Extension of Order to whole of England, Wales and Scotland

2. The Regulation of Movement of Swine Order, 1950(a), shall apply to the whole of Great Britain, and shall be read and have effect as if in the Second Schedule to the Order " GREAT BRITAIN " were substituted for the Area described therein.

In Witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this twenty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty.

(L.S.) Donald E. Vandepeer,
Secretary.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order extends to the whole of Great Britain the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order, 1950, which prohibits the holding of sale of swine in any market, fairground or saleyard unless such sales are authorised by the Local Authority, and places restrictions on the movement of swine from any market, fairground or saleyard or from any collecting centre used by the Minister of Food or from the premises of any pig dealer.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order has the effect of revoking the Regulation of Movement of Swine Order of 1922 and its amending Orders together with certain subsidiary Orders of local application. The Orders now revoked, which were designed to prevent the spread of swine fever, regulated the movement of pigs out of a specified area and the holding of markets in that area. These restrictions are not now necessary since there has been no case of swine fever for many months.
