The Minister of Transport in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by Sections 97 and 125 of the Transport Act, 1947(a), and of all other powers him enabling in that behalf hereby makes the following Order :—

1. The First day of August, 1951, shall be the appointed day for the purposes of sub-section (3) of Section 97 of the Transport Act, 1947.

2. This Order shall come into operation on the First day of August, 1951, and may be cited as " The Railway Police Conferences (Appointed Day) Order, 1951 ".

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Transport this twenty-sixth day of July, 1951.

(L.S.)

Alfred Barnes,
The Minister of Transport.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Section 97 of the Transport Act, 1947, provides for the establishment of a conference consisting of an equal number of representatives of the British Transport Commission and of the members of the police forces of the Commission, to which all questions relating to rates of pay, hours of duty and conditions of service of members of the said police forces shall be referred, and sub-section (3) of the section provides that on the appointed day Section 67 of the Railways Act, 1921 (which provides for separate railway police conferences) shall cease to have effect. This Order fixes the 1st August, 1951, as the appointed day for this purpose.
