1952 No. 167

The Restriction of Ribbon Development (Temporary Development) (End of War Period) Order, 1952

Made - - - - 30*th January*, 1952

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of January, 1952

Present

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by subsection (6) of section one of the Restriction of Ribbon Development (Temporary Development) Act, 1943(a), the expression " the present war period " is defined as the period beginning with the third day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, and ending with such date as His Majesty may by Order in Council appoint:

And whereas by paragraph 14 of the Tenth Schedule to the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947(b), and paragraph 14 of the Tenth Schedule to the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947(c), the power to make an Order in Council under the said subsection (6) appointing a date for the end of the present war period is preserved notwithstanding the repeal of the said Act of 1943 by the said Acts of 1947:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said subsection (6) of section one of the said Act of 1943 is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-two, is hereby appointed as the date with which the present war period within the meaning of section one of the Restriction of Ribbon Development (Temporary Development) Act, 1943, is to end.

2. This Order may be cited as the Restriction of Ribbon Development (Temporary Development) (End of War Period) Order, 1952.

F. J. Fernau.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

By virtue of regulations made, as respects England, under section 76 (6) of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947, and, as respects Scotland under section 73 (6) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947, temporary development which, by virtue of the Restriction of Ribbon Development (Temporary Development) Act, 1943, was exempted from enforcement action under the Restriction of Ribbon Development Act, 1935, during the war period as defined by the said Act of 1943 is treated as if it were the subject of planning permission granted for a limited period.

This Order terminates that limited period for the purposes of those provisions, and as from the date specified in this Order development so exempted becomes liable to enforcement action, as respects England, under section 23 as applied by section 76 (2) of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947, and, as respects Scotland, under section 21 as applied by section 73 (2) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947.
