Given under the Official Seal of the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland this 30th day of April, 1936.

A. Robinson,
Assistant Secretary,
Ministry of Home Affairs,
Northern Ireland.

NOTE :—The Public Health Act, 1896, provides by sub-section (3) of Section 1 that if any person wilfully neglects or refuses to obey or carry out, or obstructs the execution of any regulation made under any of the enactments mentioned in that Act, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £100 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further penalty not exceeding £50 for every day during which the offence continues.

The power of making regulations under the Public Health Act, 1896, and the enactments mentioned in that Act is enlarged by the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907.

RESIDENT MAGISTRATES.

Salaries and Allowances.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS, DATED THE 1ST DAY OF JANUARY, 1936.

1936. No. 4.

WHEREAS by Section 6 (4) of the Summary Jurisdiction and Criminal Justice Act (Northern Ireland), 1935, (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is provided that the Minister of Home Affairs may, by Order made with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, from time to time prescribe the rates and scales of salaries and allowances to be paid to Resident Magistrates and temporary Resident Magistrates appointed under the Act :

Now, I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act and of all other powers me thereunto enabling, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, do hereby order and prescribe that the following shall be the rates and scales of salaries and allowances to be paid to Resident Magistrates appointed or deemed to have been appointed under the Act and the conditions applicable thereto :—

1. A scale salary rising from £800 a year by annual increments of £25 a year to £1,100 a year with effect as from the 1st January, 1936 :

Provided that in the case of any Resident Magistrate appointed prior to the passing of the Act who elects under the provisions of Section 8 (2) of the Act to come within the provisions of the Act as regards rates and scales of salaries, and whose existing salary together with the amount of annual increment which may have accrued at the date of the commencement of the Act is greater than £800 a year, such Resident Magistrate shall enter the scale on the 1st January, 1936, at the point in the scale immediately above the amount of his existing salary together with accrued increment as aforesaid, and his salary shall rise by annual increments of £25 to the aforesaid maximum of £1,100.

2. The salary to be paid to a temporary Resident Magistrate appointed under the provisions of Section 6 (3) of the Act shall be at the rate of £5 5s. 0d. for each day upon which he adjudicates as such, together with travelling and subsistence allowances as laid down in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Order.

3. Allowances in respect of travelling expenses for journeys undertaken on official duty at the rates and subject to the conditions from time to time prescribed by the Ministry of Finance in respect of Civil Servants :

Provided that existing Resident Magistrates appointed prior to the Order of 1st March, 1928, prescribing rates and scales of salary for Resident Magistrates, shall continue to receive the travelling allowances granted to them under that Order.

4. Subsistence allowance at the rates and subject to the conditions from time to time prescribed by the Ministry of Finance in respect of Civil Servants.

5. An allowance of £8 a year for postage, stationery, and incidental expenses.

And I do hereby order and direct that this Order shall have effect as from the 1st January, 1936, and that from and after such date the rates and scales of salaries and allowances and the conditions applicable thereto hereinbefore prescribed shall as respects Resident Magistrates appointed or deemed to have been appointed under the Act, be substituted for the rates and scales of salaries and allowances and the conditions applicable thereto which were prescribed by the Order dated 1st day of March, 1928.

Dated this first day of January, 1936.

R. Dawson Bates,
Minister of Home Affairs
for Northern Ireland.

I, The Right Honourable Hugh M'Dowell Pollock, Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, hereby signify my concurrence in the foregoing Order.

Dated this first day of January, 1936.

H. M. Pollock,
Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland.
