EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order revokes the Pre-entry of Goods Order 1939, and the Pre-entry of Goods Order 1939 Amendment Order 1952, which required the exporter or shipper of any goods intended for exportation, carriage, coastwise or shipment as stores to deliver a form of entry giving particulars of the goods to the Customs before shipment. Pre-entry before shipment is required by section 47 of the Customs and Excise Act 1952, only in the cases set out in that section.
