CHAPTER 26.

An Act to explain and amend certain Provisions of the Prison Act, 1877, with respect to the Superannuation of Prison Officers. [27th July 1893.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Explanation of "existing officer," and "prison service" in 40 & 41 Vict. c. 21.

1. For the purposes of superannuation allowance the expression "existing officer of a prison" in the Prison Act, 1877, shall include and be deemed to have included any person who immediately before the commencement of that Act was an officer attached to a prison, and was appointed to hold, in immediate succession to his office, any of the offices mentioned in sections six and seven of that Act, and a superannuation allowance may be granted to any existing officer of a prison on the like conditions as if he had remained an officer of a local prison; and the expression "prison service" shall include and be deemed to have included, as respects the period after the commencement of that Act, service in any one or more of the offices mentioned in sections six and seven of that Act: Provided that nothing in this Act shall exempt any such person from the operation of any Order in Council as to compulsory retirement of permanent civil servants.

2. This Act may be cited as the Prison (Officers' Superannuation) Act, 1893, and shall be read with the Prison Acts, 1865 to 1886. Short title.

CHAPTER 27.

An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other Rates and Taxes. [27th July 1893.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 75. "An Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into execution "several Acts granting an aid to His Majesty by a land tax to be "raised in Great Britain, and continuing to His Majesty certain "duties on personal estates, offices, and pensions in England":

And whereas several Acts have since been passed appointing additional Commissioners for carrying those Acts into execution:

And whereas it is expedient to appoint additional persons to put into execution the several Acts for granting an aid to Her Majesty by a land tax in Great Britain, and several other Acts for continuing or granting to Her Majesty rates and taxes:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The several and respective persons named in a schedule signed by and deposited with the Clerk of the House of Commons shall and may be and are hereby empowered and authorised (being duly qualified) to put in execution the said Acts, and all the clauses, powers, matters, and things whatsoever therein contained, as Commissioners in and for the several and respective counties, shires, and places in England and Wales in the said schedule severally and respectively mentioned and expressed, as fully and effectually as if they had been named with the other Commissioners in the said recited Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth; and on the passing of this Act the said schedule shall be printed in the London Gazette, which shall be sufficient evidence of such schedule for all purposes whatsoever. Persons named in schedule signed by Clerk of House of Commons to be additional Commissioners.

2. This Act may be cited as the Land Tax Commissioners Names Act, 1893. Short title.
