CHAPTER 42.

An Act to remove certain doubts which have arisen under the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, and for other purposes connected therewith. [14th August 1890.]

WHEREAS certain men engaged in railway, post office, or telegraph service, and being volunteers, have been enlisted in Her Majesty's regular forces, and immediately upon such enlistment been transferred, under the Army Act, 1881, to the reserve, and have been attached as supernumeraries to a volunteer corps, and doubts have arisen as to whether such enlistment, transfer, and attachment are authorised by law, and it is expedient to remove such doubts:

44 & 45 Vict. c. 58.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Authority to transfer men to reserve immediately on enlistment.

1. It is hereby declared that regulations of a Secretary of State under the Army Act can authorise any man having the special qualifications prescribed by those regulations to be enlisted in any of Her Majesty's regular forces, and immediately upon such enlistment to enter the reserve.

Training of reserve men with volunteers.

2. Subject to any order or regulations under the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, any man belonging to the Army Reserve may be attached to a volunteer corps for the purpose of drill or training, and while so attached shall for the purposes of the Volunteer Acts, 1863 and 1869, and any Acts amending the same, be a volunteer of such corps without prejudice to his position as a man belonging to the Army Reserve. 45 & 46 Vict. c. 58. 26 & 27 Vict. c. 65. 32 & 33 Vict. c. 81.

3. Any enlistment, transfer to the Army Reserve, or attachment to a volunteer corps of any man which was effected before the passing of this Act, and would have been valid if done subsequently to the passing of this Act, shall be deemed to have been valid. Saving.

4. This Act shall be construed as one with the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Reserve Forces Acts, 1882 and 1890, and this Act may be cited as the Reserve Forces Act, 1890. Short title and construction.

CHAPTER 43.

An Act to amend the Law in regard to the Education of Blind and Deaf-mute Children in Scotland.

[14th August 1890.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Education of Blind and Deaf-mute Children (Scotland) Act, 1890; and shall be construed as one with the Education (Scotland) Acts, 1872 to 1883. Short title and construction.

2. This Act shall extend to Scotland only, and shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one. Extent and commencement of Act.

3. If the parent of a blind or deaf-mute child between five and sixteen years of age is from poverty unable to pay for the education of such child as herein-after mentioned, it shall be the duty of the school board of the parish or burgh in which such parent resides, to provide out of the school fund at rates to be approved of by the Scotch Education Department for the efficient elementary education of such child in reading, writing, and arithmetic, and for his industrial training either in a school belonging to such school board, or in some other school or institution approved of by the Scotch Education Department; and where necessary the school board shall be bound to provide for the boarding of the child at some place approved of by the school board, and for the transit of such child to and from such school or institution or place, at rates to be approved of by the Scotch Education Department. Duty of school board, where parent unable, to provide education, &c., for blind and deaf-mute children. Procedure for enforcement of duty.

Provided that—

(1.) Where a school board making any payment in pursuance of this section is not the school board of the parish in which the parent of any such child, as aforesaid, has his legal settlement
