CHAP. 33.

An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Export of unseasonable Salmon. [1st August 1870.]

WHEREAS by the third section of "The Salmon Acts Amendment Act, 1863," it is amongst other things provided that "the burden of proving that any salmon "entered for exportation from any part of the United Kingdom to parts beyond the seas "between the third day of September and the second day of February following is not "so entered in contravention of the said Act shall lie on the person entering the same for "exportation:"

And whereas it is expedient to make further provision for preventing the exportation of salmon that cannot legally be sold within the limits of the United Kingdom:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Salmon Acts Amendment Act, 1870."

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall not come into operation before the third day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy, which day is herein-after referred to as "the commencement of this Act."

Amendment of sect. 3. of 26 Vict. c. 10.

3. From and after the commencement of this Act the said third section of "The Salmon Acts Amendment Act, 1863," shall be read and construed as if the words "second day of February" were omitted therefrom and the words "thirtieth day of April" were inserted instead of the said omitted words.

Amendment of sect. 65. of 28 & 29 Vict. c. 121.

4. The sixty-fifth section of "The Salmon Fishery Act, 1865," shall be read and construed as if the words "second day of February" were omitted therefrom and the words "thirtieth day of April" were inserted instead of the said omitted words.

CHAP. 34.

An Act to amend the Law as to the Investment on Real Securities of Trust Funds held for public and charitable purposes. [1st August 1870.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the investment on real securities of trust funds held for public and charitable purposes:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Corporations and trustees holding money in trust for any public or charitable purpose may invest the same in real securities.

1. It shall be lawful for all corporations and trustees in the United Kingdom holding moneys in trust for any public or charitable purpose to invest such moneys on any real security authorised by or consistent with the trusts on which such moneys are held, without being deemed thereby to have acquired or become possessed of any land within the meaning of the laws relating to mortmain, or of any prohibition or restraint against the holding of land by such corporations or trustees contained in any charter or Act of Parliament; and no contract for or conveyance of any interest in land made bonâ fide for the purpose only of such security shall be deemed void by reason of any non-compliance with the conditions and solemnities required by an Act passed in the ninth year of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to restrain the disposition of lands "whereby the same become unalienable."
