1952 No. 1089

The Registration (Births, Still-Births, Marriages and Deaths) (Fees) Regulations, 1952

Made - - - - 30*th May*, 1952

The Registrar General, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 2 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1926(c), and paragraph 5 of the Schedule to the Legitimacy Act, 1926(e), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations, with the concurrence of the Minister of Health so far as they are made under the said section 2:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Registration (Births, Still-births, Marriages and Deaths) (Fees) Regulations, 1952, and shall be included

(a) 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. 86. (b) 37 & 38 Vict. c. 88.
(c) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 48. (d) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 76.
(e) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 60.

among the regulations which may be cited as the Registration (Births, Still-births, Marriages and Deaths) Regulations, 1927 to 1952.

(2) These regulations shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1952.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The fees fixed by regulation 53 of the Registration (Births, Still-births, Deaths and Marriages) Consolidated Regulations, 1927(b) (being fees payable on the re-registration of the birth of a legitimated person) shall be increased, in the case of the fee payable to the registrar re-registering the birth—

(a) when the informant or other person attends to sign the register, from five shillings to seven shillings and sixpence;

(b) when the informant or other person makes a declaration in substitution for such attendance, from five shillings to six shillings and eightpence;

and in the case of the fee payable to the registrar attesting such a declaration, from two shillings and sixpence to three shillings and fourpence; and the said regulation 53 shall have effect accordingly.

4. The fees fixed by paragraph (3) of regulation 85 and by paragraph (4) of regulation 86 of the said regulations (being fees payable on giving a certificate that a death is not required by law to be registered in England and on giving a duplicate certificate for the purposes of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1926), shall be increased by one-half, and accordingly for the words "five shillings" in each of the said paragraphs there shall be substituted the words "seven shillings and sixpence".

Given under my hand this thirtieth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

George North,
Registrar General.

I concur

Iain Macleod,
Minister of Health.

30th May, 1952.
