4.2 The territorial application of this instrument is the whole of the United Kingdom.

5. European Convention on Human Rights

5.1 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

6. Legislative Context

6.1 The Public Lending Right Act 1979 ("the 1979 Act") gave the Secretary of State power to prepare and bring into force the Public Lending Right Scheme, which was subsequently established by the Public Lending Right Scheme 1982 (Commencement) Order 1982 (S.I. 1982/719). The Scheme is set out in the Appendix to that Order. In accordance with the Scheme, a right is conferred on authors to receive payments from a central fund based on the number of times their books are lent out by public libraries (known as the Public Lending Right)

6.2 Section 3(7) of the 1979 Act provides the Secretary of State with a power to vary the Scheme, including the rate per loan which is set out in paragraph 1(a) of article 46. Any such variation must be brought into force by Order. The most recent variations of the Scheme were brought into force by the Public Lending Right Scheme 1982 (Commencement of Variation) (No.2) Order 2020 (S.I. 2020/1370) and the Public Lending Right Scheme 1982 (Commencement of Variations) (Northern Ireland) Order 2021(SI 2021/684).

6.3 This Order is required to bring into force a further variation to the Scheme made by the Secretary of State to increase the rate per loan.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

7.1 The Scheme was brought into force on 14 June 1982 to provide annual payments from a central fund to authors whose books are loaned by public libraries in the UK. The rate per loan, which is the subject of this Order, is the sum attributable to each qualifying loan for the purposes of calculating the total payment owed to each author.

7.2 Since 2013 the British Library Board ("the Board") has been responsible for administering the Scheme. The Board recommends the rate per loan to the Secretary of State on an annual basis, as the rate is dependent on the size of the central fund available that year and the number of qualifying book loans in the relevant sampling period, which runs from 1st July of one year to 30th June of the next. The recommended rate per loan is the subject of a consultation with interested parties, as required by section 1(2) of the 1979 Act, before the Secretary of State decides whether to vary the Scheme to amend the rate per loan.

7.3 This Order brings into force a variation made by the Secretary of State to increase the rate per loan from 9.55p to 11.26p. The reason for the increase recommended by the Board is that there has been a reduction in the number of estimated loans of registered books across the UK compared with the number from the previous year. If the rate per loan is not increased, it would result in an underspend against the available budget for the year.

7.4 Payments under the Scheme are made to authors annually in arrears, no later than the end of the following financial year. Accordingly, payments made in relation to the increased rate will correspond to loans made between 1st July 2020 and 30th June 2021.

8. European Union Withdrawal and Future Relationship

8.1 This instrument does not relate to withdrawal from the European Union / trigger the statement requirements under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act.

9. Consolidation

9.1 No consolidation is required.

10. Consultation outcome

10.1 The proposed increase in the rate per loan was the subject of a four week consultation which ran from 28 October 2021 to 24 November 2021. A letter was sent to 14 representative organisations of authors, public libraries and other key stakeholders relating to the public library sector in the UK, and the Devolved Administrations. A copy of the consultation letter was made available on the GOV.UK website. All 12 responses received were supportive of the recommended increase in the rate per loan. A summary of consultation responses and the Government response is available at the following link: https://www.gov.uk/government/consultations/public-lending-right-rate-per-loan-2020-to-2021-consultation.

10.2 In relation to the Department's engagement with the Devolved Administrations about the proposed variation, in accordance with long established practice in this area, the Department consulted in particular with Northern Ireland, as the subject matter of the Public Lending Right is a transferred matter in respect of Northern Ireland. Northern Ireland's Department for Communities responded to confirm that it is content with the variation.

10.3 Having considered the consultation responses, the Minister decided to vary the Scheme to increase the rate per loan from 9.55p to 11.26p.

11. Guidance

11.1 The Department will notify the Board when the Scheme has been amended. The Board will use its regular communications to authors and other stakeholders to ensure that they are made aware of the amendment.

12. Impact

12.1 There is no, or no significant, impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.

12.2 The impact on the public sector is to provide the Board with an altered rate per loan for the purpose of administering the Scheme. There is no financial impact on the British Library.

12.3 A full Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument because the instrument does not amount to a policy change but operates to simply ensure that authors continue to be paid at the appropriate rate based on the size of the central fund and the number of estimated loans of registered books across the UK. However, a de minimis assessment was carried out and concluded that there would be no significant impact on businesses or the public sector. The assessment of the lack of impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies is based on authors being the main stakeholder to be affected. For the purpose of this statutory instrument we have considered all authors to be businesses.

13. Regulating small business

13.1 The legislation applies to activities that are undertaken by small businesses. For the purpose of this statutory instrument we have considered all authors to be small or micro businesses.

13.2 The effect of this instrument is to ensure that authors continue to be paid at the appropriate rate based on the size of the central fund and the number of estimated loans of registered books across the UK so no specific action is necessary to minimise the impact on small businesses.

14. Monitoring & review

14.1 The approach to monitoring of this legislation is that the rate per loan will be reviewed by the Board again following the end of the 2021/2022 PLR Scheme year period and a recommendation will be made to the Secretary of State as to whether the rate per loan should be the subject of further variation

14.2 The instrument does not include a statutory review clause.
