EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which are made by the Treasury in pursuance of Representation of the People Act, 1949, S. 20 (2), prescribe, in relation to England and Wales, a revised scale increasing the maximum charges in respect of services rendered and expenses incurred by a returning officer at a parliamentary election.

1958 No. 952

The Returning Officers' Expenses (Scotland) Regulations, 1958

Made - - - -	10*th June*, 1958
Coming into Operation	11*th June*, 1958

The Treasury, in pursuance of subsection (2) of section twenty of the Representation of the People Act, 1949(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. A returning officer at a parliamentary election in Scotland shall be entitled to his reasonable charges, not exceeding the sums specified in the Scale set out in the Schedule to these Regulations, in respect of services and expenses of the several kinds mentioned in the said Scale which have been properly rendered or incurred by him for the purposes of or in connection with that parliamentary election:

Provided that no charge for a disbursement shall exceed the sum actually and necessarily paid or payable by the returning officer.

2. These Regulations shall have effect in relation to all parliamentary elections begun after the 10th day of June, 1958.

3. The Returning Officers' Expenses (Scotland) Regulations, 1950(b), and the Returning Officers' Expenses (Scotland) (Amendment) Regulations, 1952(c), are hereby revoked:

Provided that nothing in this revocation shall affect any parliamentary election begun before the 11th day of June, 1958, and the said Regulations shall be deemed to continue in force for the purposes of any parliamentary election so begun.

4.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Returning Officers' Expenses (Scotland) Regulations, 1958.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(d), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

5. These Regulations shall come into force on the 11th day of June, 1958.

Dated this 10th day of June, 1958.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which are made by the Treasury in pursuance of Representation of the People Act, 1949, s. 20 (2), prescribe, in relation to Scotland, a revised scale increasing the maximum charges in respect of services rendered and expenses incurred by a returning officer at a parliamentary election.

1958 No. 1745

The Returning Officers' Expenses (Northern Ireland) Regulations, 1958

Made - - - -	13*th October*, 1958
Coming into Operation	14*th October*, 1958

The Treasury, in pursuance of subsection (2) of section twenty of the Representation of the People Act, 1949(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. A returning officer at an Imperial parliamentary election in Northern Ireland shall be entitled to his reasonable charges, not exceeding the sums specified in the Scale set out in the Schedule to these Regulations, in respect of services and expenses of the several kinds mentioned in the said Scale which have been properly rendered or incurred by him for the purposes of or in connection with that parliamentary election:

Provided that no charge for a disbursement shall exceed the sum actually and necessarily paid or payable by the returning officer.

2. These Regulations shall have effect in relation to all Imperial parliamentary elections begun after the 13th day of October, 1958.

3. The Returning Officers' Expenses (Northern Ireland) Regulations, 1950(b), and the Returning Officers' Expenses (Northern Ireland) (Amendment) Regulations, 1952(c), are hereby revoked:

Provided that nothing in this revocation shall affect any Imperial parliamentary election begun before the 14th day of October, 1958, and the said Regulations shall be deemed to continue in force for the purposes of any Imperial parliamentary election so begun.

4.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Returning Officers' Expenses (Northern Ireland) Regulations, 1958.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(d), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

5. These Regulations shall come into force on the 14th day of October, 1958.

Dated this 13th day of October, 1958.
