CHAPTER cxlv.

An Act for amending the River Suck Drainage Act 1889 and for other purposes. A.D. 1894.

[31st July 1894.]

WHEREAS by a Provisional Order dated the twenty-seventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight (in this Act called "the Order of 1878") and made by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland (in this Act called "the Commissioners") in pursuance of the Drainage and Improvement of Lands Act (Ireland) 1863 and the Acts amending the same and confirmed by the Drainage and Improvement of Lands Supplemental Act (Ireland) 1878 the River Suck Drainage District was constituted a separate drainage district under the management of the drainage board for the district (in this Act called "the Board"):

And whereas by the Order of 1878 the time for the completion of the necessary works in the district was limited to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and such time was subsequently extended by the Commissioners to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven:

And whereas by the River Suck Drainage Act 1886 (in this Act called "the Act of 1886") the time for the completion of the said works was extended to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and for such additional period as the Commissioners might by order direct:

And whereas the Commissioners granted an order under the power vested in them by the Act of 1886 by which the time for the completion of the said works was extended to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety:

And whereas by the River Suck Drainage Act 1889 (in this Act called "the Act of 1889") the time for the completion of the said works was extended to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three and for such additional period as the Commissioners might by order direct:

And whereas the Commissioners granted an order under the power vested in them by the Act of 1889 and the time now limited for the completion of the said works is the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five:

And whereas by section 5 of the Act of 1889 the Board were authorised to borrow from the Commissioners to an amount which together with the amount of advances made by the Commissioners by way of loan to the Board before the passing of the Act of 1889 should not exceed in the whole one hundred and fifteen thousand pounds:

And whereas the Board have borrowed from the Commissioners under the provisions of the recited Acts a sum of one hundred and fourteen thousand five hundred pounds the whole of which has been expended as authorised by the Order of 1878 and the works are now nearly finished but cannot be finally completed without the expenditure of further moneys:

And whereas it is expedient that the Board should have further borrowing powers conferred on them:

And whereas the object of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the River Suck Drainage Act 1894.

Borrowing of further moneys.

2. Notwithstanding the limitation in section 5 of the Act of 1889 the Board may borrow from the Commissioners such further sums of money as the Treasury on the report of the Commissioners may deem necessary for the purpose of aiding in the completion of the works authorised by the Order made in the matter of the River Suck Drainage District confirmed by the Drainage and Improvement of Lands Supplemental Act (Ireland) 1878.

Expenses of Act.

3. All costs charges and expenses of and incidental to the preparing for obtaining and passing this Act or otherwise in relation thereto and of and incidental to carrying into execution any of the powers and provisions thereof shall be deemed expenses incidental to the execution of the works authorised by the Order of 1878 and shall be defrayed by the Board accordingly.
