The Remuneration of Teachers (Primary and Secondary Schools) Amending Order, 1961

Made - - - - 18*th January*, 1961
Coming into Operation 1*st February*, 1961

Whereas in pursuance of Section 89 of the Education Act, 1944(a)—

(1) the Minister of Education by the Remuneration of Teachers (Primary and Secondary Schools) Order, 1959(b), ordered that that remuneration paid by local education authorities to full-time teachers in primary and secondary schools should be in accordance with the scales of remuneration submitted by the Burnham Main Committee as therein mentioned; and

(2) the said Committee has submitted for the Minister's approval the amendment to the said scales set out in the Schedule to this Order, which amendment has been approved by the Minister:

Now, therefore, the Minister in pursuance of the power conferred on him by Section 89 of the Education Act, 1944, hereby orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Remuneration of Teachers (Primary and Secondary Schools) Amending Order, 1961, and shall come into operation on the first day of February, 1961.

2. The scales of remuneration required by the Remuneration of Teachers (Primary and Secondary Schools) Order, 1959, to be paid to full-time teachers in primary and secondary schools maintained by local education authorities shall have effect as varied by the amendment set out in the Schedule to this Order.

SCHEDULE

Amendment to the Report of the Burnham Committee on Scales of Salaries for Teachers in Primary and Secondary Schools, England and Wales, 1959, submitted by the Burnham Main Committee on 21st December, 1960.

Section N of the Committee's Report of 1959 (wherein are set out certain miscellaneous provisions concerning Allowances and Additional Payments over and above scale salary) shall be amended by the insertion of the following additional paragraph at the end of the said Section:—

"5. Allowance for Teachers on return from service overseas on secondment.

Where a teacher, after return from a period of service overseas on secondment under arrangements approved by the National Council for the Supply of Teachers Overseas, resumes teaching service in a maintained school, a temporary allowance may be granted to the teacher for a period not exceeding two years from the date on which teaching service is resumed, of such amount as may be necessary to secure that the total rate of remuneration paid to the teacher during that period shall not be less than the corresponding remuneration which would have been payable if the teacher had continued to serve in the post held by him/her immediately prior to secondment.

Such a temporary allowance will in the normal case be payable by the Local Education Authority by which the teacher was seconded and only for so long as the teaching service in respect of which it is paid continues to be in a school maintained by that Authority. In the event, however, that a teacher who would otherwise have been eligible to receive such a temporary allowance, either initially resumes teaching service in, or subsequently transfers to, a school maintained by a Local Education Authority other than the one by which he/she was seconded, the temporary allowance may in that case be paid or continued during the period of its currency by that other Authority if that Authority is satisfied that there were good reasons for the teacher not resuming, or not continuing during the said period, teaching service in a school maintained by the Authority by which the teacher was seconded."

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Education this 18th day of January, 1961.

(L.S.)

David Eccles,
Minister of Education.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order enables a local education authority, for a period of up to two years after a teacher's return from service overseas on secondment, to pay him the salary he would have received if he had remained in the post held immediately before secondment.
