EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Section 27(3) of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851 enables warrants issued in the Irish Republic to be endorsed and executed in Great Britain, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man if transmitted to, and endorsed by, certain specified Irish police officers. The officers specified in the section became inappropriate as a consequence of the establishment of the Irish Free State, and this Order adapts the section by substituting a reference to the chief officer or deputy or assistant chief officer of the police force of the Irish Republic.
