CHAPTER 34.

An Act to amend the Representation of the People Acts, 1918 to 1920, with respect to interruptions of residence during the qualifying period. [4th August 1921.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Interruption of residence by service.

1.—(1) The residence of a person in any premises shall not be deemed to have been interrupted for the purposes of the Representation of the People Acts, 1918 to 1920, by reason only of the fact that that person has been absent from the premises during part of the qualifying period, not exceeding four months at any one time, in the performance of any duty arising from or incidental to any office, service, or employment held or undertaken by him; but the express enactment of this provision shall not affect in any way the general principles governing the interpretation of the expression "residence" and cognate expressions.

50 & 51 Vict. c. 9.

(2) Section three of the Police Disabilities Removal Act, 1887, is hereby repealed.
