Citation and commencement

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Education (Scotland) Act, 1946 (Commencement No. 3) Order, 1957.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of March, 1957.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's
Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.
13th February, 1957.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order fixes 30th September, 1957, as the date upon which Part V of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1946, which relates to independent schools, comes into operation.

1957 No. 1058 (S. 55)

The Registration of Independent Schools (Scotland) Regulations, 1957

Made - - - -	19th June, 1957
Laid before Parliament	27th June, 1957
Coming into Operation	30th September, 1957

In the exercise of the powers conferred upon me by subsection (3) of section 109 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following Regulations:—

Interpretation

1.—(1) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, "Registrar" means the Registrar of Independent Schools in Scotland.

(2) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, references to any enactment shall be construed as references to that enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Furnishing of Information to the Registrar

2.—(1) Every application for the registration of an independent school shall be made by the proprietor to the Registrar on a form to be provided by the Registrar on request and shall contain information as to the particulars prescribed in the Schedule annexed hereto.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 72. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(2) Changes in any of the said particulars shall be notified by the proprietor to the Registrar as follows—

(a) every change in any of the particulars prescribed in Part I of the said Schedule shall be notified within one month of the occurrence of the change; and

(b) changes in any of the particulars prescribed in Part II of the said Schedule shall be notified in January, 1959, and thereafter in each succeeding January, on a form to be provided by the Registrar on request.

(3) If at any time it appears to the Registrar that a proprietor has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the last foregoing paragraph of this Regulation, he may serve a notice on the proprietor requiring him to furnish within two months from the service of the notice sufficient information of such of the changes in the particulars prescribed in the said Schedule as may be specified in the notice, and intimating that in the event of his failing to comply with the terms of the notice the name of the school will be subject to be deleted from the register: and if the proprietor fails to comply with the terms of the notice, the Secretary of State may order the name of the school to be deleted from the register.

(4) The provisions of section 95 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1946, shall apply to the service of notices under the last foregoing paragraph.

Citation and Commencement

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Registration of Independent Schools (Scotland) Regulations, 1957, and shall come into operation on 30th September, 1957.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.
19th June, 1957.

SCHEDULE

Particulars to be furnished

PART I

(1) The name of the school.

(2) The address to which communications to the proprietors should be sent.

(3) Particulars by which the heritable property occupied for the purposes of the school may be identified.

(4) The undermentioned particulars as to the proprietor of the school—

(a) In the case of an incorporated or an unincorporated body, the title of the body, a description of the nature of the body and the name and address of each member of the body or of the committee of the body directly responsible for the management of the school.

(b) In the case of an individual proprietor, his name and address.

PART II

(1) The number of pupils in the school, arranged in groups according to their year of birth, their sex and whether or not they are boarders.

(2) The names, date of birth and qualifications of each teacher employed in the school.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Regulations prescribe the particulars to be furnished to the Registrar of Independent Schools by the proprietors of any independent school applying for registration of the school. They also require the notification to the Registrar of any changes in these particulars and prescribe the circumstances in which the name of the school may be deleted from the register if the Registrar is unable to obtain information about the changes.
