(3) Where in pursuance of paragraph (1) of this regulation the Minister appoints a person other than the former stockholders' representative the latter shall for the purposes of paragraph (6) of regulation four be deemed to have been removed from his office."

2. These regulations shall come into operation on the first day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-four, and may be cited as the Gas (Stockholders' Representative) (Amendment) Regulations, 1954.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Regulation 17 of the Gas (Stockholders' Representative) Regulations, 1948, provides for the calling by the stockholders' representative of a meeting of the holders of securities, at the conclusion of which the stockholders' representative shall stand discharged as therein provided.

It appears, as a result of certain legal proceedings, that in some cases holders of securities may be entitled to the distribution of further sums and, where a meeting under Regulation 17 has been concluded, doubt has arisen as to the status of the stockholders' representative in relation to such sums.

These amending regulations enable the Minister of Fuel and Power to re-appoint such stockholders' representative or to appoint another person as stockholders' representative in his place.

table may be cancelled, the table shall be cancelled without prejudice to the framing of another table in lieu of the table so cancelled;

And Whereas by subsection (3) of the said section 53 it is enacted that after the expiration of the said thirty days, the Treasury may cause the table, if not so cancelled, to be published in the London Gazette, and the table shall come into operation on the day on which it is so published or such later day as may be fixed by the Treasury:

FIRST SCHEDULE

STATEMENT OF THE RULES OBSERVED IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE TABLES FOR THE GRANT OF LIFE ANNUITIES UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT ANNUITIES ACT, 1929. PART II.

The Tables are based on an investigation into the mortality of Government Annuitants which is described in detail in a report to the Treasury by the Government Actuary and the Actuary to the National Debt Commissioners dated 24th May, 1954, and published as a Stationery Office publication. The investigation showed not only that the mortality of Government Annuitants is now considerably lighter than that experienced in the period 1900–20 on which the tables hitherto in use were based but also that the allowance made in those tables for a prospective further decline in mortality is no longer adequate. It has therefore been necessary to make such additions to the net annuity values as in the opinion of the Actuaries are needed to secure that, as required by Section 53 of the Act, the grant of annuities shall not cause any loss to the Exchequer. The tables incorporate also an addition of £1 16s. per cent. of the net annuity value to provide for the expenses incurred by the National Debt Commissioners in connexion with the grant and payment of each annuity.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under the Government Annuities Act, 1929, Part II, the National Debt Commissioners may grant Immediate Life Annuities which are sold through the Post Office Savings Bank and Trustee Savings Banks and are known as Savings Bank annuities. The Act empowers the Treasury to approve tables for calculating the amounts of these annuities, framed in such a manner that the Exchequer suffers no loss.

This Order approves new tables designed to achieve this object, replacing those approved on 12th May, 1934.

The First Schedule to the Order contains the rules in accordance with which the tables have been constructed; the Second Schedule contains the tables. Under the Act the tables are required to lie before Parliament for thirty days before they can be brought into operation; if no address is presented to Her Majesty praying that the tables be cancelled, they will, at the conclusion of the thirty days, be published in the London Gazette, and come into operation on the day of publication.
