EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order amends Article 14 of the Prevention of Terrorism (Supplemental Temporary Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 1976, which imposes requirements on captains of ships and aircraft arriving in Northern Ireland from Great Britain, the Republic of Ireland or any of the Channel Islands or Isle of Man or going from Northern Ireland to any of those places in connection with the examination of persons embarking or disembarking.

Under Article 14, as amended by this Order, it will no longer be necessary for an examining officer to require the captain to comply with the requirements in the Article for those requirements to apply. Instead, those requirements will automatically apply unless (in the case of the obligation in Article 14 (4) to supply particulars of the passengers and crew) they are wholly or partly dispensed with by the examining officer.
