1951 No. 536 (L. 2)

Made - - - -	28*th March*, 1951
Coming into Operation	31*st March*, 1951

In pursuance of the power conferred on me by the Fifth Schedule to the Criminal Justice Act, 1948(a), I hereby make the following Rules :—

Citation and commencement

1. These Rules may be cited as the Probation Rules, 1951, and shall come into force on the thirty-first day of March, 1951.

Administrative and other expenses

2. The following Rule shall be substituted for Rule 78 of the Probation Rules, 1949(b) :—

" 78.—(1) The probation committee shall defray—

(a) the cost of office equipment (including stationery and postal and telephone charges and similar expenditure) in connexion with the work of the committee or of a case committee in its area ;

(b) such travelling and subsistence expenses of a clerk of the peace or of a justices' clerk or a member of the staff of a justices' clerk or a member of the staff of a local authority as have been incurred in connexion with the work of the committee or of a case committee in its area, being in the case of a clerk of the peace or member of the staff of a local authority expenses which if he had been engaged upon work of the local authority would have been payable to him by the local authority, and

(c) audit fees, stamp duties, and similar expenditure in connexion with the accounts or work of the committee or a case committee in its area.

(2) Where a person who is a member of the staff of a justices' clerk, or a person who is a member, other than a chief officer or deputy of a chief officer, of the staff of a local authority, acts as or assists the secretary of the probation committee or of a case committee in its area, or assists the treasurer of the probation committee or is otherwise engaged on work for the probation committee the probation committee shall defray—

(a) the amount of that person's emoluments if he is engaged whole time upon work of the probation committee or case committee, and

(b) such proportion of his emoluments as is attributable to that work if he is engaged part time thereon.

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 58. (b) S.I. 1949 (No. 1328) I, p. 3508.

(3) The probation committee shall defray as the case may be the whole or such proportion as is attributable to work of the probation committee or of a case committee in its area of—

(a) contributions under the National Insurance Acts, 1946 to 1949 ;

(b) all charges under the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937(a), or a local Act to the like effect, including any supplementary allowances or gratuities under the last-mentioned Acts ; and payable by an employing authority in respect of or to a person whose salary or a proportion of whose salary they defray under paragraph (2) of this Rule.

(4) When premises of a local authority or premises of a justices' clerk are used for administrative purposes of a probation committee or of a case committee in its area, the probation committee shall defray a fair proportion of the total outgoings of the local authority, on the provision, upkeep and maintenance (including lighting, heating, and cleaning) of administrative buildings.

(5) The probation committee may with the approval of the Secretary of State incur such other expenditure as is necessary for the proper performance of the work of its probation officers.".
