SCHEDULE.

Old Church of Saint Andrew Neasden Order.

OLD CHURCH OF SAINT ANDREW NEASDEN ORDER.

WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt and to include in such Order supplemental incidental and consequential provisions including provisions for relieving from liability ministers who have solemnized the marriages to which the Order relates:

And whereas by an Instrument dated the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two under the common seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners the new church of Saint Catherine in the new parish of Neasden cum Kingsbury in the county of Middlesex and the diocese of London was substituted for the old church of Saint Andrew situate within and until that date the parish church of the said new parish:

And whereas the said old church of Saint Andrew was licensed for the solemnization of marriages on the thirteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two:

And whereas divers marriages have been solemnized therein between the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and the thirteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two:

And whereas it is expedient in the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubt touching the validity of such marriages and to make certain supplemental incidental and consequential provisions:

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Sir John Gilmour Baronet one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect:—

(1) All banns of matrimony and marriages published and solemnized between the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and the thirteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two in the old church of Saint Andrew in the new parish of Neasden cum Kingsbury in the county of Middlesex and the diocese of London shall be deemed to have been as valid as if they had been published and solemnized in a church in which such banns might be published and marriages solemnized lawfully:

A.D. 1933.

Old Church of Saint Andrew Neasden Order.

(2) A minister who has solemnized any marriage referred to in the first paragraph of this Order shall not be liable to any proceedings for penalties whatsoever or to any ecclesiastical censure by reason of having solemnized such marriage:

(3) The registers of the marriages so solemnized or copies of the registers shall be received in all courts as evidence of those marriages in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.

OLD CHURCH OF ST. PAUL CHINGFORD ORDER.

Old Church of Saint Paul Chingford Order.

WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt and to include in such Order supplemental incidental and consequential provisions including provisions for relieving from liability ministers who have solemnized the marriages to which the Order relates:

And whereas by an Instrument dated the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-six under the common seal of the late Church Building Commissioners the new church of Saint Paul in the parish of Chingford in the county of Essex and then in the diocese of London but now in the diocese of Chelmsford was substituted for the old church of Saint Paul situate within and until that date the parish church of the said parish:

And whereas a marriage was solemnized in the said old church of Saint Paul on the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and it is expedient in the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubt touching the validity of such marriage and to make certain supplemental incidental and consequential provisions:

A.D. 1933.

Old Church of Saint Paul Chingford Order.

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Sir John Gilmour Baronet one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect :—

(1) The marriage solemnized on the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two in the old church of Saint Paul in the parish of Chingford in the county of Essex and the diocese of Chelmsford shall be deemed to have been as valid as if it had been solemnized in a church in which such marriage might be solemnized lawfully :

(2) The minister who solemnized the marriage referred to in the first paragraph of this Order shall not be liable to any proceedings for penalties whatsoever or to any ecclesiastical censure by reason of having solemnized such marriage:

(3) The register of the marriage so solemnized in which the church is described as the Old Church of All Saints or copies of the register shall be received in all courts as evidence of this marriage in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.

Roman Catholic Chapel of the Immaculate Conception and Saint Joseph Waltham Cross Order.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPEL OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION AND SAINT JOSEPH WALTHAM CROSS ORDER.

WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt and to include in such Order supplemental incidental and consequential provisions including provision for relieving from liability ministers who have solemnized the marriages to which the Order relates :

And whereas a new building known as the Roman Catholic Chapel of the Immaculate Conception and Saint Joseph in Eleanor Road Waltham Cross in the Registration District of Edmonton in the county of Hertford was erected alongside an old building of the same name and was taken into use for public religious worship on the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one :

A.D. 1933.

Roman Catholic Chapel of the Immaculate Conception and Saint Joseph Waltham Cross Order.

And whereas application for the substitution of the new building for the old one and its registration in accordance with the provisions of Section 19 of the Marriages Act 1836 (6 & 7 Will. 4 c. 85) was not received by the Registrar General until the thirtieth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and the new building was duly substituted and registered on the fifteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two :

And whereas certain marriages were solemnized in the new building aforesaid before the date on which the building was registered and substituted :

And whereas it is expedient in the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubt touching the validity of such marriages and to make certain supplemental incidental and consequential provisions :

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Sir John Gilmour Baronet one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect :—

(1) The marriages solemnized between the sixth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one and the sixteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two in the new building known as the Roman Catholic Chapel of the Immaculate Conception and Saint Joseph in Eleanor Road Waltham Cross in the Registration District of Edmonton in the county of Hertford shall be and shall be deemed to have been as valid as if the said marriages had been solemnized in a building which had been registered for the solemnization of marriages :

(2) A minister who has solemnized any marriage referred to in the first paragraph of this Order shall not be liable to any proceedings for penalties whatsoever by reason of having solemnized the marriages :

(3) The registers of the marriages so solemnized or copies of the registers shall be received in all courts as evidence of those marriages in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.

Saint Christopher Norris Green Liverpool Order.

SAINT CHRISTOPHER NORRIS GREEN LIVERPOOL ORDER.

WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt and to include in such Order supplemental incidental and consequential provisions including provisions for relieving from liability ministers who have solemnized the marriages to which the Order relates :

And whereas the new church of Saint Christopher in the ecclesiastical district of Saint Christopher Norris Green Liverpool in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Liverpool was duly consecrated for the performance of divine service on the seventeenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two but it appears that the instrument signifying the approval of the church by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in pursuance of the provisions of the Act 6 & 7 Vict. c. 37 was not sealed until the sixth day of October one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two :

And whereas divers marriages were nevertheless solemnized in the said church between the sixteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and the seventh day of October one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two :

And whereas it is expedient in the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubt touching the validity of marriages solemnized at the said church of Saint Christopher Norris Green Liverpool and to make certain supplemental incidental and consequential provisions :

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Sir John Gilmour Baronet one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Marriages Validity (Provisional Orders) Acts 1905 and 1924 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect :—

(I) All banns of matrimony and marriages published and solemnized between the sixteenth day of September one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two and the seventh day of October one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two in the church of Saint Christopher in the ecclesiastical district of Saint Christopher Norris Green Liverpool in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Liverpool shall be deemed to have been as valid as if they had been published and solemnized in a church in which such banns might be published and marriages solemnized lawfully :

(2) A minister who has solemnized any marriage referred to in the first paragraph of this Order shall not be liable to any proceedings for penalties whatsoever or to any ecclesiastical censure by reason of having solemnized such marriage :

(3) The registers of the marriages so solemnized or copies of the registers shall be received in all courts as evidence of those marriages in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.
