M.H. 108881

The Minister of Health and the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, in relation to officers and servants of any authority, other than a navigation authority, a conservancy authority or a harbour authority, from whom functions are transferred by or under the River Boards Act, 1948(b), to a river board, and the said Ministers and the Minister of Transport, in relation to officers and servants of a navigation authority, a conservancy authority or a harbour authority, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 30 of the said Act, hereby make the following regulations :—

PART I

Citation and Interpretation

1. These regulations may be cited as the River Boards (Compensation) Regulations, 1950, and shall come into operation on the twentieth day of January, 1950.

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say—

" accrued pension ", in relation to a pensionable officer who has suffered loss of employment, means

(a) if the pension scheme to which the person was last subject before losing his employment provided benefits in which he had no right to participate but had reasonable expectations of participating, such proportion of the benefit of which he had reasonable expectations as the compensating authority considers equitable, having regard to his age, the length of his employment at the date of loss and all the other circumstances of the case ; and
