CHAPTER 47.

An Act to amend the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, with respect to the Removal of Refuse.

[12th September 1893.]

WHEREAS under the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, the vestries and district boards of the metropolis were empowered to deal with the removal of street and other refuse, and provisions were contained in that Act as to the borrowing of money to defray the expenses incurred therein: 18 & 19 Vict. c. 120.

And whereas by the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, further powers were conferred with respect to the removal of street and house refuse, but the effect of the said Act has been to repeal the power of vestries and district boards of borrowing money for some of those purposes, and it is expedient that the said Act should be amended: 54 & 55 Vict. c. 76.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, Amendment Act, 1893. Short title.

2. This Act shall be read with and form part of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, which is in this Act referred to as the "principal Act." Act to be read with principal Act.

3. Notwithstanding anything in the principal Act, expenses incurred or to be incurred by a vestry or district board as sanitary authority for and in connexion with the provision of land, wharves, destructors, plant, and equipment for the purposes of collection, removal, and disposal of house and street refuse, shall be and be deemed to have been expenses for the purposes of which a vestry or district board may borrow money as expenses incurred by them in the execution of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855. And sections one hundred and eighty-three to one hundred and ninety-one (both included) of that Act shall apply and have effect accordingly. As to expenses in connexion with provision of wharves, destructors, &c.
