EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules increase the salaries of whole time probation officers.

1956 No. 1520 (L. 18)

The Probation (No. 2) Rules, 1956

Made - - - - 24*th September*, 1956
Coming into Operation 1*st October*, 1956

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the Fifth Schedule to the Criminal Justice Act, 1948(a), I hereby make the following Rules:—

1. For Rule 59 of the Probation Rules, 1949(b), as set out in Rule 3 of the Probation Rules, 1950(c), and amended by the Probation Rules, 1954(d), and the Probation (No. 3) Rules, 1954(e), there shall be substituted the following Rule:—

"59.—(1) The salary which is at any time payable under Rule 58 or paragraph (1) of Rule 61 of these Rules to a whole time probation officer whose services are permanently assigned wholly or mainly to courts in the metropolitan police district, the City of London or the Dartford petty sessional division of the county of Kent shall while his services are so assigned be increased by £30 a year.

(2) (a) When a whole time probation officer whose services are permanently assigned wholly or mainly to courts in the metropolitan police district or the said Dartford petty sessional division, being courts in a combined probation area part of which area lies outside the said district and division, is otherwise than at his request transferred so that his services are permanently assigned wholly or mainly to courts in the said probation area which are outside the said district and division, he shall for the period specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph continue to be paid the salary which, under paragraph (1) of this Rule, he was receiving immediately before he was so transferred:

Provided that in the case of an officer to whom paragraph (2) of Rule 58 or paragraph (1) of Rule 61 of these Rules applies, the salary so paid shall not exceed the maximum rate of salary for the time being payable to him under the said paragraph (2) or (1), as the case may be.

(b) During the period specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph an officer to whom sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph applies shall not be entitled to increases of salary which he would otherwise be given under Rule 58 or paragraph (1) of Rule 61 of these Rules, and where immediately upon the end of the said period an increment is given to an officer it shall not be greater than will raise his salary to that which, but for this paragraph, he would from that date receive.

(c) The period referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph is the period during which the salary which an officer is at any time receiving under this paragraph exceeds or is equal to the salary which he would, but for this paragraph, be receiving at that time under Rule 58 or paragraph (1) of Rule 61.".

2. For paragraph (1) of Rule 61 of the Probation Rules, 1949, as set out in Rule 4 of the Probation Rules, 1952(a), and amended by the Probation (No. 3) Rules, 1954, there shall be substituted the following paragraph: —

"(1) (a) A senior probation officer shall, while appointed to a probation area where there is a principal probation officer or where the population of the area is fewer than 175,000 persons, be paid a salary—

(i) in the case of a man, in accordance with the scale set out in Part I of the Third Schedule to these Rules; or

(ii) in the case of a woman, in accordance with the scale set out in Part II of the Third Schedule to these Rules as respects each period specified therein.

(b) A senior probation officer shall, while appointed to a probation area where there is no principal probation officer and the population of the area is not fewer than 175,000 persons, be paid a salary—

(i) in the case of a man, in accordance with the scale set out in Part I of the Fourth Schedule to these Rules; or

(ii) in the case of a woman, in accordance with the scale set out in Part II of the Fourth Schedule to these Rules as respects each period specified therein.

(a) S.I. 1952/389 (1952 III, p. 2680).

(c) The service reckonable for the purpose of the scales set out in the Third and Fourth Schedules to these Rules shall be the current period of continuous service, being service within the meaning of the said Third or Fourth Schedule, as the case may be, including—

(i) any period of leave with pay from such service;

(ii) any period of leave without pay from such service, other than sick leave, in so far as the Secretary of State, in the case of an officer appointed to the metropolitan police court area, or the Secretary of State at the request of the probation committee, in any other case, approves its inclusion; and

(iii) any period of other employment to which the officer is seconded from such service with the consent of the Secretary of State:

Provided that, for the purpose only of enabling service prior to an interruption to be reckoned, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding an interruption thereof if—

(i) that interruption does not exceed three months in duration; or

(ii) the Secretary of State, in the case of an officer appointed to the metropolitan police court area, or the Secretary of State at the request of the probation committee in any other case, approves the reckoning of a period of service prior to that interruption.

(d) Where after the last day of September, 1956, a probation officer is appointed to be a senior probation officer to whom sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph applies, and immediately before such appointment he was entitled to the maximum rate of salary then payable to an officer of his sex under paragraph (2) of Rule 58 of these Rules, he shall be entitled, for the purpose of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, to reckon his previous service as one complete year's service as a senior probation officer.

(e) A senior probation officer who after the first day of October, 1956, becomes an officer to whom sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph applies upon, or within one month of, ceasing to be an officer to whom sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph applies, shall be entitled, as an officer to whom the said sub-paragraph (b) applies, to a salary at the rate in the appropriate scale mentioned in the said sub-paragraph (b) next greater than the rate of salary to which he was entitled immediately before such cesser and, until he attains the maximum rate in that scale, to receive an increment of salary—

(i) if he had already attained the maximum rate for the time being payable to an officer of his sex under the said sub-paragraph (a), on each anniversary of his becoming an officer to whom the said sub-paragraph (b) applies, or

(ii) in any other case, on the day upon which he would have received his next increment of salary but for such cesser as aforesaid and on each anniversary of that day.

(f) Where a senior probation officer was entitled immediately before the first day of October, 1956, to a salary, including his allowance as a senior probation officer, at a rate exceeding that to which he is entitled under the foregoing provisions of this Rule, he shall be entitled to a salary as a senior probation officer at the rate in the appropriate scale next greater than the first-mentioned rate and, until he attains the maximum rate in that scale, to receive an increment of salary on each first day of October.".

3. After the First and Second Schedules to the Probation Rules, 1949, as set out in the Schedules to the Probation Rules, 1956(a), there shall be added the Schedules set out in the Schedule to these Rules.

4. These Rules may be cited as the Probation (No. 2) Rules, 1956, and shall come into operation on the first day of October, 1956.

G. Lloyd-George,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.

24th September, 1956.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The principal amendment effected by Rule 1 of these Rules enables whole time probation officers of and below the rank of senior probation officer who are mainly assigned to the Dartford petty sessional division to receive an allowance of £30 a year, as do such officers in the metropolitan police district. Rules 2 and 3 make provision for scales of salaries for senior probation officers as such, each scale rising to a maximum by annual increments.
