EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which comes into operation on 17th August, 1965, amends the Brush and Broom Wages Regulation Order (Northern Ireland) 1964 (Order N.I.B.B. (91)), by increasing the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by that Order, and by reducing the normal working week from one of 42 hours to one of 41 hours.

New provisions in the Schedule are printed in italics.

As this Order has been classified as local it is not printed at length in this volume. A summary is given in the List of Statutory Rules and Orders of a Local Character under the heading ROADS.

1965. No. 166 [C]

ROYAL ULSTER CONSTABULARY

Pay

ORDER, DATED 9TH AUGUST, 1965, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE CONSTABULARY AND POLICE (IRELAND) ACT 1919(a) AND SECTION 2 OF THE CONSTABULARY ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND) 1922(b).

I, the Right Honourable Robert William Brian McConnell, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 4 of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act 1919 and section 2 of the Constabulary Act (Northern Ireland) 1922 and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pay Order 1965.

Definitions

2. In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:

"The Force" means the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

"Member" means a member of the Force.

"Ministry" means the Ministry of Home Affairs.

"Inspector General" means the Inspector General of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 68. (b) 12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 8 (N.I.).

Revocation

3. The Royal Ulster Constabulary Pay Order 1963(a) is hereby revoked.

Pay

4.—(1) Subject to the conditions governing the management and control of the Force and to paragraph (2), the pay of members of the several ranks mentioned in the Schedule in this Order shall be in accordance with the rates, scales and conditions prescribed in that Schedule and shall apply in the case of Part I for the period set out therein and in the case of Parts II, III and IV from the dates set out therein.

(2) On and after 1st December, 1964, the rate of pay of a constable who has attained the age of 22 years and whose period of service in that rank, reckonable for the purposes of pay—

(a) begins on or after that date and after he has attained that age; or

(b) includes 30th November 1964, shall be in accordance with whichever of the scales of pay set out in Parts III and IV of the Schedule hereto is, for the time being, the more favourable in his case.

5.—(1) For the purposes of entry into the scale for District Inspector, those Officers who were formerly cadets in the Force shall be deemed to have entered at the minimum of the scale on completion of two years' service in the rank of District Inspector.

(2) Progression in the scale for District Inspector shall be subject to efficiency bars at the first, fifth and eighth increments, that is to say, an Officer shall not proceed beyond the said increments unless on each occasion respectively the Inspector General is satisfied that he has been zealous and efficient in the discharge of his duties.

6. In determining the point at which an existing member shall enter the scale of pay prescribed for his rank credit shall be given to him for past service in that rank since his latest promotion thereto by reckoning it for purposes of increment.

7.—(1) Where a person who has previously been a member rejoins the Force, he shall be credited, for the purposes of pay, with the period which at the termination of his previous service had been credited to him for such purposes.

(2) Where, within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders 1949 to 1965, a regular policeman in Great Britain has been transferred to the Force he shall be credited, for the purposes of pay in the rank in which he joins the Force, with all service in the corresponding rank which at the date of the transfer he was entitled to reckon for purposes of pay in the force from which he has been transferred.

(3) Where a person who has been a regular policeman in Great Britain within the meaning of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders 1949 to 1965 joins the Force other than on transfer he shall be credited, for the purposes of pay, with his period of service in the force in Great Britain.

(a) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1963, No. 137.

8. Where a person joins the Force who has within the previous three years been a mobilised member of the Ulster Special Constabulary, he shall be credited, for the purposes of pay, with the period which at the termination of his mobilised service in the Ulster Special Constabulary had been credited to him for such purposes.

9. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2 of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act 1883(a) no deduction in respect of station accommodation shall be made from a member's pay.

10. There may be deducted from a member's pay the amount of any sickness benefit under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1946(b) to which he was or may be entitled, or any injury benefit under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1946(c) to which he was or may be entitled.

11. This Order shall not apply to any woman appointed as a member of the Force.

And I certify that section 4(2) of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act 1919, which provides that a draft of any Order proposed to be made under the said section shall be submitted to the representative body or bodies constituted by the Act and representing any rank or ranks affected and that before making the Order the Minister shall consider any representations made by such body or bodies, has been fully observed.

Dated this 9th day of August, 1965.

R. W. B. McConnell,
Minister of Home Affairs
for Northern Ireland.

I, the Right Honourable Herbert V. Kirk, Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, hereby signify my concurrence in the foregoing Order.

Dated this 11th day of August, 1965.

H. V. Kirk,
Minister of Finance
for Northern Ireland.
