LAND REGISTRATION, ENGLAND

1952 No. 395

The Registration of Title (Surrey) Order, 1952

Made - - - - 29th February, 1952

At the Court at Clarence House, the 29th day of February, 1952

Present

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section 120 of the Land Registration Act, 1925(a), it is provided that Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare as respects any administrative county mentioned in the Order, that on and after a day specified in the Order, registration of title to land is to be compulsory on sale and that any such Order may be made at any time after the expiration of ten years from the commencement of the Act otherwise than at the instance of a county council subject to compliance with the provisions contained in the Act relating to such Orders:

And Whereas on the 16th day of January, 1951, notice of an Order proposed to be made under the said section that on and after the 1st day of October, 1951, registration of title to land in the administrative County of Surrey was to be compulsory on sale, was, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (i) of section 122 of the said Act, given to the Council of the County of Surrey, and a draft of the proposed Order together with the name of a place conveniently near to the County where a District Registry Office was proposed to be established accompanied the notice and was also published in the London Gazette:

(a) 15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 21.

And Whereas by virtue of paragraph (iii) of the said section 122 the said Council and any Law Society whose district would be affected by the proposed Order might, within six months after the receipt of the said notice by the said Council, have passed a Resolution that a public inquiry should be held in the administrative County of Surrey as to the desirability of extending compulsory registration of title on sale to that County:

And Whereas the West Surrey Law Society, the South East Surrey Law Society and the Mid Surrey Law Society, being Societies whose districts would be affected by the proposed Order, did each within the said period of six months, namely, on 8th June, 13th June and 15th June, 1951, respectively, pass Resolutions that a public inquiry should be held:

And Whereas the Lord Chancellor, the Right Honourable William Allen Viscount Jowitt, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (v) of the said section 122, appointed James Neville Gray Esquire, D.S.O., K.C., to hold and conduct an inquiry at the County Hall, Kingston, in the County of Surrey on Wednesday, 3rd October, 1951, into the proposed extension of compulsory registration of title on sale:

And Whereas the inquiry was duly held and completed and the said James Neville Gray reported in writing to the Lord Chancellor that compulsory registration of title on sale should be extended to the administrative County of Surrey and stated the facts and reasons upon which such result had been arrived at and the Lord Chancellor caused the report to be published:

And Whereas the Lord Chancellor, in pursuance of paragraph (ix) of the said section 122, decided to proceed with the draft Order after amending the date on and after which registration of title to land in the administrative County of Surrey is to be compulsory on sale from the 1st day of October, 1951, to the 15th day of March, 1952, and caused such draft (so amended) to be laid upon the Table of each House of Parliament:

And Whereas the draft Order so laid as aforesaid has been approved by both Houses of Parliament without modification, and it is expedient that an Order in the form so approved should now be made:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare and it is hereby ordered and declared as follows:—

1. Registration of title to land is to be compulsory on sale in the administrative County of Surrey on and after the 15th day of March nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

2. This Order may be cited as the Registration of Title (Surrey) Order, 1952.
