the Second Part of the Schedule to this Act in regard to such Hangings, as the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, shall think fit; and such Rent shall be payable in advance.

Power to take Tolls for the standing of Horses, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to demand and take or cause to be demanded and taken, of and from any Person having the Care or Direction of any Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon or Cart to the said Market, any Sum, by way of Toll, for the standing of such Horse or other Beast in any Stable erected on the said Piece of Ground on which the said Market was by the said recited Act authorized to be established, not exceeding the Sum specified in the Third Part of the Schedule to this Act in respect to the standing of such Horse or other Beast, and the Toll for the standing of every such Horse or other Beast shall be payable immediately on such Horse or other Beast being taken out of the Stable.

To permit Persons to keep for fixed Periods Waggons and Carts standing at extra Times, on paying weekly Rents;

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to grant Permission to any Person to keep for a Week, or from Week to Week, or for a Succession of Weeks, a loaded or empty Waggon or Cart standing in the said Market, and to demand and receive a Rent for the same, not exceeding the Sum specified in the Fourth Part of the Schedule to this Act; and such Rent shall be payable in advance: Provided always, that the Grant of any such Permission shall not prejudice the Right of any Person or Persons to whom any particular Stand shall by virtue of this Act be let in the said Market to the Occupation of such Stand for his, her, or their own private Benefit, nor shall the Person or Persons to whom any such Permission shall be granted have, in consequence of such Permission, a preferable Right to the Occupation of any particular Stand during the Market Hours for selling by Wholesale either Hay or Fruit and Vegetables.

Power to take Tolls for the standing of loaded and empty Waggons and Carts at extra Times.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in the Absence of any such Permission as last herein-before mentioned it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to demand and take or cause to be demanded and taken, of and from any Person having the Care or Direction of any Waggon or Cart, whether loaded or empty, which shall be left to stand in the said Market, any Sum, by way of Toll, for the standing of such Waggon or Cart, not exceeding the Sum specified in the Fourth Part of the Schedule to this Act in respect respect to the standing of such Waggon or Cart; and the Toll for the standing of every such Waggon or Cart shall be payable immediately upon the same being taken away from the said Market: Provided nevertheless, that such Toll shall not be demanded for any loaded Waggon or Cart which shall be brought on a Market Day for the Sale of the Contents of such Waggon or Cart, provided such Waggon or Cart be brought on such Market Day at any Time before the Close of the Market, and be not left for more than Three Hours after such Close.

Power to let Waggon and Cart Stands to the Growers of Fruit and Vegetables, who, while holding such Stands, shall be exempt from the Tolls on Waggons and Carts under the former Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, from Time to Time to let any particular Stand in the said Market for the standing of any Waggon or Cart containing any Article or Thing except Hay, Straw, Grass, or Vetches, either by the Year or for any shorter Period, and at such Rent, not exceeding the Sum specified in the Fourth Part of the Schedule to this Act in regard to such Stand, as the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, shall think fit; and such Rent shall be payable in advance; and while any such Stand shall be so let the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be let shall, in respect of every Waggon or Cart which shall be placed on such Stand by or on the Behalf of such Person or Persons, and the Contents thereof, be exempt from the Tolls by the said recited Act authorized to be taken for Waggons and Carts, or the Contents thereof.

Right to take Toll under the former Act not interfered with beyond the Exemption therein allowed.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That with the Exception of the Exemption herein-before allowed, nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice the Right under the said recited Act to take any Toll or Tolls for any Waggon or Cart which shall be brought to the said Market, or the Contents thereof, and such Toll or Tolls may be taken in addition to any Rent or Toll authorized to be taken under this Act.

Power to let Sale Stands to Growers of Fruit and Vegetables, exempt from the Tolls on the Articles specified in First Part of the Schedule.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, from Time to Time to let any particular Stand in the said Market for the pitching and exposing for Sale of any of the Articles and Things specified in the First Part of the Schedule to this Act, either by the Year or for any shorter Period, at such Rent, not exceeding the Sum specified in the Fourth Part of the said Schedule in regard to such Stand as the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, shall think fit; and while any such Stands shall be so let the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be let shall, in respect of the Articles and Things which shall be pitched and exposed for Sale on such Stand by or on the Behalf of such Person or Persons, be exempt from all Tolls by this Act authorized to be taken for such Articles and Things.

Stands, when not required by the Lessees thereof, shall may be used by others.

shall not require the Occupation thereof for his, her, or their own private Benefit, the same may, while not so required, be occupied by any other Person or Persons, for the Benefit of the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market.

Power to remove empty Waggons or Carts, and to keep them on other Stands during Market Hours.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in order that an empty Waggon or Cart on a Stand in the said Market may be no Impediment to the Sale in the said Market of the Contents of any loaded Waggon or Cart during the Market Hours for the Sale by Wholesale of such Contents, it shall be lawful for the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, to cause such empty Waggon or Cart to be removed from such Stand to any other Stand in the said Market, and to cause the same to be kept on such other Stand during such Market Hours, and also for any Period not exceeding One Hour before the Commencement or Three Hours after the Close of the Market.

Penalty on Persons to whom Stands shall have been let taking Money for the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons to whom by virtue of this Act any particular Stand shall have been let in the said Market shall at any Time suffer any Person or Persons to occupy such Stand for Hire, or if any Person or Persons to whom any Permission shall have been given to keep a Waggon or Cart standing in the said Market shall take any Money or other Remuneration for occupying a Stand under such Permission, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay, by way of Penalty, any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

Rents and Tolls under this Act may be recovered by Distress and Sale.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Horses and other Cattle, Waggons, Carts, Articles, and Things, for the standing or for the Occupation of the Stands of which Tolls and Rents are authorized to be demanded and taken by this Act, and the dead Meat or any Hangings in the said Market, may, for the Recovery of the Tolls or Rents which shall from Time to Time become due and payable for the same respectively, in case the Payment thereof shall be refused, and also any other Property in the said Market of the Persons for the Time being refusing Payment, may, for the Recovery of such Rents and Tolls, be distrained for and sold by the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, or any other Person or Persons authorized by him or them so to do, in the same Manner, and upon the same Terms, and subject to the same Provisions, as the Articles or Things by the said recited Act made liable to be distrained for and sold can or may be distrained for and sold for the Recovery of the Rents and Tolls authorized to be demanded and taken by the said recited Act.

So much of recited Act as requires Lists of Rents and Tolls to be put up repealed.

XX. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as directs that a List of the Rents and Tolls for the Time being to be demanded and taken within the said Market should be painted on a Board in legible Characters, and put up and exposed to public View in some conspicuous Part of the said Market, and that the same should from Time to Time be renewed or altered when and so often as the same should be obliterated or defaced, or any Change should take place in the Rate of the Rents and Tolls, or any of them, and that no increased Rate of Rent or Toll should at any Time be demanded and taken, unless such increased Rate of Rent or Toll, and the Intention to demand and take the same, should have been painted on a Board in legible Characters, and put up and exposed to public View in some conspicuous Part of the said Market for Fourteen successive Days at least before demanding and taking the same, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

List of the Rents and Tolls to be put up in the Counting-house of the Clerk of the Market, and also in a conspicuous Part of the Market.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act a List of the Rents and Tolls by the said recited Act and by this Act authorized to be demanded and taken in the said Market shall be printed or written in legible Characters, and be exposed to public View in the Office or Counting-house of the Clerk of the said Market, and also in some conspicuous Part of the said Market; and the same shall from Time to Time be restored or altered when and so often as the same shall be obliterated or defaced, or any Alteration shall be made in the Rate of the Rents and Tolls or any of them; and it shall not be lawful to demand or receive any of the said Rents or Tolls except for and during the Time that the List herein-before mentioned shall remain so exhibited as aforesaid.

So much of recited Act as requires Copy of the Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws to be put up repealed.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as directs that a Copy of all Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws to be made by the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs and Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, should be painted on a Board in legible Characters, and be put up and exposed to public View in some conspicuous Part of the said Market, and renewed and replaced when and as often as the same should be added to, or amended or altered, or obliterated or defaced, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Copy of Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws to be put up.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws from Time to Time made for the regulating, ordering, and governing of the said Market shall be printed or written in legible Characters, and shall be exposed to public View in the Office or Counting-house of the Clerk of the said Market, and also in some conspicuous Part of the said Market, and the same shall from Time to Time be restored or altered when and so often as the same shall be obliterated or defaced, or any Alteration shall be made in the Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws for the regulating, ordering, or governing of the said Market.

Lessees of the Market to have the same Powers as the Lessor.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons to whom the Piece of Ground comprising Portman Market, with the Erections and Buildings thereon, shall at any Time or Times be demised or leased by the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, and the Executors, Administrators, and Assigns of such Person or Persons, shall, during the Continuance of the Lease granted to such Person or Persons, but subject to such Exceptions or Restrictions, if any, as may be expressly contained in any such Lease, have

and

and enjoy the respective Rents and Tolls authorized to be taken by this Act and by the said recited Act, and such of the Penalties and Forfeitures or Parts of Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted or imposed by this Act or the said recited Act, or by virtue of any Rule, Order, or Bye Law made in pursuance of this Act or the said recited Act, as the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, would have been entitled to if such Lease had not been made; and shall also, during the Continuance of such Lease, have and enjoy such Powers, Privileges, Benefits, and Advantages, and be subject to such Obligations, in respect of the said Market, as the said Edward Berkeley Portman, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Market, would have had and enjoyed, or been subject to, by virtue of this Act or the said recited Act, or otherwise, if such Lease had not been made.

Penalty on Persons selling Hay, Straw, Grass, or Vetches out of but within the Limits of the Market.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, having the Care or Direction of any Waggon or Cart containing Hay, Straw, Grass, or Vetches, shall expose for Sale or sell the Whole or any Part of the Contents of any such Waggon or Cart, out of the said Market, in any public Street or Place within the Limits of the said Market, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay, by way of Penalty, any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

So much of 36G.3.c.38. as imposes Penalties on Persons suffering Waggons and Carts to remain in Markets after Market Hours, repealed as to Portman Market.

XXVI. And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate the buying and selling of Hay and Straw, and for repealing so much of Two Acts, made in the Second Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary and in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Second, as relate to the buying and selling of Hay and Straw within the Limits therein mentioned, it is (amongst other things) enacted, that if any Person, having the Care or Direction of any Waggon, Wain, or Cart, used for the Purpose of bringing Hay or Straw, shall suffer the same to remain in any Market or Place for the Sale of Hay and Straw, within the Cities and Limits in the said Act mentioned, on the usual Market Days from Lady Day to Michaelmas after Five of the Clock in the Afternoon, and from Michaelmas to Lady Day after Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, in any Year, every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Waggon, Wain, or Cart so left as aforesaid a Sum of Money not exceeding Twenty Shillings nor less than Five Shillings: And whereas Portman Market is within the Limits mentioned in the said Act, but the Area thereof is inclosed from the adjoining Streets; be it therefore enacted, That the Provision of the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third herein-before recited, prohibiting Waggons, Wains, and Carts used for the Purpose of bringing Hay or Straw from remaining in any Market or Place for the Sale of Hay and Straw after the Times mentioned in the said Act, shall, so far as regards Portman Market, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Public Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.
