NOTES

The qualifications for registration are:—

Occupation as owner or tenant on the qualifying date of any rateable lands and heritages of the gross annual value of not less than £10 in respect of which rates are payable (or in the case of joint occupation, £10 for each joint occupier).

A person is not entitled to be registered more than once in any local government area (i.e., any county, burgh or district) for the purpose of elections for the council of that area. In particular, a person who is entitled to be registered as a resident in an area is not entitled to be registered also as a non-resident in the same area.

NOTE.—Any false declaration made by a person for the purpose of this claim will render such person liable to a penalty.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations but it is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Representation of the People (Scotland) Regulations, 1950 and are consequential on the alteration as respects Scotland of the valuation areas to which the registration areas correspond and of the qualification for local government franchise made by the Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act, 1956.

RESTRICTIVE TRADE PRACTICES

REGISTRATION

1957 No. 2158

The Registration of Restrictive Trading Agreements Order, 1957

Made - - - - 29th October, 1957

Coming into Operation 31st December, 1957

The Board of Trade, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by sections 9 and 10 of the Restrictive Trade Practices Act, 1956(a), hereby make the following Order:—

Citation, Commencement and Interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Registration of Restrictive Trading Agreements Order, 1957, and shall come into operation on the 31st day of December, 1957.

(a) 4 & 5 Eliz. 2. c. 68.

(2) In this Order—

"the Act" means the Restrictive Trade Practices Act, 1956(a);

"restrictive trading agreements" means agreements to which Part I of the Act applies;

"prescribed period" means, in relation to any agreement, the period within which the particulars to be furnished under section 10 of the Act are to be furnished in respect of that agreement, being a period beginning with the date on which the agreement is made or becomes subject to registration under Part I of the Act, whichever is the later, or with the variation or determination of the agreement, as the case may be;

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Agreements subject to Registration: Appointed Day and Period for Furnishing Particulars for Registration

2.—(1) Subsection (1) of section 9 of the Act (under which restrictive trading agreements are subject to registration) shall come into force on the 31st day of December, 1957, in respect of restrictive trading agreements to which this Order applies; and the prescribed period in respect of such agreements is three calendar months.

(2) This Order applies to restrictive trading agreements not included in the classes of agreements described in the Schedule to the Registration of Restrictive Trading Agreements Order, 1956(c).

Dated this 29th day of October, 1957.

J. K. Vaughan-Morgan,
Minister of State, Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which comes into operation on the 31st day of December, 1957, appoints the day on which all restrictive trading agreements not covered by the Registration of Restrictive Trading Agreements Order, 1956, become subject to registration under Part I of the Restrictive Trade Practices Act, 1956.

The period, within which particulars relating to agreements are to be furnished to the Registrar of Restrictive Trading Agreements, is three calendar months.

In the case of an agreement which is not subject to registration by virtue of this Order by reason only that the restrictions accepted under it relate to the supply of goods by export from the United Kingdom or to export and overseas trade, the provisions of subsection (1) of section 31 of the Act will apply.

(a) 4 & 5 Eliz 2. c. 68. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63. (c) S.I. 1956/1869 (1956 II, p. 1982).
