(b) 4 hours in the case of a pupil enrolled in a class composed mainly of pupils who, at the commencement of the school year, had attained the age of 8 years but had not attained the age of 11 years and 6 months ;

(c) 4½ hours in the case of a pupil enrolled in a class composed mainly of pupils who, at the commencement of the school year, had attained the age of 11 years and 6 months.

(2) The attendance of a pupil under such instruction as aforesaid for not less than three hours may, on not more than one day (other than a Saturday) in any week, be regarded as an attendance if provision has been made on the approved time-table for organised games on that day.

(3) In the case of a pupil to whom the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (1) of this Regulation applies, an attendance shall be made in two sessions separated by a period of not less than half an hour.

Provided that the Ministry may approve the modification of this Regulation in the case of a pupil for whom educational instruction of a special nature is being provided.

16B. The minimum time constituting an attendance may include any time occupied by a pupil :—

(a) in undergoing inspection or treatment under a scheme of School Medical Service ;

(b) in attending an examination ; or

(c) in any other manner approved by the Ministry."
