EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Second Schedule to the Probation (Allowances) Rules, 1953 (which relate to members of probation committees or case committees constituted under the Criminal Justice Act, 1948, or of committees constituted for the metropolitan stipendiary court area under paragraph 7 of the Fifth Schedule to the 1948 Act), prescribes the rates of lodging allowance payable under section 36 of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1949, to such a member for each night in respect of which expenditure on accommodation for the night is necessarily incurred by him for the purpose of enabling him to perform any of his duties as a member. The present Rules increase the rates so prescribed, other than those prescribed in respect of expenditure incurred on sleeping accommodation in a railway train. The rate, where the duties are performed in London, is increased from 30s. to 37s. 6d., and in other cases from 23s. to 30s.
