POST OFFICE

The Post Office (Guernsey) Order 1969

Made - - - 28*th August* 1969

Coming into Operation 28*th August* 1969

At the Court at Balmoral, the 28th day of August 1969

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas an agreement has been concluded between the Postmaster General and the States of Guernsey providing for the surrender by the Post Office, as regards the Bailiwick of Guernsey, of the privilege conferred on the Post Office by section 3 of the Post Office Act 1953(a), and the administration in that Bailiwick of postal services by, or under the authority of, the States instead of by the Post Office:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 87(1) of the Post Office Act 1969(b), as read with section 2(6) of that Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Post Office (Guernsey) Order 1969 and shall come into operation forthwith.

2. Section 73 of the Post Office (Guernsey) Law 1969 shall be amended so as to bring into force Part I thereof (which relates to the constitution and powers of the States Post Office Board) on the registration of the said Law instead of on a day to be appointed by the States by Ordinance under that section.

N. E. Leigh.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Post Office (Guernsey) Law 1969 provides for the administration of postal services in Guernsey following the transfer of responsibility for those services from the Post Office to the States of Guernsey. This Order amends the commencement provision of that Law to bring Part I thereof into force on the registration of the Law in the Royal Court.
