deemed unhealthy.

an unhealthy place, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

Section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859, relating to the laying of orders and warrants before Parliament, shall apply to every order and warrant made under this section.

Special rate of pension to person who has served in unhealthy place.

2. When a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State is entitled to any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance under the provisions of the Superannuation Act, 1859, two years service by him in an unhealthy place shall, in calculating the amount of such superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance, be reckoned as service for three years; and service in an unhealthy place for any greater or less period than two years shall be reckoned in the like proportion: But nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the second section of the Superannuation Act, 1859, so far as it requires a service of ten years before a person becomes entitled to any annual superannuation allowance.

Commencement of Act.

3. This Act shall commence on the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and apply to persons who have retired from the public service since that day.

Construction and short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1875, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and together with that Act may be cited as the Superannuation Acts, 1859 and 1875.

CHAPTER 5.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Registry of Deeds Office, Ireland.

[19th March 1875.]

2 & 3 Will. 4. c. 87.

WHEREAS by an Act of the session of the second and third years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intituled "An Act to regulate the "Office for Registering Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills in Ireland," the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, are authorised to regulate the Register Office therein mentioned, and to make regulations, orders, and directions respecting such office, and the persons employed therein, and the fees and moneys received therein; and by section thirty-five of the said Act it is among other things enacted as follows:

"Provided always, that every regulation, order, or direction so made or given by the "said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners aforesaid under this Act shall be forthwith "laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament shall then be sitting, and if "Parliament shall not then be sitting, in that case within fourteen days after the next "meeting of Parliament, and that the same shall not be carried into effect or become and "be binding and conclusive until after the end of the session in which the same shall be "so laid before both Houses of Parliament:"

And whereas it is expedient to repeal the latter portion of the said provisions which limits the time at which the regulation, order, or direction is to take effect:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Amendment of section 35 of recited Act.

1. So much of section thirty-five of the above-recited Act as enacts that any regulation, order, or direction therein mentioned shall not be carried into effect, or become and be binding and conclusive, until after the end of the session in which the same is laid before both Houses of Parliament, is hereby repealed: Provided that no regulation, order, or direction mentioned in section thirty-five of the above-recited Act shall be in force until the same shall have been laid forty days before both Houses of Parliament while in session, and if either House within that period resolve that the whole or any part of such regulation, order, or direction ought not to be in force, the same shall not have any force, without prejudice nevertheless to the making any other regulation, order, or direction in its place.

CHAPTER 6.

An Act to extend the Time for the Epping Forest Commissioners to make their Final Report. [19th March 1875.]

WHEREAS by the Epping Forest Act, 1871, it was enacted that the Commissioners thereby appointed should within two years from their appointment make a final report to Her Majesty on the matter referred to them, and that such report should be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the making thereof, if Parliament should then be sitting, and if not, then within fourteen days after the next meeting of Parliament: 34 & 35 Vict. c. 93.

And whereas additional powers were conferred upon the said Commissioners by the Epping Forest Amendment Act, 1872, which was incorporated with the said Act of 1871: 35 & 36 Vict. c. 95.

And whereas by the Epping Forest Act, 1873, it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Commissioners to make the said report at any time within two years from the passing of the said Act, and that such report should be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the making thereof, if Parliament should be then sitting, and if not, then within fourteen days after the next meeting of Parliament: 36 Vict. c. 5.

And whereas it is expedient to amend the powers of the said Acts and further to extend the time for making the said final report and the time when such report shall be presented to both Houses of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Time for making final report and for exercise of Commissioners power extended.

1. In case the said Commissioners shall be unable to make their final report to Her Majesty within the period limited by the Epping Forest Act, 1873, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make the said report at any time within one year from the passing of this Act, and all the powers conferred on the said Commissioners and on the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings respectively by the said recited Acts shall be and the same are hereby extended until the Commissioners shall make the said final report to Her Majesty within the period herein-before mentioned.

Penalty not exceeding 20*l.* for new inclosure or waste in breach of Commissioners orders.

2. Any person who shall in contravention of any order made by the Commissioners under the fifth section of the Epping Forest Amendment Act, 1872, make any inclosure of any land within the said Forest not inclosed before the passing of the Epping Forest Act, 1871, or wilfully or maliciously commit any waste, injury, or destruction of vert herbage, trees, shrubs, or other growing things in or upon any land within the said Forest to which the order relates, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds to be recovered upon summary conviction.

Final report to be laid before Parliament.

3. The said final report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, then within fourteen days after the next meeting of Parliament.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Epping Forest Act, 1875."
