(4) Any person before whom a declaration is authorised to be made under this Regulation may take the declaration.

Notice of issue of postal ballot papers

31.—(1) The returning officer shall give each candidate not less than two days' notice in writing of the time and place at which he will issue postal ballot papers and of the number of agents he may appoint under Regulation 29(2) to attend the said issue.

(2) Where any subsequent issue of postal ballot papers is made, the returning officer shall notify each candidate as soon as practicable of the time and place at which he will make such subsequent issue and of the number of agents he may appoint under Regulation 29(2) to attend such issue.

Marking of postal ballot paper

32.—(1) Each postal ballot paper issued shall be stamped with the official mark either embossed or perforated, and the name and number in the register of the elector shall be called out, and such number shall be marked on the counterfoil, and a mark shall be placed in the absent voters list or the list of postal proxies against the number of the elector to denote that a ballot paper has been issued to the elector or his proxy but without showing the particular ballot paper issued.

(2) The number of a postal ballot paper shall be marked on the declaration of identity sent with that paper.

Refusal to issue postal ballot papers

33. Where a returning officer is satisfied that two or more entries in either the absent voters list or the list of postal proxies relate to the same elector or that a postal proxy has been appointed for a person entered in the absent voters list, he shall not issue more than one ballot paper in respect of the same elector.

Ballot paper envelope

34. The returning officer shall, in addition to the ballot paper, declaration of identity and envelope for their return (hereinafter referred to as a "covering envelope") which he is required by rule 25 of the parliamentary elections rules to send to a postal voter, send a smaller envelope marked "ballot paper envelope" bearing the number of the ballot paper.

Delivery of postal ballot papers to post office

35. Envelopes addressed to postal voters shall be counted and forthwith delivered by the returning officer to the nearest head post office, or such other office as may be arranged with the head postmaster, and the postmaster shall stamp with the post office date stamp a form of receipt to be presented by the returning officer stating the number of envelopes so delivered, and shall immediately forward such envelopes for delivery to the persons to whom they are addressed.

Provision of postal voters' ballot box

36.—(1) The returning officer shall, at the proceedings on the original issue of postal ballot papers, provide a ballot box or ballot boxes for the reception of the covering envelopes when returned by the postal voters.

(2) Every such ballot box shall be shown open and empty to the agents present and shall then be locked by the returning officer and sealed with the seal of the returning officer and the seals of such of the agents as desire to affix their seals in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal.

(3) Every such ballot box shall be marked "postal voters' ballot box" and with the name of the constituency for which the election is held.

(4) The returning officer shall make provision for the safe custody of every such ballot box.

Sealing up of special lists and counterfoils

37.—(1) The returning officer, as soon as practicable after the completion of the issue of the postal ballot papers, and in the presence of the agents, shall make up in separate packets—

(a) the marked copies of the absent voters list and of the list of postal proxies, and

(b) the counterfoils of those ballot papers which were issued,

and shall seal such packets.

(2) The sealed packet containing the marked copies of the absent voters list and of the list of postal proxies may be opened by the returning officer for the purposes of a subsequent issue, and on completion of that issue the copies shall be again made up and sealed in accordance with the last foregoing paragraph.

Spoilt postal ballot paper

38.—(1) If a postal voter has inadvertently dealt with his postal ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper (in these Regulations referred to as "a spoilt postal ballot paper") he may return (either by hand or by post) to the returning officer the spoilt postal ballot paper, the declaration of identity, the ballot paper envelope and the covering envelope.

(2) The returning officer, on receipt of the said documents, shall, unless the documents are received too late for another postal ballot paper to be returned before the close of the poll, issue another postal ballot paper and the foregoing provisions of this Part of these Regulations, but not sub-paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of paragraph (1) or paragraphs (2) to (8) of Regulation 29 or Regulation 31, shall apply accordingly.

(3) The spoilt postal ballot paper, the declaration of identity and the ballot paper envelope shall be immediately cancelled.

(4) The returning officer, as soon as practicable after cancelling the said documents, shall make up the said documents in a separate packet and shall seal the packet; and if on any subsequent occasion documents are cancelled as aforesaid, the sealed packet shall be opened and the additional cancelled documents included therein and the packet shall thereupon be again made up and sealed.

Receipt of Postal Ballot Papers

Receipt of covering envelope

39. The returning officer shall, immediately on receipt (whether by hand or by post) of a covering envelope before the close of the poll, place it unopened in a postal voters' ballot box locked and sealed in accordance with Regulation 36.

Opening of postal voters' ballot box

40.—(1) Each postal voters' ballot box shall be opened by the returning officer in the presence of the agents.

(2) So long as the returning officer secures that there is at least one postal voters' ballot box for the reception of covering envelopes up to the time of the close of the poll the other postal voters' ballot boxes may previously be opened by him.

(3) The returning officer shall give each candidate at least forty-eight hours' notice in writing of the time and place of his opening of each postal voters' ballot box and the envelopes contained therein and of the number of agents the candidate may appoint under Regulation 29(2) to be present at each opening.

Opening of covering envelopes

41.—(1) When a postal voters' ballot box has been opened, the returning officer shall count and note the number of covering envelopes, and shall then open each covering envelope separately.

(2) Where a covering envelope does not contain both a declaration of identity and a ballot paper envelope or, there being no ballot paper envelope, a ballot paper, he shall mark the covering envelope "rejected", attach thereto the contents (if any) of the covering envelope and place it in a separate receptacle (hereinafter referred to as "the receptacle for votes rejected"); and if the covering envelope does not contain the declaration separately, the returning officer shall open the ballot paper envelope to ascertain if the declaration is inside that envelope.

(3) On opening a covering envelope, other than one to which paragraph (2) of this Regulation applies, he shall first satisfy himself that the declaration of identity has been duly signed and authenticated and, if he is not so satisfied, he shall mark the declaration "rejected", attach thereto the ballot paper envelope or, if there is no such envelope, the ballot paper, and place it in the receptacle for votes rejected:

Provided that before so doing he shall show the declaration to the agents and, if any objection is made by any agent to his decision, he shall add the words "rejection objected to ".

(4) Where the number on the declaration of identity duly signed and authenticated agrees with the number on the ballot paper envelope, he shall place the declaration in a separate receptacle (hereinafter referred to as "the receptacle for declarations of identity") and the ballot paper envelope in another separate receptacle (hereinafter referred to as "the receptacle for ballot paper envelopes").

(5) Where there is no ballot paper envelope or the ballot paper envelope has been opened under paragraph (2) of this Regulation, he shall—

(a) where the number on the declaration of identity duly signed and authenticated agrees with the number on the ballot paper, place the declaration in the receptacle for declarations of identity and the ballot paper in a ballot box previously shown open and empty to the agents present and locked by the returning officer and sealed with the seal of the returning officer and the seals of such of the agents as desire to affix their seals in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal, which shall be subsequently treated as a ballot box for the purpose of rule 46 of the parliamentary elections rules, and

(b) where the number on the said declaration does not agree with the number on the ballot paper, mark the declaration "rejected", attach thereto the ballot paper and place it in the receptacle for votes rejected.

(6) Where the number on the declaration of identity duly signed and authenticated does not agree with the number on the ballot paper envelope or that envelope has no number on it, he shall open the envelope and shall—

(a) where the number on the declaration agrees with the number on the ballot paper, place the declaration in the receptacle for declarations of identity and the ballot paper in the ballot box referred to in paragraph (5) of this Regulation, and

(b) where the number on the declaration does not agree with the number on the ballot paper or there is no ballot paper, mark the declaration "rejected", attach thereto the ballot paper (if any) and place it in the receptacle for votes rejected.

(7) Except for the purposes of ascertaining under paragraph (2) of this Regulation whether a ballot paper envelope contains a declaration of identity or under paragraph (6) of this Regulation whether the number on the declaration agrees with the number on the ballot paper, the returning officer shall not open the ballot paper envelopes before they are opened under Regulation 43.

Sealing up of rejected votes and declarations of identity

42. On the conclusion of the proceedings under Regulation 41 the returning officer shall put the contents of the receptacle for votes rejected and the contents of the receptacle for declarations of identity into two separate packets and shall seal up such packets.

Opening of ballot paper envelopes

43.—(1) After sealing up the said packets the returning officer shall open separately each ballot paper envelope placed in the receptacle for ballot paper envelopes.

(2) Where a ballot paper envelope does not contain a ballot paper, he shall mark the envelope "rejected".

(3) Where the number on a ballot paper envelope agrees with the number on the ballot paper contained therein, he shall place the ballot paper in the ballot box referred to in Regulation 41(5).

(4) Where the number on the ballot paper envelope does not agree with the number on the ballot paper contained therein, he shall mark the ballot paper "rejected" and attach the ballot paper envelope thereto.

(5) He shall put into a separate packet the envelopes and the ballot papers marked "rejected" under the provisions of this Regulation and shall seal up such packet.

Abandoned poll

44. Where a poll is abandoned, or countermanded after postal ballot papers have been issued, by reason of the death of a candidate, the returning officer—

(a) shall not take any step or further step to open covering envelopes or deal with their contents in accordance with the provisions of this Part of these Regulations, and

(b) shall, notwithstanding Regulation 42 or 43, treat all unopened covering envelopes and the contents of those which have been opened as if they were counted ballot papers.

Forwarding of documents

45.—(1) The returning officer shall forward to the Clerk of the Crown for Northern Ireland at the same time as he forwards the documents mentioned in rule 56 of the parliamentary elections rules—

(a) any packets referred to in Regulation 37, 38, 42 or 43, subject to the provisions of Regulation 44, endorsing on each packet a description of its contents, the date of the election to which it relates and the name of the constituency, and

(b) a statement of the number of postal ballot papers issued in such form and giving such other particulars with respect to such papers as the Secretary of State may require.

(2) Where any covering envelopes are received by the returning officer after the close of the poll or any envelopes addressed to postal voters are returned as undelivered too late to be readdressed, or any spoilt postal ballot papers are returned too late to enable other postal ballot papers to be issued, he shall put them unopened into a separate packet, seal up such packet and forward it at a subsequent date in the manner described in paragraph (1) of this Regulation.

(3) Any packet or statement forwarded under this Regulation shall be deemed to have been forwarded in pursuance of the parliamentary elections rules.

(4) A copy of the statement referred to in paragraph (1) of this Regulation shall be furnished by the returning officer to the Secretary of State.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE VOTER

1. You must sign (or mark) the declaration of identity in the presence of a person known to you.

2. You may vote for not more than one candidate.

3. Place a cross (X) on the right-hand side of the ballot paper opposite the name of the candidate for whom you vote. Do this secretly: if you cannot vote without assistance, the person assisting you must not disclose how you have voted.

4. Put the ballot paper in the small envelope marked "A" and seal it. Then put the envelope marked "A", together with this declaration of identity, in the larger envelope marked "B". Return it without delay. The ballot paper, in order to be counted, must be received by the returning officer not later than the close of the poll.

5. If you receive more than one ballot paper, remember that it is illegal to vote more than once (otherwise than as proxy) at the same election.

6. At this election you cannot vote in person at a polling station, even if you receive an official poll card.

7. If you inadvertently spoil your postal ballot paper, you can apply to the returning officer for another one. With your application you must return, in a fresh envelope, the spoilt ballot paper, the declaration of identity and the envelopes marked "A" and "B". Remember that there is little time available if a fresh postal ballot paper is to be counted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations revoke and replace the Representation of the People (Northern Ireland) Regulations 1950, as amended. Amendments have been made in consequence of the passing of the Representation of the People Act 1969 (c.15). In particular provision is made for marking the names of persons coming of voting age during the currency of the register and of merchant seamen (Regulation 6); for correcting the published register (Regulation 15); for applications to be treated as absent voters based on the ground of religious observance (Regulation 16(2)(a)); for service declarations by British Council employees (Part V of the Regulations); prescribing the fees for inspection and copies of the return and declaration of election expenses (Regulation 56); and for the computation of time (Regulation 61).

Other amendments have also been made. In particular the fees for the sale of the register (Regulation 9) and the penalties for certain offences (Regulation 62) have been varied: spoilt postal ballot papers may be replaced (Regulation 38); and the procedure for dealing with postal ballot papers where a candidate has died has been specified (Regulation 44).
