customs at the port of destination in the said Isle, and if any ale or beer shall be brought into the said Isle without such certificate having been granted as aforesaid, the same shall be charged with the duty of eleven shillings per barrel of thirty-six gallons.

Drawback on ale or beer removed to Great Britain or Ireland.

4. On the removal to Great Britain or Ireland of ale or beer manufactured in the said Isle, the degree of specific gravity thereof shall be ascertained by the proper officer of inland revenue at the port of arrival, according to the said table, and a certificate thereof shall be by him transmitted to the collector of customs at the port of removal in the said Isle, and thereupon a drawback shall be allowed, equal in amount to the duty which shall have been paid thereon under the authority of any Act passed or to be passed by the Legislative Authority of the said Isle.

Drawback on exportation of ale or beer to foreign parts.

5. On the exportation from the Isle of Man to foreign parts of ale or beer brewed in the said Isle, the same rate of drawback shall be allowed thereon as is allowed on the removal of ale or beer from the said Isle to Great Britain or Ireland, and shall be ascertained in such manner and according to such regulations as the Commissioners of Customs may from time to time direct or approve, and shall be paid accordingly.

Enactments in Schedule repealed.

6. The Acts and parts of Acts set forth in Schedule A. annexed to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent to which such Acts or parts of Acts, are by such schedule expressed to be repealed, except as to any orders, matters, or things, made or done before the commencement of this Act in pursuance of any of the said Acts or parts of Acts.

CHAPTER 47.

An Act to extend the Powers of Prison Authorities in relation to Industrial and Reformatory Schools, and for other purposes relating thereto.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Prisons Act, 1865, prison authorities are empowered to borrow money for the purposes of altering, enlarging, new building, or building prisons:

And whereas prison authorities have power by the Industrial Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872, to contribute towards or themselves to undertake the alteration, enlargement, rebuilding, establishment, building, or purchase of the site for any industrial school, and by the Reformatory Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872, to contribute towards or themselves to undertake the alteration, enlargement, rebuilding, establishment, building, or purchase of the site for any reformatory school, but no power is given prison authorities under the said Acts relating to industrial and reformatory schools to borrow money for the purposes of such schools:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title. Construction of Act.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Prisons Authorities Act, 1874," and shall be construed, as far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, as follows; that is to say, so far as it relates to industrial schools with the Industrial Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872, and so far as it relates to reformatory schools with the Reformatory Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872.

Power to borrow money for purposes of industrial and reformatory schools.

2. Subject to the provisions of "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," any prison authority may, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, borrow money for the purpose of defraying or contributing towards the expense of altering, enlarging, rebuilding, establishing, building, or purchasing the site of any industrial or reformatory school under the said Industrial and Reformatory Schools Acts, or any of them.

Charge of borrowed moneys.

3. Any moneys borrowed by a prison authority under this Act may be charged by that authority on any county rate, or rate in the nature of a county rate, borough rate, or other rate applicable to the maintenance of a prison and leviable by that authority, or on any other property belonging to that authority and applicable to the same purpose as the said rates, and shall be repaid, together with the interest due thereon, out of such rates or other property.

Certain clauses of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. as to borrowing money incorporated.

4. The clauses of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with the exception of the eighty-fourth clause with respect to mortgages to be created by the Commissioners, shall form part of and be incorporated with this Act, and any mortgagee or assignee may enforce payment of his principal and interest by appointment of a receiver.

In the construction of the said clauses "the Commissioners" shall mean "the prison authority."

Where a prison authority borrows any money under this Act they shall charge the rates or property out of which the moneys borrowed are payable, not only with the interest of the moneys so borrowed but also with the payment of such further sum as will ensure the repayment of the whole sum borrowed within thirty years.

Special provision as to the county and city of Worcester.

5. For the purposes of the said Industrial and Reformatory Schools Acts and this Act, the justices of the county of Worcester in quarter sessions assembled shall be deemed to be the prison authority for the county of Worcester at large, and the council of the city of Worcester shall be deemed to be the prison authority for the city of Worcester and county of the same city, anything in the Worcester Prison Act, 1867, or any other Act, notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 48.

An Act to provide for the payment of Wages without Stoppages in the Hosiery Manufacture. [30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS a custom has prevailed among the employers of artificers in the hosiery manufacture of letting out frames and machinery to the artificers employed by them, and it is desirable to prohibit such letting of frames and machinery, and the stoppage of wages for frame rents and charges in the hosiery manufacture:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Wages to be paid without

1. In all contracts for wages the full and entire amount of all wages the earnings of labour in the hosiery manufacture shall be actually and positively made payable in net, in
