II. In an uncontested election, for all necessary preliminary work the amount shall be the same as the amount specified for corresponding work in a contested election, except that for all clerical and other assistance employed by the returning officer, deputy returning officer, acting returning officer or deputy acting returning officer for the purposes of the election, including charges for day subsistence expenses and for superannuation contributions where payable, the amount shall not be more than one-quarter of the amount specified under paragraph 1.4 of this part of the Schedule.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations revoke and replace the Returning Officers' Expenses (England and Wales) Regulations 1984 and the Returning Officers' Expenses (Scotland) Regulations 1984. They prescribe, in relation to England, Wales and Scotland, a revised scale further increasing the maximum fees in respect of services rendered and the maximum charges in respect of expenses incurred by a returning officer for the purposes of or in connection with a parliamentary election. Separate charges are prescribed in respect of the preparation of poll cards by manual and by non-manual means. The increases over those prescribed in 1984 are between 14 per cent and 18½ per cent save that the maximum charge prescribed for the presiding officer is increased by 30 per cent.
