The Remuneration of Teachers (Farm Institutes) Amending Order, 1961

Made - - - - 18*th January*, 1961
Coming into Operation 1*st February*, 1961

Whereas in pursuance of Section 89 of the Education Act, 1944(a)—

(1) The Minister of Education by the Remuneration of Teachers (Farm Institutes) Order, 1959(b), ordered that the remuneration paid by local education authorities to teachers employed as members of the teaching staff of farm institutes maintained by local education authorities, or as teachers of agricultural subjects (including horticultural and related subjects) on the staff of local education authorities, should be in accordance with the scales of remuneration submitted by the Burnham Committee constituted for the purpose of considering the remuneration suitable for such teachers as therein mentioned; and

(2) The said Committee has submitted for the Minister's approval the amendment to the said scales set out in the Schedule to this Order, which amendment has been approved by the Minister:

Now, therefore, the Minister in pursuance of the power conferred on him by Section 89 of the Education Act, 1944, hereby orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Remuneration of Teachers (Farm Institutes) Amending Order, 1961, and shall come into operation on the first day of February, 1961.

2. The scales of remuneration required by the Remuneration of Teachers (Farm Institutes) Order, 1959, to be paid to full-time teachers of the respective categories aforesaid shall have effect as varied by the amendment set out in the Schedule to this Order.

SCHEDULE

Amendment to the Report of the Committee on Scales of Salaries for the Teaching Staff of Farm Institutes and for Teachers of Agricultural (including Horticutural) Subjects, England and Wales, 1959, submitted by the Farm Institutes' Committee on 21*st December,* 1960.

1. After Section O of the Committee's Report of 1959 there shall be inserted a new Section P as follows:—

(a) 7 & 8 Geo. 6. c. 31. (b) S.I. 1959/1584 (1959 I, p. 1059).

"SECTION P

ALLOWANCE FOR TEACHERS ON RETURN FROM SERVICE OVERSEAS ON SECONDMENT

Where a teacher, after return from a period of service overseas on secondment under arrangements approved by the National Council for the Supply of Teachers Overseas, resumes teaching service in a capacity to which this Report applies, a temporary allowance may be granted to the teacher for a period not exceeding two years from the date on which teaching service is resumed, of such amount as may be necessary to secure that the total rate of remuneration paid to the teacher during that period shall not be less than the corresponding remuneration which would have been payable if the teacher had continued to serve in the post held by him/her immediately prior to secondment.

Such a temporary allowance will in the normal case be payable by the Local Education Authority by which the teacher was seconded and only for so long as the teacher continues in teaching service with that Authority. In the event, however, that a teacher who would otherwise have been eligible to receive such a temporary allowance, either initially resumes, or subsequently transfers to, teaching service with a Local Education Authority other than the one by which he/she was seconded, the temporary allowance may in that case be paid or continued during the period of its currency by that other Authority if that Authority is satisfied that there were good reasons for the teacher not resuming, or not continuing during the said period, teaching service with the Authority by which the teacher was seconded."

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Education this 18th day of January, 1961.

(L.S.) David Eccles,
Minister of Education.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order enables a local education authority, for a period of up to two years after a teacher's return from service overseas on secondment, to pay him the salary he would have received if he had remained in the post held immediately prior to secondment.
