EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Licence, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Licence replaces the Consolidated General Licence (Regulation of Disposal of Stocks), 1945, together with the amending Licences set out in the Second Schedule. The Licence now permits traders (notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9 of the Goods and Services (Price Control) Act, 1941(a)) to restrict their sales of goods specified in a notice as to emergency supplies in accordance with distribution arrangements instituted by the Board of Trade.

No new provisions have been added. The sections dealing with utility pit pants, perambulators, domestic electrical appliances, vacuum flasks, alarm clocks, rubber boots for deep sea fishermen, utility furniture, and baby wools and utility cloth of the specification number 236 have been excluded from this Licence, as the special arrangements for their distribution are no longer considered necessary. The use of the priority docket is discontinued.
