EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order has effect from the 26th September, 1952. The First Schedule sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable in substitution for that fixed by the Retail Newsagency, Tobacco and Confectionery Trades Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation Order, 1950, (Order R.N.T.S. (6)), as amended by the Retail Newsagency, Tobacco and Confectionery Trades Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1951, (Order R.N.T.S. (8)), which are revoked.

The Second Schedule amends the Retail Newsagency, Tobacco and Confectionery Trades Wages Council (Scotland) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order, 1949, (Order R.N.T.S. (4)) by altering in the Schedule to that Order the provisions relating to the calculation of any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration.

New provisions in the Schedules are printed in italics.

1952 No. 661

The Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation Order, 1952

Made - - - -	26th March, 1952
Coming into Operation	18*th April*, 1952

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Road Haulage Wages Council the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto, in substitution for the provisions contained in the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (No. 2) Order, 1949(a) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "Order R.H. (30)"), as amended by the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (No. 3) Order, 1949(b) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "Order R.H. (32)") and the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1951(c) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "Order R.H. (38)");

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(d), and of all other powers in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

Short title and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation Order, 1952.

(2) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 18th day of April, 1952, provided that where as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(e), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(e) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

Fixing of statutory minimum remuneration and revocation of Order R.H. (30), Order R.H. (32) and Order R.H. (38)

2.—(1) Effect is hereby given to the said wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto.

(2) The provisions of the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date Order R.H. (30), Order R.H. (32) and Order R.H. (38) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 26th day of March, 1952.

Guildhaume Myrddin-Evans,

Deputy Secretary,
Ministry of Labour and National Service.

SCHEDULE

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

(New para. 1 substituted by S.I. 1952/1385, p. 3895 below).

Night Work

2. A worker whose hours of duty or any part thereof entail employment between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. shall be paid the appropriate rates of wages specified in paragraph 1 or paragraph 7 with the addition of 6d. for each hour, or part of an hour, worked between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. Where overtime is payable in respect of hours worked between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m., this additional payment remains payable but is not to be included for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate payable in respect of those hours.

Vehicles loaded or unloaded in higher graded places

3. Where a vehicle picks up or sets down a load at a point or points where the scales of wages payable are higher than that applicable to the locality in which the worker's home depot is situated, the worker employed thereon shall be paid for the whole journey at the highest rate of wages applicable to that class of vehicle at any of the points where he picks up or sets down, or if employed on long distance services, at the rate applicable thereto.

Provided that where a vehicle picks up or sets down in the London Area, the rate of wages applicable to a worker employed thereon whose home depot is in a grade 1 or 2 locality shall be the appropriate grade 1 rate or the rate appropriate to long distance services as the case may be.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to foremen, removal packers and porters engaged in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry.

Guaranteed weekly remuneration

4.—(1) This paragraph applies to a regular worker (as defined in paragraph 29) in respect of any week in which he has performed some road haulage work for the employer.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the other paragraphs of this Schedule, where in respect of any such week the remuneration payable to the worker for time worked or deemed to have been worked (excluding overtime, and special payments as defined in sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph) is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, be the guaranteed weekly remuneration, with the addition of any amount which may be payable in respect of overtime and by way of special payments.

(3) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is 44 hours' pay calculated as follows:—

(a) for the hours worked (including hours deemed to have been worked but excluding overtime and special payments) at the rate or rates appropriate to such work ;

(b) for the remaining hours (except hours during which the worker was suspended from work following the expiry of any notice given to him in the manner and circumstances stated in (i) to (iii) below and except hours during which he was absent from work without leave of the employer or on account of sickness) at the time rate normally applicable to him.

(i) Flood, snow, ice or other climatic conditions of such a nature as to preclude the operation of the vehicle, provided that not less than 24 hours' notice of the suspension of work shall be given individually to the worker and by the posting of a notice in the depot or other mutually convenient place;

(ii) where the employer is unable to carry on his business by reason of a strike or lock-out, provided that not less than 4 days' notice of such inability is given to the worker;

(iii) where the employer is unable to operate a vehicle or vehicles owing to the restriction of his fuel supply under any enactment or regulation made thereunder, provided that not less than 24 hours' notice of such inability is given to the worker or workers concerned.

Provided that the foregoing notices shall not be given when the worker is away from his home depot, and the suspension shall not operate until the required notice has been given to the worker on his return to his home depot.

(4) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph:—

(a) in addition to any time deemed to have been worked under the other provisions of this Schedule a worker shall be deemed to have worked on any day allowed to him as a customary holiday or an annual holiday the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week; and (except in cases where time is deemed to have been worked pursuant to the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 16 or sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 17 of this Schedule) a worker who is required to work on a day of customary holiday for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week shall be deemed to have worked the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

(b) "Special payments" means any sum payable to the worker under the following provisions of this Schedule—

(i) Paragraph 2 (Additional payment for night work).

(ii) Paragraph 10 (Payment for telephoning for instructions while off duty).

(iii) Paragraph 11 (Subsistence allowance other than payments for hours during which the worker is deemed to be on duty).

(iv) Paragraph 16 (a) and 17 (a) (Sums payable under provisos (i), (ii) and (iii) of paragraph 16 (a) or under provisos (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph 17 (a) in respect of customary holidays occurring on the worker's weekly half holiday or, in the case of a five-day worker, on a Saturday, or in the case of a milk worker on the worker's normal day of rest).

5. The provisions of paragraph 4 shall not apply to a worker whose normal employment in the service of the employer substantially includes other work as well as road haulage work. Such a worker shall be paid in respect of the road haulage work at the appropriate rate for the time actually spent on such work.

A worker not normally a road haulage worker, but who occasionally performs road haulage work, shall be paid the rates of wages appropriate to a road haulage worker for the time actually spent on such work.

Computation of hours of work

6. The following provisions shall apply to regular workers to whom the guaranteed weekly remuneration provisions apply:—

(a) Regular workers other than milk workers—

(i) a five-day worker who works on any day other than Saturday or Sunday shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 23 and the proviso to paragraph 35 (a) (ii), be deemed to have worked for 9 hours on any day Monday to Thursday and for 8 hours on Friday notwithstanding that he was employed for less than 9 or 8 hours respectively;

(ii) a six-day worker who works on any day other than Sunday shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 23, be deemed to have worked for 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday and for 4 hours on Saturday notwithstanding that he was employed for less than 8 or 4 hours respectively.

(b) Milk workers—

A milk worker who works on any day shall be deemed to have worked for seven hours twenty minutes notwithstanding that he was employed for less than seven hours twenty minutes.

Provided that a worker who is instructed to report for duty and presents himself for duty but does not commence work shall be deemed to have commenced work.

Workers other than regular workers—Guaranteed day for, and remuneration

7. Subject to the provisions relating to customary holidays, a worker other than a regular worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for 8 hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, by him on any day Monday to Friday, and not less than the wages due for 4 hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, by him on Saturday.

Provided that—

(a) where a spell of duty commences before midnight and continues thereafter, a worker shall not be entitled, by that fact alone, to two guaranteed payments in respect of that spell of duty,

(b) a worker who is engaged for a day of not less than 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday, or for not less than 4 hours on Saturday, for work other than road haulage work, but who may perform some road haulage work, shall be paid for the time actually spent on road haulage work at the hourly rate or rates, calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 8, applicable to a worker other than a regular worker, and

(c) a worker who is instructed to report for duty, and presents himself for duty but does not commence work, shall be deemed to have commenced work.

Subject to the provisions relating to overtime, a worker other than a regular worker shall, when the number of hours worked, or payable under the guarantee provided in this paragraph, is 8 on any day Monday to Friday, or 4 on Saturday, be paid the wages applicable to a regular worker for 8 hours or 4 hours as the case may be, plus 1s.

In all other circumstances, he shall be paid at an hourly rate, which is 1½d. per hour above the hourly rate applicable to a regular worker.

The provisions of this paragraph are subject to the provisions of paragraph 23.

Hourly rate

8. For the purpose of calculating the hourly rates of regular workers, the rates of wages specified in paragraph 1 shall be divided by 44.

The hourly rate of a worker other than a regular worker shall be that applicable to a regular worker, plus 1½d.

Travelling

9. When a worker is required to travel in, or on, or to accompany a vehicle for the purpose of doing road haulage work he shall, in determining the wages payable, be deemed to be engaged on the road haulage work usually performed by him.

Telephoning for instructions while off duty

10.—(a) If a worker during the period between two spells of duty is required to telephone for instructions he shall be paid the wages due for one hour. Provided that this provision shall not apply when the telephone call is made immediately following a spell of duty.

(b) On each subsequent occasion, during the same period between two spells of duty, on which the worker is required to telephone for instructions he shall be paid the wages due for four hours. Provided that if when telephoning on any such occasion the worker is instructed to commence work within one hour of so telephoning, he shall be paid for one hour instead of the said four hours.

(c) The payments to be made under sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph shall be at the rate normally applicable to the worker and shall be in addition to the weekly wages otherwise due to him.

Subsistence

11.—(a) When a worker's period of rest occurs away from his home depot he shall be paid 12s. 6d. in respect of each period of rest not exceeding 15 hours' continuous duration. When any such period of rest exceeds 15 hours the worker shall be deemed to be on duty and shall be entitled to be paid (in addition to the 12s. 6d.) at the time rate which would be payable if he were actually at work for the period he is resting in excess of 15 hours but not in excess of 24 hours or 23 hours according to whether he is a five- or a six-day worker. If the period of rest exceeds 24 or 23 hours, as the case may be, these arrangements will continue to apply until the worker resumes actual duty.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph the following provisions shall apply in the case of a worker who is temporarily transferred away from his normal home depot and stationed in another locality (beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home) for more than one week:—

(i) After payment in respect of the first week in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph a worker shall, in respect of the second and subsequent weeks, be paid a weekly subsistence allowance of 56s. 0d. (i.e., 8s. 0d. per day);

(ii) if a worker already on temporary transfer is temporarily transferred to another new station beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home he shall (after payment in respect of the first week at such other new station in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph) be paid, in respect of the second and subsequent weeks, a weekly subsistence allowance of 56s. 0d. (i.e., 8s. 0d. per day);

(iii) For any period of rest occurring away from a new station and from his home, he shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph and, in respect of any day for which payment is made to the worker under the provisions of that sub-paragraph, the subsistence allowances of 8s. 0d. per day (specified in (i) and (ii) above) shall be reduced to 5s. 6d. per day.

Overtime

12. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 23 and 35 the following shall be regarded as overtime:—

(a) Regular workers other than milk workers—

(i) Time worked in excess of 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday in the case of a six-day worker and (subject to the proviso to paragraph 35 (a) (ii)) in excess of 9 hours on any day Monday to Thursday and 8 hours on Friday in the case of a five-day worker.

(ii) Time worked on Saturday as follows:—

in the case of a six-day worker in excess of 4 hours, provided that all time worked after 12.30 p.m. by a worker other than a film transport worker shall be regarded as overtime; in the case of a five-day worker, all time worked, provided that a five-day worker who works for less than 4 hours shall be deemed to have worked for 4 hours.

(b) Milk workers—

Time worked in excess of seven hours twenty minutes on any day other than the worker's normal day of rest, and all time worked on the worker's normal day of rest.

(c) Workers other than regular workers—

Time worked in excess of 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday and in excess of 4 hours on Saturday.

(d) All workers other than milk workers—

Time worked on Sunday.

A worker who works for less than 5½ hours on Sunday shall be deemed to have worked for 5½ hours. Provided that a worker whose hours entail a spell of duty commencing on Saturday and finishing on Sunday before 5.30 a.m. or commencing on Sunday after 6.30 p.m. and finishing on Monday, shall not, unless the Sunday duty is less than 3 hours, be deemed to have worked on Sunday in excess of the hours actually worked. If the Sunday duty is less than 3 hours he shall be deemed to have worked 3 hours on Sunday. Provided also that a worker commencing work on Saturday who finishes work between midnight and 1 a.m. on Sunday shall be deemed to have worked one hour on Sunday.

(e) (i) In determining the time to be regarded as overtime, time worked shall include time deemed to have been worked under the provisions of paragraphs 6, 11 and 12 (d).

(ii) Time worked (or deemed to have been worked) on a day of customary holiday in the circumstances set out in sub-paragraph 16 (c) or sub-paragraph 17 (c) shall not be included in the calculation of overtime.

Payment for Overtime

13. Regular workers—

(a) Workers other than milk workers—
For the first six hours of overtime in any week (exclusive of Sunday)	Time-and-a-quarter.
After the first six hours of overtime in any week (exclusive of Sunday)	Time-and-a-half.
On Sunday	Double time.
(b) Milk workers—
In any week exclusive of the worker's normal day of rest and of Sunday not being the worker's normal day of rest—
For the first six hours of overtime ...	Time-and-a-quarter.
For all time worked in excess of six hours of overtime	Time-and-a-half.
On Sunday not being the worker's normal day of rest—
For all time worked in excess of seven hours twenty minutes	Double time.
On the worker's normal day of rest—
For any time worked not exceeding seven hours twenty minutes	Double time for seven hours twenty minutes.
For all time worked in excess of seven hours twenty minutes	Double time.

14. Workers other than regular workers:—

On any day (other than Sunday)	Time-and-a-quarter.
On Sunday	Double time.

Overtime—Definition of a day when night work is involved

15. When a worker's hours of duty or any part thereof entail employment between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m., a day shall, for the purpose of sub-paragraph 12 (a), sub-paragraph 12 (b) and sub-paragraph 12 (c) be deemed to be any period of 24 hours commencing at 12 noon.

Customary holidays—England and Wales

16.—(a) An employer in England and Wales shall, except as provided below, allow the following days as holidays to regular workers to whom paragraph 1 applies and who were in his employment on the day immediately prior to the day of holiday:—Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such weekday as may be prescribed by national proclamation, or the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, August Bank Holiday and all nationally proclaimed holidays. Where in any place it is not the custom or practice to observe such days as holidays, other days (not fewer in number) may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be substituted for the above-mentioned days. Each such day (i.e., one of the days specified above or a day substituted therefor—hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as a "customary holiday") taken as a holiday shall be paid for on the basis of the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week at the time rate normally applicable to the worker.

Provided that—

(i) in addition to the foregoing, in the case of a six-day worker, other than a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's weekly half holiday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 4 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(ii) in the case of a five-day worker, where the customary holiday falls on a Saturday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(iii) in the case of a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's normal day of rest he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

Where by reason of the necessity of maintaining essential services the allowing of a customary holiday is rendered impracticable, a worker may be required to work on a day specified above as a day of customary holiday (except where such requirement would be illegal in relation to women and young persons) and if so required shall be paid for all time worked thereon at double the rate otherwise appropriate to such work, and notwithstanding that he may work for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week he shall except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph be paid not less than the wages due for twice the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

Provided that a milk worker shall receive not less than the wages due for 16 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

(b) A worker, other than a regular worker, who is employed on a customary holiday shall be paid for such work at double the rate otherwise appropriate thereto, and, notwithstanding that he may work for less than 8 hours on any such day, he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph, be paid not less than twice the amount due, under the provisions of paragraph 7, for a guaranteed day of 8 hours.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, a worker whether a regular worker or otherwise, who is employed on a customary holiday for not more than three hours during a spell of duty commencing on the day before that holiday and finishing on the holiday or commencing on the holiday and finishing on the following day and whose hours of employment on the holiday are up to one hour, over one hour but not over two hours, or over two hours but not over three hours, shall be paid for one hour or two hours or three hours as the case may be at double the rate appropriate to the work; and, for the purpose of paragraph 4, a regular worker shall be deemed to have worked for two hours, four hours or six hours as the case may be. In addition, a regular worker shall be paid in respect of the customary holiday on the basis of the remuneration due for a day of customary holiday under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

Customary holidays—Scotland

17.—(a) An employer in Scotland shall, except as provided below, allow the following days as holidays to regular workers to whom paragraph 1 applies and who were in his employment on the day immediately prior to the day of holiday:—

(i) New Year's day (or the following day if New Year's day falls on a Sunday), the local Spring Holiday, the local Autumn Holiday, and all nationally proclaimed holidays.

(ii) Three other days in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the workers not less than 21 days before the holiday.

(iii) Where in any place it is not the custom or practice to observe the days mentioned in (i) above as holidays, other days (not fewer in number) may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be substituted for the above-mentioned days.

Each such day of holiday (i.e., one of the days specified above or a day substituted therefor—hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as a "customary holiday") shall be paid for on the basis of the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week at the time rate normally applicable to the worker.

Provided that—

(1) in addition to the foregoing, in the case of a six-day worker other than a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's weekly half holiday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 4 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(2) in the case of a five-day worker, where the customary holiday falls on a Saturday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(3) in the case of a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's normal day of rest he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

Where by reason of the necessity of maintaining essential services the allowing of the customary holiday is rendered impracticable, a worker may be required to commence work on a day mentioned in (i) above as a day of customary holiday (except where such a requirement would be illegal in relation to women and young persons) and if so required shall be paid for all time worked thereon at double the rate otherwise appropriate to such work and notwithstanding that he may work for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph, be paid not less than the wages due for twice the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

Provided that a milk worker shall receive not less than the wages due for 16 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

A worker may be required to commence work on any of the days mentioned in (ii) above, provided that if so required he shall be paid at the rate appropriate to such work and notwithstanding that he may work for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week a worker other than a milk worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week, and a milk worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for 8 hours' work. The worker shall also be allowed another day of holiday in lieu.

(b) A worker other than a regular worker who is employed on any of the days mentioned in (i) of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall be paid for such work at double the rate otherwise appropriate thereto and, notwithstanding that he may work for less than 8 hours on any such day, he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph be paid not less than twice the amount due, under the provisions of paragraph 7, for a guaranteed day of 8 hours.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, the following provisions shall apply to a worker who is employed on any customary holiday indicated below for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the day before the holiday and finishing on the holiday or commencing on the holiday and finishing on the following day:—

(i) A regular worker employed on any customary holiday mentioned in (i) or (iii) of sub-paragraph (a) above shall in addition to the payments provided in sub-paragraph (iii) below receive payment in respect of the holiday on the basis of the wages due for a day of customary holiday under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

(ii) A regular worker employed on any customary holiday mentioned in (ii) of sub-paragraph (a) above shall be paid in accordance with sub-paragraph (iii) below and shall also be allowed another day of holiday in lieu for which he shall receive payment on the basis of the wages due for a day of customary holiday under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

(iii) A worker, whether a regular worker or otherwise, whose hours entail a spell of duty commencing on the day before any customary holiday mentioned in (i), (ii) or (iii) of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph and finishing on any such holiday or commencing on any such holiday and finishing on the following day and whose hours of employment on the customary holiday are up to 1 hour, over 1 hour but not over 2 hours, or over 2 hours but not over 3 hours, shall be paid for 1 hour or 2 hours or 3 hours as the case may be at double the rate appropriate to the work; and, for the purpose of paragraph 4, a regular worker shall be deemed to have worked for 2 hours, 4 hours or 6 hours as the case may be.

Annual holidays and holiday remuneration

18.—(a) In addition to the holidays provided for in paragraphs 16 and 17 (and subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph) an employer shall between 1st April and 31st October in each year (hereinafter referred to as the "holiday season") allow a holiday with pay (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker for whom a statutory rate of remuneration has been fixed under paragraph 1 or paragraph 7 and who was during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season (hereinafter referred to as the "qualifying period") in his employment for any of the periods of employment specified below; and the duration of a worker's annual holiday shall be related to the period of his employment during the qualifying period as follows:—

Six-day workers		Five-day workers
Period of employment	Duration of annual holiday	Period of employment	Duration of annual holiday
At least 48 weeks ...	12 days	At least 48 weeks ...	10 days
„ 44 „ ...	11 „	„ 43 „ ...	9 „
„ 40 „ ...	10 „	„ 38 „ ...	8 „
„ 36 „ ...	9 „	„ 33 „ ...	7 „
„ 32 „ ...	8 „	„ 28 „ ...	6 „
„ 28 „ ...	7 „	„ 24 „ ...	5 „
„ 24 „ ...	6 „	„ 19 „ ...	4 „
„ 20 „ ...	5 „	„ 14 „ ...	3 „
„ 16 „ ...	4 „	„ 9 „ ...	2 „
„ 12 „ ...	3 „	„ 4 „ ...	1 day
„ 8 „ ...	2 „
„ 4 „ ...	1 day

(b) For the purpose of calculating a period of employment in respect of annual holidays and accrued holiday remuneration "employment" means employment on road haulage work specified in paragraphs 36 and 37 and also employment partly on that work and partly on work other than such road haulage work, and a worker shall be treated as in the employment of the employer when absent from work in any of the following circumstances:—

(i) absences of the worker arising from suspension in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) (b) of paragraph 4;

(ii) absences of the worker owing to proved illness or accident up to but not exceeding 16 weeks in the aggregate during the qualifying period;

(iii) suspension from employment owing to shortage of work or mechanical breakdown up to but not exceeding 16 weeks in the aggregate during the qualifying period;

(iv) absences of the worker arising from the allowance of holidays provided for in paragraph 16 or paragraph 17 and annual holidays allowed under the provisions of this paragraph ;

(v) other absences with reasonable cause during the qualifying period ;

(vi) absence for not more than 7 days during the qualifying period for reasons other than those specified in (i) to (v) above.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, a worker who has been absent for more than 7 days during the qualifying period for reasons other than those specified in (i) to (v) of sub-paragraph (b) shall not be entitled to any annual holiday in respect of such period.

19.—(a) In respect of annual holidays allowed under paragraph 18, holiday remuneration shall be paid as follows:—

Period of annual holiday Column 1	Holiday remuneration for—		Column 4
	Six-day workers Column 2	Five-day workers Column 3
12 days ...	Twice the amount in Col. 4	—	The amount which the worker would be entitled to receive from his employer at the date of the annual holiday for 44 hours' work (exclusive of overtime) at the time rate normally applicable to him under this Schedule.

1 day ...	One-sixth of the amount in Col. 4.	One-fifth of the amount in Col. 4.

(b) Holiday remuneration shall be paid on the last pay day preceding the annual holiday. Provided that where in accordance with the proviso to paragraph 22 (a) an annual holiday is allowed in two or three periods the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

20. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker under paragraph 21 (a) in respect of any period of employment in the qualifying period preceding the holiday season current when the annual holiday is allowed, the amount to be paid in respect of the period of such holiday is the appropriate amount payable under paragraph 19 less the accrued holiday remuneration previously paid as aforesaid.

21.—(a) When a worker ceases to be employed, accrued holiday remuneration shall, immediately on the termination of the employment, be paid to him by his employer in accordance with the next following sub-paragraph for periods of employment in respect of which he has not been allowed or has not become entitled to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule.

Provided that (i) where a worker ceases to be employed after being allowed a part of the annual holiday for which he has qualified by reason of his employment during any of the periods of twelve months referred to in the next following sub-paragraph but before being allowed the rest of the annual holiday for which he has so qualified, the accrued holiday remuneration payable to him in respect of his employment during the said period of twelve months shall be reduced by the amount of holiday remuneration received by him in respect of the part of the annual holiday he has been allowed.

(ii) the amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable in respect of any period of employment shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration in respect of that period made by the employer to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.H. (30) as amended by Order R.H. (32) and Order R.H. (38).

(b) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, during the period of 12 months commencing on 1st April, 1951, and thereafter during each successive period of twelve months commencing on 1st April, accrued holiday remuneration shall be payable as follows:—

(c) Accrued holiday remuneration shall not be payable to a worker in respect of a qualifying period during which he was absent for more than 7 days for reasons other than those specified in (i) to (v) of paragraph 18 (b).

22.—(a) Annual holidays under paragraph 18 shall be allowed on consecutive working days being days upon which the worker is normally called upon to work, and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a Sunday or any of the holidays allowed under paragraph 16 or paragraph 17 intervenes. Provided that where the duration of an annual holiday for which a worker is qualified exceeds the period of his normal working week, the holiday may, at the written request of the worker and with the agreement of the employer, be allowed in two or three periods, one of which shall be not less than the period of his normal working week.

(b) An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to a worker or by the posting of a notice in the worker's home depot.

Alternative weekly half holiday

23. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 4, 6, 7, 12 and 35 where it is the established practice of any section of the industry to allow as the weekly half holiday a specific day other than Saturday, such other specific day may in the case of a six-day worker be substituted as the weekly half holiday for the purpose of such provisions. In any case in which such substitution is made the above-mentioned provisions shall apply in like manner as if in such provisions such specific half holiday were substituted for "Saturday" and "Saturday" for such specific half holiday. Provided that the half holiday substituted for Saturday shall not be a Sunday.

Meal times

24. The hours of work specified are, except for the purpose of paragraph 11, exclusive of meal times.

Part II

DEFINITIONS

Carrying capacity

25.—(a) The carrying capacity of a vehicle is the weight of the maximum load normally carried by the vehicle, and such carrying capacity when so established shall not be affected either by variations in the weight of the load resulting from collections or deliveries or emptying of containers during the course of the journey, or by the fact that on any particular journey a load greater or less than the established carrying capacity is carried.

(b) Where a trailer is attached to the vehicle, the load shall be the loads of the vehicle and trailer combined.

Long distance services

26. A long distance service is a journey involving a road mileage of more than 70 miles from the worker's home depot, other than a home depot within the London Area, and other than a journey from which the worker returns to his home depot within 11 hours excluding rest periods.

Overtime expressions

27. The expressions time-and-a-quarter, time-and-a-half and double time mean respectively one and a quarter times, one and a half times and twice the rate of wages otherwise applicable.

Vehicle

28. Vehicle means a mechanically driven goods vehicle.

Regular worker

29. A regular worker is a worker employed by the week or longer period.

Driver

30. A driver is a worker employed in driving a vehicle and in performing when so required any other road haulage work.

Foremen and removal packers in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry

31.—(a) A foreman in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry is a worker who has charge of a removal and who has authority to issue instructions to two or more persons.

(b) A removal packer in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry is a skilled worker who packs china and other articles.

Heavy brakesman and steersman

32. A heavy brakesman and steersman is a person operating the steering and braking equipment of a heavy trailer used for the carriage of abnormal indivisible loads.

Film Transport Worker

33. A film transport worker is a worker engaged exclusively in the collection and delivery of films for the cinematograph industry, provided that a worker shall not cease to be a film transport worker solely by reason of the fact that he collects from and delivers to cinemas cinematograph accessories and equipment which are carried at the same time as the films are normally carried.

Milk worker

34. A milk worker is a regular worker who is employed on six days a week and who is exclusively engaged in the collection of milk from farms and its delivery to dairies.

Provided that a worker shall not cease to be a milk worker solely by reason of the fact that, exceptionally, he is required to work on the duties specified above on the remaining day of the week.

Ordinary working hours

35. The expression " number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week " means—

(a) in the case of a regular worker other than a milk worker—

(i) in respect of a six-day worker, 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday and (subject to the provisions of paragraph 23), 4 hours on Saturday;

(ii) in respect of a five-day worker, 9 hours on any day Monday to Thursday and 8 hours on Friday.

Provided that 9 hours may be substituted for 8 hours on Friday and 8 hours substituted for 9 hours on any specific day Monday to Thursday.

(b) in the case of a milk worker, seven hours twenty minutes.

PART III

APPLICABILITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SCHEDULE

36. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and to the provisions of paragraph 39 hereof, this Schedule applies to road haulage workers in respect of road haulage work performed in connection with any motor goods vehicle (including a trailer) specified or deemed to be specified in an " A " licence or a " B " licence granted under the Road and Rail Traffic Act, 1933(a).

Provided that the remuneration specified in this Schedule shall not apply to the following classes of road haulage work, namely, the employment of contractors' men on vehicles hired on a 24-hour stand-by basis by the Admiralty, the Secretary of State for War or the Secretary of State for Air in connection with manoeuvres, exercises, training or active service.

(a) 23 & 24 Geo. 5. c. 53.

37. A person is a road haulage worker and is deemed to be employed on road haulage work if he is employed on all or any of the work described in (i) to (v) below or if his time is occupied as specified in (vi) to (ix) below, that is to say:—

(i) driving or assisting in the driving or control of the vehicle;

(ii) collecting or loading goods to be carried in or on the vehicle;

(iii) attending to goods while so carried;

(iv) unloading or delivering goods after being so carried;

(v) acting as attendant to the vehicle;

and who is required to travel on or to accompany the vehicle for the purpose of doing any such work;

(vi) in doing any work incidental to his employment in work mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) to (v) hereof;

(vii) in travelling in or on or accompanying a goods vehicle in connection with his employment in the work so mentioned;

(viii) in holding himself under the orders or at the disposal of his employer while waiting in connection with his employment in the work so mentioned;

(ix) in waiting (whether overnight or otherwise) in accordance with the instructions of his employer as a necessary consequence of his employment in any of the work so mentioned;

provided that a person employed in loading goods to be carried in or on a goods vehicle or in unloading goods after being so carried and required to travel on or to accompany the vehicle partly for that purpose, shall not be deemed to be a road haulage worker by reason only of that employment, if the main purpose for which he is required to travel on or to accompany the vehicle is that of executing work other than road haulage work after its arrival at his destination.

38. For the purposes of this Schedule road haulage work includes road haulage work performed by a road haulage worker employed by a person carrying on the business of a goods transport clearing house, i.e., the business of arranging for the mechanical transport of goods by road.

39. This Schedule does not apply to workers:—

(a) for whom or in respect of whose work a minimum rate of wages is, for the time being, fixed by or under any other enactment; or

(b) for whom minimum remuneration has been fixed pursuant to proposals of any other Wages Council established under the Wages Councils Acts, 1945 to 1948; or

(c) who are employed by any railway company constituted under the Railways Act, 1921, whose remuneration falls to be determined by machinery established by agreement between such companies and the railway Trade Unions, viz., the National Union of Railwaymen, the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen and the Railway Clerks' Association.

Part IV

GRADING—APPLICABILITY OF SCALES OF REMUNERATION

40. Unless otherwise provided in this Schedule, the scale of remuneration applicable shall be that appropriate, according to the grading set out below, to the locality in which the worker's home depot is situated. The localities named below are, unless the context otherwise requires, those defined for local government purposes as at 1st July, 1939.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable and the holidays to be allowed as from the 18th April, 1952, in substitution for the minimum remuneration fixed by and the holidays to be allowed under the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (No. 2) Order, 1949 (Order R.H. (30)), as amended by the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (No. 3) Order, 1949 (Order R.H. (32)) and the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1951 (Order R.H. (38)), which are revoked.

New provisions in the Schedule are printed in italics.

1952 No. 1385

The Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1952

Made - - - -	24th July, 1952
Coming into Operation	15th August, 1952

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Road Haulage Wages Council the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), and of all other powers in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Road Haulage Wages Council Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1952.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 15th day of August, 1952, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 24th day of July, 1952.

Godfrey H. Ince,
Secretary,
Ministry of Labour and National Service.
