

ANNO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Vesting Funds in Trustees.

II. And be it enacted, That all Monies and Claims due and competent to and all Property vested in the Trustees under the Act hereby repealed, or in any Committee or Officer now or formerly acting under the said Act for their Behoof or for Behoof of the said Fund, shall immediately on the Commencement of this Act be vested in the Trustees for executing the same, or in the Committee or Officers herein-after appointed and authorized to that Effect; and such Trustees, Committee, and Officers may sue for and recover the same and act in respect thereof as herein-after directed, as effectually as if the same had been vested in them under the said recited Act, and they shall be liable to all the Debts and Engagements to which the said Trustees, Committee, or Officers of the said Fund under the said recited Act were liable.

Liabilities and Engagements.

Contributors to the Fund.

III. And be it enacted, That the following Persons shall in future be bound and entitled, from and after the Date of their respective Elections, to enter and become Contributors to the said Fund; viz. (1.) Every Person who shall be elected a Parochial Schoolmaster in Scotland by virtue of an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland in the Reign of King William the Third in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety-six, intituled Act for settling of Schools, or of an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for making better Provision for the Parochial Schoolmasters, and for making further Regulations for the better Government of the Parish Schools, in Scotland, or who shall be elected a Schoolmaster in Scotland in virtue of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Foundation and Endowment of additional Schools in Scotland, and who shall enter into Possession of any such Office under any of the said Acts, and of the Emoluments or any Part thereof; (2.) Every Person who shall be elected and enter into Possession of the Office and Emoluments of a Schoolmaster in any School established in or for any Burgh the Patronage whereof is or shall at the Time of his Appointment be vested solely in the Magistrates thereof, and the Amount of whose annual Salary payable by such Magistrates shall at the Time of his Appointment be not less than Ten Pounds: Provided always, that when Two or more Teachers shall be appointed to any Parish in Terms of the said recited Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third this Act shall apply to all such Schoolmasters; and provided further, that no Person elected to the Office of a Schoolmaster prior to the passing of this Act who shall not fall under one or other of the above Descriptions, unless he shall then be actually enrolled as a Contributor in the Books of the said Fund, and shall have paid at least One annual Contribution thereto, shall be bound or entitled to enter and become a Contributor to the said Fund; and that nothing herein contained shall apply to any Person appointed to the Situation of Assistant, or Assistant and Successor to a Schoolmaster, and who shall not be a principal Schoolmaster, falling under one or other of the above Descriptions, nor to any Person appointed to the Situation of a Teacher in any Hospital or private Endowment or Subscription School; and provided further, that no Person who at the Period of his his Election and entering into Possession of the Office and Emoluments of a Burgh Schoolmaster shall be disqualified from becoming a Contributor to the said Fund by reason of his annual Salary not amounting to Ten Pounds shall thereafter become bound or entitled to become a Contributor by reason of any Salary or additional Salary being attached to his Office, or by receiving any new Appointment to his said Office.

All the present Contributors to continue liable, though not comprehended in the foregoing Description.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Persons who at the passing of this Act shall have been elected as aforesaid, and are liable to contribute to the said Fund, and also all Persons who at the passing of this Act shall stand upon the List of Contributors to the said Fund, and shall have made any Payment thereto, although not falling under one or other of the foregoing Descriptions, shall continue Contributors to the said Fund, and be liable for their Rates and other Payments thereto, and to all Arrears thereof previously incurred, unless and until they shall cease to be Contributors as herein-after provided: Provided also, that if any of the present Contributors shall at the passing of this Act have lodged with the Cashier of the said Fund a Claim to be exempted in future from contributing thereto, every such Claim of Exemption shall be referred to Her Majesty's Solicitor General for Scotland for the Time being, as sole Arbiter or Referee for determining all such Claims of Exemption from future Payments; and it shall be lawful to such Solicitor General, on Petition by a Contributor so claiming Exemption, to order Service of such Petition on the said Cashier, and upon his Appearance, or in default thereof, to hear and determine the Matter of the said Petition, and whatever the said Arbiter shall decide therein shall be final and binding upon all Parties concerned; and that if any such Claims shall be sustained the Persons who shall be thereby exempted from future Contributions to the said Fund, and their Widows and Children, shall have no Claim to and shall not be paid any Annuity or any other Sum whatsoever out of the same, but any Contributor so exempted shall be bound to pay up all Arrears of Contributions and other Sums that would have been payable by him had he made no such Claim, to the Date when his Claim was lodged, with the Interest due thereon; and it shall be lawful to defray out of the said Fund any Expence incurred in any such Reference to the Solicitor General as aforesaid: Provided further, that all Persons elected Parochial Schoolmasters prior to the passing of this Act, and acting as such, (excepting such as were appointed prior to the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and did not accede to the said Fund,) shall be liable, from and after the Dates of their respective Elections, and so long as they continue de facto to hold the Office of Schoolmaster in virtue of such Election, to contribute to the said Fund, and their Widows and Children shall be entitled to the Benefits thereof, notwithstanding they shall not have laid the Minute of their Election before their respective Presbyteries, and been approved and confirmed by them.

Contributors divided into Five Classes.

V. And be it enacted, That the present Contributors, and all Persons who may at any Time hereafter become Contributors to the said Fund, shall be divided into Five Classes, according to the several Rates

Rates of Contribution herein-after specified, and to the Five several Rates of Annuities provided to their Widows or to their orphans Children; and every Person who shall after the passing of this Act be bound and entitled to enter and become a Contributor to the said Fund as aforesaid shall be held to accede to the Fund from the Date of his Election to the said Office, and shall be bound to contribute thereto from that Date, according to the annual Rate to which he shall choose to subject himself, and for that Purpose shall within Three Months (or, if the School be situated within the Western or Northern Isles, within Six Months) from the Date of his Election make choice of the Class to which he is to subject himself, by a Writing signed by him, addressed and transmitted by Post, together with an Extract of the Minute of his Election, to the Cashier of the Fund at his Office in Edinburgh; and in case any such Person shall fail so to make choice of the Class to which he means to subject himself, or to give such Notice and transmit such Extract as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be a Contributor in the Fourth Class, and shall be rated accordingly.

Every Contributor to notify Choice of Class within Three or Six Months; failing which, to be rated as a Contributor in the Fourth Class.

Ratification of the Classes of the present Contributors.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Classes according to which the present Contributors have hitherto paid annual and other Contributions to the said Fund, and to which they shall at the passing of this Act be respectively rated in the Books kept by the Cashier, shall be held to be the Classes to which they have respectively subjected themselves, notwithstanding any Error or Irregularity in the fixing thereof; and no Person shall have any Right to question the same upon any Ground whatever.

Annual Rates or Contributions in each Class.

VII. And be it enacted, That the annual Rate or Contribution to be paid by the Contributors on the First or highest Class shall be Five Pounds Five Shillings, on the Second Class Four Pounds Four Shillings, on the Third Class Three Pounds Three Shillings, on the Fourth Class Two Pounds Two Shillings, and on the Fifth Class One Pound One Shilling respectively.

Rules for first and future Payments under this Act, by the present Contributors.

VIII. And be it enacted, That all the annual Contributions shall be payable and paid for Behoof of the said Widows Fund during the Lives of the said Contributors, excepting as herein-after mentioned, and the first Payment thereof shall be payable by the present Contributors on the Twenty-fifth Day of July of this present Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and the next Payment on the Twenty-fifth Day of July thereafter, and every successive Payment shall be payable on the said Twenty-fifth Day of July in every ensuing Year during their Lives.

Tax on second and subsequent Marriages of present Contributors.

IX. And be it enacted, That every Contributor, married or unmarried at the passing of this Act, who may hereafter marry a second Time or oftener, shall pay in respect of every such Marriage, in Name of a Marriage Tax, a Sum equal to the annual Contribution for which he is liable in addition to and along with the annual Contribution payable on the Twenty-fifth Day of July next after such Marriage.

X. And

Rule for the first and future Payment of Rates by future Contributors.

X. And be it enacted, That the first of the said annual Contributions shall be payable and paid by all future Contributors, according to the Classes they may respectively select, or according to the Fourth Class as aforesaid, on the Twenty-fifth Day of July which shall first happen Three Months after they have become bound to contribute, and every future annual Contribution shall be payable on the Twenty-fifth Day of July in every ensuing Year during their Lives, excepting as herein-after mentioned.

Entry Money and Marriage Tax to be paid by future Contributors.

XI. And be it enacted, That every future Contributor, married or unmarried at the Time he becomes bound to contribute, shall pay a Sum equal to one or other of the annual Contributions aforesaid, according to the Class he may have selected, or failing such Selection the annual Contribution of the Fourth Class, in Name of Entry Money, in addition to the Contribution payable for the Year in which he shall first become a Contributor, which Entry Money shall be payable in addition to and shall be paid along with the first Year's annual Contribution; and if any future Contributor shall, after he becomes bound to contribute, become a Widower, and shall marry thereafter once or oftener, he shall pay in respect of every such after Marriage, in Name of Marriage Tax, a Sum equal to the annual Contribution for which he is liable, in addition to and along with the annual Contribution payable on the Twenty-fifth Day of July next after such Marriage.

Exemption in favour of Contributors who marry Annuitants.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Contributor shall, after becoming bound to contribute to the said Fund, marry the Widow of a former Contributor who shall at the Time of his Marriage with her be in the Receipt of any Annuity payable by this Act, he shall not be liable in any Marriage Tax in respect of such Marriage.

To whom Contributions to be paid.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all the Arrears due under the said first-recited Act, and the several Contributions herein-before made payable, shall be paid to the Collectors of the said Widows Fund for the Time being of the Presbyteries to which the Contributors by whom they are due respectively belong or in which they are resident, acting at the passing of this Act, and to be appointed in the Manner herein-after mentioned, or, failing the Appointment of such Collectors, to the Cashier, or to the Persons to be employed to do the Duty of Collectors, as herein-after provided, and to the Cashier at his Office in Edinburgh by such of the Contributors as reside out of Scotland; and if such Contributions or any of them be not paid previous to the second Saturday of August after the Day they respectively become due as aforesaid they shall bear Interest from the Day they so respectively become due until they are paid, and which Interest, as well as the original Contributions, and all Costs incurred in recovering the same, shall be levied and paid to the said Collectors, or to the Persons employed to do the Duty of Collector, or to the Cashier, respectively, without Abatement or Modification.

Indulgence to old and infirm Contributors.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Contributor who shall have contributed for the Space of Twenty-five Years shall be rendered incapable incapable of the Discharge of the Duties of his Profession by the Infirmities of Age or other natural Disability, it shall be lawful to the Collector of the Presbytery to which such Contributor shall belong or in which he is resident, with the Concurrence of a Majority of the Contributors within the said Presbytery, to relieve such Contributor from the Payment of any Portion not exceeding One Half of his future annual Contributions; but the Determination of Presbyteries in regard to every such Case shall always be subject to Review and Alteration by any subsequent General Meeting of the Trustees:

Proviso.

Provided always, that the Repeal of the said-recited Act shall not affect any Indulgence extended to old and infirm Members thereof under the same, unless the same shall be recalled or altered in virtue of this Act; and provided also, that no Contributor, although unable to perform the Duties of his Office, if he is in the Receipt of an Income arising from any Source whatever equal to Thirty Pounds per Annum, shall be entitled to any such Exemption.

Contributors, on removing from one School to another, or on Marriage, to lodge Certificates of Age, &c.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Person who may become a Contributor to the said Fund after the passing of this Act, and every Contributor at the passing of this Act, who shall hereafter be removed from one School to another, shall within Six Months after either of these Events lodge or cause to be lodged with the Cashier for the Time being at his Office in Edinburgh, or transmit to him by Post, a Certificate or other sufficient Evidence of his Age; and if such Person shall then be married he shall at the same Time intimate that Fact to the said Cashier, and shall likewise lodge or transmit as aforesaid a Certificate or other sufficient Evidence of the Age of his Wife; and every Person now being a Contributor to the said Fund who shall marry after the passing of this Act shall within Six Months after his Marriage lodge or cause to be lodged with the Cashier, or transmit to him as aforesaid, a Certificate or other sufficient Evidence of his Age; and every Contributor, present or future, who shall marry after the passing of this Act, shall within Six Months after the Date of his Marriage, and if he shall marry oftener than once shall within Six Months after the Date of each successive Marriage, intimate such Marriage to the said Cashier, and shall at the same Time lodge with or transmit by Post to the Cashier a Certificate or other sufficient Evidence of the Age of his Wife, and of the Date at which such Marriage took place.

Committee may call for Evidence of the Ages of Contributors and of their Wives.

XVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the Standing Committee to be appointed in manner herein-after enacted to call for such Evidence respecting the Ages of Contributors and their Wives required to be intimated as aforesaid as to them may appear necessary; and such Evidence, when so required, shall be laid before the said Committee by each of the said Contributors accordingly; and all such Intimations and Declarations to be made by Contributors as aforesaid, or to be made in behalf of the Children of Contributors, with the Certificates or other Documents instructing and verifying the same, shall be filed and preserved among the Records of the said Fund, and form a Part of such Record; and an Abstract shall be made therefrom, and entered in a Book to be kept by the said Cashier for that Purpose.

XVII. And

Local Collectors to notify Vacancies to general Cashier.

XVII. And be it enacted, That as often as a Vacancy shall occur in the Office of Schoolmaster of any of the Schools aforesaid, or if there shall be at the passing of this Act any such Vacancy, the local Collector shall as soon as may be, and within Three Months (or, if the School be situated within the Western or Northern Isles, within Six Months) after such Vacancy, or after the passing of this Act respectively, give Intimation thereof by Letter to the said Cashier, and transmit the same to him by Post at his Office in Edinburgh.

Contributors ceasing to be Schoolmasters may resign Fund or not.

If choose to resign, must give Intimation thereof;

and if Two Years in arrear, or leave the United Kingdom for Six Months without Notice, &c.

Forfeiture.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Contributor has ceased or shall hereafter cease, by Resignation or Deprivation, to hold the Office of Schoolmaster in any School in virtue of which he contributes to the said Fund, it shall be optional to him either to continue a Contributor to the said Fund or not; provided that any such Contributor choosing to cease to be a Contributor to the said Fund shall be bound to give Intimation of such his Purpose, by a Writing under his Hand, to the Cashier, in the Form of the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed, from the Date of which Intimation, but not previous thereto, he shall be no longer liable in Payment of annual or other Contributions to the said Fund; provided also, that if any Contributor, having already ceased or who shall hereafter cease to be one of the Schoolmasters aforesaid, shall at any Time after the Expiration of Two Years from the Twenty-fifth Day of July following the Date of his so ceasing be indebted to the said Fund in the Amount of Two Years Contributions; or if such Contributor, after so ceasing, shall leave the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and continue absent for the Period of Six Months without giving an Intimation to the Cashier of his Intention to continue a Contributor to the said Fund, or shall not within the said Period of Six Months pay up all the Arrears then due by him to the said Fund, he shall in any of these Cases be held to have forfeited all the Advantages arising from the said Fund, and shall ipso facto cease to be a Member thereof, and shall have no Interest therein nor Claim thereupon, and his Name shall be struck off from the List of Contributors; but excepting always any Contributor who at the passing of this Act shall have so ceased, and shall be Two Years and not more in arrear as aforesaid, who shall not be held to have so forfeited in respect of such Arrear in case he shall on or before the First Day of August next after the passing of this Act pay up such Arrear; and from the Time of such Forfeiture, but not previous thereto, any such Contributor shall not be liable in Payment of annual or other Contributions to the said Fund; and in any such Case of Resignation or Forfeiture the Widow and Children of such Contributor shall have no Claim to and shall not be paid any Annuity or any other Sum whatsoever out of the said Fund.

Collectors or General Cashier may arrest Salaries by Writs addressed to Heritors or

XIX. And be it enacted, That if any Burgh or Parochial Schoolmaster, a Contributor to the Fund, shall fail to make Payment of his annual Rates or other Contributions within the Space of Three Months after the same become due, then and in that Case the Collector of the Presbytery in which such Defaulter resides is hereby authorized and required to issue a Requisition in Writing under his Hand, others liable in Payment thereof.

Hand, and to deliver or to transmit the same by the General Post, addressed to the several Heritors of the Parish or any of them, to the Treasurer or to the Town Clerk of the Burgh for the Magistrates thereof, or to such other Persons as are liable for Salary payable to such Defaulter as Schoolmaster, certifying the Amount of the Arrears due by him, with the Interest thereon, and requiring them to make Payment thereof to such Collector; and in like Manner, if at any Time Two or more annual Contributions shall be due for Three Months as aforesaid by any such Contributor to the Fund, or, in Presbyteries in which there shall be no Collector deriving his Appointment from the Contributors, One or more annual Contributions shall be due, then and in any such Cases, but without Prejudice to the Right of the Collector, where there is one, to issue such Requisition, it shall be lawful to the Cashier to issue such Requisition to the Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, or others aforesaid; and such Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, or others aforesaid shall thereupon respectively make Payment to the said Collector or to the Cashier of such Arrears and Interest, or of as much thereof as can be satisfied and paid out of the Salary owing by them to such Schoolmaster respectively at the Time, or out of the Term's Salary then current when the same shall become payable; and in like Manner, when any such Contributor dies in arrear of his annual Rates or other Contributions to the Fund, it shall be lawful to the Collector of the Presbytery in which such Defaulter was resident, or to the Cashier, to issue such Requisition to the Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, or others aforesaid, who shall thereupon respectively make Payment to the said Collector or to the Cashier of such Arrears and Interest, or of as much thereof as can be satisfied and paid out of the Salary owing by them to such Schoolmaster respectively at the Time of his Death, or that may fall due thereafter when the same shall become payable; and the Receipt or Discharge to be granted by such Collector or by the Cashier for any such Payments shall be a sufficient Acquittance and Discharge to the Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, or others paying the same.

Requisition to have the Force of Arrestment.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every such Requisition by the Collector or by the Cashier, delivered or transmitted as aforesaid, shall be equivalent to and have all the legal Force and Effect of an Arrestment, and of a Decreet of Forthcoming following thereupon; and provided farther, that all Requisitions issued before the passing of this Act by the Collectors or any of them under the said first-recited Act shall, notwithstanding the Repeal thereof, remain in full Force, and be as good and effectual as if made under this Act.

Standing Committee.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the whole ordinary Management and Administration of the said Fund, but subject to the Inspection and Direction of the Trustees herein-after appointed, shall, in the Intervals betwixt the Meetings of the said Trustees, be vested in a Standing Committee of Fifteen of the said Contributors, whereof Five shall be a Quorum; and the following Persons, and their Successors in Office, to be elected in manner herein-after directed, are hereby appointed pointed a Standing Committee, with full Powers of ordinary Management and Administration; viz. Peter Steele, Rector of the Grammar School, Dalkeith, present Preses of the said Society of Contributors; Aglionby Ross Carson, Rector of the High School of Edinburgh; James Lockhart Brown, Rector of the Grammar School, Greenock; John Stephens, Schoolmaster of Borrowstounness; John Kingan, Schoolmaster of Shettlestone in the Barony Parish of Glasgow; John Davidson, late Schoolmaster of Burntisland; Charles Melville, late Schoolmaster of Kirkcaldy; William Pyper, one of the Masters of the High School of Edinburgh; Fletcher Reid Low, one of the Masters of the High School, Glasgow; Robert Burton, Schoolmaster of Dalmeny; William Knox, Schoolmaster of St. Ninians; Alexander Duffus Robertson, Schoolmaster of Saline; John Lochtie, Schoolmaster of Inverkeithing; William Young, Schoolmaster of Lasswade; and Andrew Taylor, Schoolmaster of Duddingstone; and the Contributor first upon the List of those present when a Quorum shall have entered the Room shall be Preses at the Meetings of the said Committee, and shall have a deliberative Vote, besides a casting Vote in Cases of Equality.

All the Funds to be vested in the Committee.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the whole Capital raised for the Benefit of the said Fund under the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh Year of His Majesty King George the Third, however invested, and all Arrears whatsoever of Entry Money, annual Contributions, and Marriage Taxes, with Interest accruing thereon, due at the passing of this Act, as also the whole Contributions and Taxes and Payments imposed by this Act, with the Interest and every Profit and Increase that may in any manner of way from Time to Time accrue thereon, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said Peter Steele, Aglionby Ross Carson, James Lockhart Brown, John Stephens, John Kingan, John Davidson, Charles Melville, William Pyper, Fletcher Reid Low, Robert Burton, William Knox, Alexander Duffus Robertson, John Lochtie, William Young, and Andrew Taylor, and in their Successors in Office, to be elected in the Manner herein-after directed; and the Capital and Income of the said Fund shall be applied by the said Committee, subject to the Orders and Directions of the Trustees herein appointed, and of their Successors in Office, to the Uses and Purposes after mentioned; viz., in the first place, to the Payment of any Debts or Obligations which may have been incurred by the Trustees of the said Fund under the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh Year of His Majesty King George the Third, with the Charges to be necessarily incurred in the Management and Administration of the said Fund in all Time hereafter; and in the next place, for Payment of Annuities to Widows and orphan Children as herein-after mentioned; and it shall not be lawful to apply any Part of the said Fund to any other Uses or Purposes whatsoever.

Application of the Fund.

Seniority of Committee.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the said Standing Committee hereby appointed shall be ranked in Seniority according to the Order in which they are named in this Act, and shall remain in Office as Members of such Committee until replaced in manner herein-after mentioned by other Contributors elected to succeed to them; and at the

the General Meeting of Trustees to be held, as herein-after provided, on the Third Friday of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-four the Five senior Members of the said Committee shall go out of Office, and other Five Contributors shall be chosen in their Place, whose Names shall be put at the Bottom of the List of the said Committee; and at the General Meeting of Trustees to be held annually thereafter on the said Third Friday of September the Five senior Members of the said Committee shall go out of Office, and other Five shall be chosen in their Place, and their Names shall be placed at the Bottom of the said List; and no Member of the said Committee shall be qualified to be re-elected till he has been One Year out of Office; and in case any Vacancy shall happen in the said Committee by Death, Resignation, or otherwise, the Election of a Person to supply such Vacancy shall be made by the Trustees at the next stated General Meeting, or at a General Meeting of Trustees called for the Purpose; and the Person so elected shall be placed at the Bottom of the List of the said Committee: Provided always, that no Contributor who is Three Months in arrear of his annual Rates or other Contributions shall be eligible as a Member of the said Committee, or be capable of acting; nor shall any Member of the said Committee who shall hereafter be Three Months in arrear be capable of acting while so in arrear.

Contributors in arrear not eligible for the Committee.

Meetings of Committee.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the said Committee shall hold at least Two stated Meetings in the Year; videlicet, one upon the Second Saturday of March at Twelve o'Clock Noon, when the said Committee shall examine and audit the Cash Book of the Cashier, made up and balanced to that Date, and the other of the said Meetings shall be held on the Wednesday preceding the Third Friday of September at Ten o'Clock Forenoon, when they shall audit and settle the annual Accounts of the Cashier, but subject to the Approval of the next General Annual Meeting of Trustees, and they shall examine the several States to be then laid before them by the Cashier as herein-after directed; and such Meetings may adjourn from Time to Time, and if a Quorum shall not be present the Member or Members present shall have Power to adjourn; and beside such stated Meetings the Committee shall hold such occasional Meetings as Circumstances may require, which may be called by the Cashier or Clerk, or upon a Requisition by any Five of the Committee, and upon such previous Notice as the Person or Persons calling the Meetings may appoint; and all Meetings of the said Committee shall be held within the Office of the said Cashier.

Annuities to Widows;

XXV. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid by the said Cashier at his Office in Edinburgh, upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and upon the First Day of September yearly thereafter, to the Widows of Contributors under the said first-recited Act and this Act whose Husbands shall have died before the said First Day of September, and upon the First Day of September yearly thereafter to the Widows of Contributors in respect of all Annuities which shall subsequently become due under this Act, the respective Annuities following; videlicet, to the Amount thereof, and Widow of a Contributor to the First or highest Class an Annuity of Twenty-five Pounds, to the Widow of a Contributor to the Second Class an Annuity of Twenty Pounds, to the Widow of a Contributor to the Third Class an Annuity of Fifteen Pounds, to the Widow of a Contributor to the Fourth Class an Annuity of Ten Pounds, and to the Widow of a Contributor to the Fifth or lowest Class an Annuity of Five Pounds; and the Annuities becoming due under this Act shall become payable upon the First Day of September first occurring after the Death of the Husband of the Widow to whom the same shall be payable; and all the said respective Annuities shall continue to be paid on the First Day of September yearly during the Life of each such Widow respectively (excepting as herein-after mentioned), and shall be subject to Deductions in certain Cases as herein provided, and shall respectively cease and determine at Twelve o'Clock Noon upon the First Day September immediately preceding the Death of the Annuitants respectively, or preceding their after Marriages respectively, as also herein provided. when payable.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if the Widow of any Contributor shall again marry she shall thereby lose all Right to any Annuity or other Allowance from the said Fund, unless she shall again become entitled as the Widow of another Contributor. Widows marrying shall forfeit Annuity.

XXVII. And be it enacted and declared, That when a Contributor shall have died or shall die leaving a Family of Children of whom One or more shall be below the Age of Fourteen or below the Age of Seventeen, without leaving a Widow, or if his Widow shall have married or died or shall marry or die while any of his Children are below these Ages respectively, if there be One or more Children below the Age of Fourteen such Child or Children under the Age of Seventeen shall draw the full Annuity payable to a Widow until the youngest shall complete the Age of Fourteen, but if all the Children are above the Age of Fourteen, or after the youngest shall have completed that Age, and One or more of them are still below the Age of Seventeen, such Child or Children below Seventeen Years of Age shall be entitled to One Half of such Annuity, and no more, till the youngest Child attain the Age of Seventeen, and no longer: Provided always, that no more than One full Annuity shall in any Case be payable to the Children of any One Contributor; and that where a Contributor has left a Widow who has drawn any Annuity from the Fund, and his Children come afterwards to have Right to the Annuity in consequence of her Death or subsequent Marriage, the first Annuity to such Children shall be payable on the First Day of September next ensuing the Death or Marriage of the Widow; but if the Contributor die leaving Children under Fourteen or Seventeen Years of Age, and without leaving a Widow, or if his Widow die or marry again before drawing any Annuity from the Fund, then the first Annuity to the Children shall be payable as in the Case of a Widow on the First Day of September immediately following the Death of their Father; and that the Annuity payable to Children while the youngest is under Fourteen Years of Age shall cease and determine at Twelve of the Clock at Noon on the First of September immediately Annuities to orphan Children, and Determination thereof.

immediately preceding the Period of the youngest Child attaining the Age of Fourteen Years complete; and that the Annuity payable to Children while the youngest is above Fourteen Years of Age and under the Age of Seventeen shall cease and determine at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, on the First Day of September immediately preceding the Period of the youngest Child attaining the Age of Seventeen Years complete.

Proviso for the Case of Widows incapable of acting; and of Children having no Tutors or Curators legally authorized to manage their Affairs.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where a Widow entitled to an Annuity from the said Fund is incapable, on account of any Disability, legal, natural, or accidental, of receiving and discharging the same, the Contributors to the said Fund resident within the Presbytery wherein such Widow shall reside, or if she is not resident in Scotland the said Standing Committee, shall appoint Two or more Persons to manage, lay out, and apply the said Annuity in such Manner as shall appear to them to be most for the Benefit and Advantage of such Widow; and in all Cases where there are no Tutors or Curators or Trustees legally authorized to manage the Affairs of the Child or Children of Contributors entitled to Annuities from the said Fund, the Contributors to the Fund who reside within the Presbytery wherein such Child or Children may reside, or if they reside in different Presbyteries, or are not resident in Scotland, the said Standing Committee, shall appoint Two or more Persons to manage, lay out, and apply the said Annuity in such equitable Manner and according to such Proportions as may to them appear most for the Benefit and Advantage of such Child or Children; and the Persons so appointed shall have full Power to receive and discharge such Annuities, and their Receipts shall be sufficient Discharges for the same.

Arrears to be deducted from the Annuities.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Contributor shall die leaving any of his annual Contributions or Rates or Taxes unpaid, the Amount of the Arrears due by him, with Interest and Expences, shall be deducted from the Annuity payable to his Widow, or from the Annuity payable to his Children or Child; reserving always to such Widow all Claim for the Amount deducted from her which she may have against the Heirs, Executors, or Representatives of her said Husband; and if any Contributor shall die before Ten annual Contributions shall have been paid by him, such Deduction shall be made from the Annuity payable to his Widow as, with the annual Contributions paid by her Husband during his Life, exclusive of Entry Money or Marriage Tax, shall amount to Ten Years Contributions: Provided always, that no more than One Half of the Annuity shall be deducted in any One Year, with Power, nevertheless, to Annuitants to pay up the whole at once, or in any larger Proportion than is hereby directed.

Certificates to be annexed to the Receipts from Widows;

XXX. And be it enacted, That every Receipt from a Widow, or Persons acting on her Behalf, shall have annexed to it an Attestation dated after Twelve o'Clock Noon of the Day on which the Annuity becomes due, or on any after Day, signed by the Minister of the Parish in which the Annuitant, or one of the Persons appointed to act for her, shall reside, or when such Parish is vacant, or if the Incumbent Annual Election of General Cashier and Clerk.

XLI. And be it enacted, That in case of the Death, Resignation, or Deprivation of the Cashier or of the Clerk, a Meeting of the said Committee shall within Ten Days of such Event be called as aforesaid, to whom it shall be lawful to name an interim Cashier or Clerk (as the Case may be), who shall discharge the Duties of such Office respectively and shall remain in Office until the next annual Meeting to be held on the Third Friday of September as aforesaid; and the Cashier shall have Power to receive and discharge the whole Income of the Fund, and to manage the financial Concerns of the Fund, under the Directions of the said Committee, subject to the Direction and Control of the said Trustees.

Providing for Vacancies in the Offices of Cashier and Clerk.

XLII. And be it enacted, That the Collectors within the several Presbyteries, and acting at the passing of this Act, shall continue in Office until the respective Meetings of the Contributors to be held on the last Saturday of July which shall first happen after the passing of this Act, when the present Collectors shall respectively go out of Office; and at the said Meeting, and at the Meetings of Presbyteries to be held on the last Saturday of July annually thereafter, a Collector shall be chosen for each Presbytery for the ensuing Year from among the Contributors therein by a Majority of the Votes of the Contributors present; and at all such Elections the Collectors going out of Office and interim Collectors to be appointed as herein-after directed shall be capable of being re-elected: Provided always, that no Contributor shall be capable of being elected Collector or interim Collector, nor of being re-elected, unless he shall have paid up all his Contributions due at the Time of Election or Re-election, nor shall he be re-elected unless the annual Statement herein-after required to be made to the Cashier has been so made by him, and examined and certified as herein-after provided; and every Collector or interim Collector elected shall within Eight Days of his Election intimate the same by Letter to the Cashier.

Present Presbytery Collectors continued till July 1843.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to a Majority of the Contributors in any Presbytery at any Time to suspend their Collector, Contributors may suspend or remove Collector.

Collector, or to remove him from his Office, and to appoint another in his Stead; and in case of the Death, Resignation, Suspension, or Removal of any such Collector, a Meeting of the Contributors, to be held within the Period of Four Weeks thereafter, shall be called in manner before directed, to whom it shall be lawful to name an interim Collector, who shall remain in Office until the next annual Meeting to be held on the last Saturday of July as aforesaid.

Duties of Collector.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the said Collectors shall regularly uplift, receive, and discharge the whole Contributions from Time to Time due by the Contributors in their respective Presbyteries, together with the Interest thereon, and all other Sums due and payable to the said Fund in virtue of this or of the said first-recited Act, and hereby directed to be paid to and recovered by such Collectors, and they shall not take Payment from any Contributor at any One Time of less than One full Year's Contribution, with the Interest due thereon up to the Date of such Payment, nor shall they take from any Contributor a partial Payment to account of any annual Contribution, but if at the passing of this Act any Contributor shall be due a Balance of his annual Rate for any One Year, the Collector shall first take Payment of such Balance, and the Interest due thereon up to the Date of the Payment thereof; neither shall any Collector take partial Payments from Contributors on account of Entry Money or Marriage Tax, but each such Contribution, with the Interest due thereupon, shall be respectively paid to the Collectors in One Sum.

Collectors to give Security.

XLV. And be it enacted, That each Collector shall at his entering upon Office be bound to give sufficient Security for his Intromissions with the Funds to the Satisfaction of the Contributors within the Presbytery; and after a Collector shall be chosen, and shall have found Caution, he shall not, if re-elected, be bound to find new Caution, but the Bond originally given shall continue in force, and the Cautioners therein be bound as Securities for such Collector while he continues in Office, unless a Majority of the Contributors within the Presbytery present at a General Meeting shall see Cause to require a new Bond of Caution, which they are hereby empowered to do.

Collectors to remit Contributions to General Cashier; to keep regular Books; to lay Accounts annually before Contributors; to prepare annual States, and transmit

XLVI. And be it enacted, That each of the said Collectors shall remit to the Cashier in Edinburgh the whole Contributions and other Sums levied and collected by him, whenever he has, including any Contributions due by himself individually, the Amount of Five Pounds in his Hands; and each Collector shall keep regular Books, under the Inspection and Direction of the Contributors within their respective Presbyteries, and shall annually lay his Accounts before the said Contributors at the said annual Meeting on the last Saturday of July, in order to their being then settled by such Contributors, and he shall annually prepare and lay before the said Meeting a State, in the Form contained in Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, or in such other Form as the said Committee may from Time to them to the General Cashier.

Time direct, which State shall be examined and adjusted by the said Meeting, and shall, with the different Certificates therein contained, be subscribed by the Preses of the Meeting, and within Two Weeks thereafter shall be transmitted by the Collector to the Cashier, to whom he shall at the same Time remit the net Balance thereby appearing to be in his Hands, if any, together with any farther Sums that he shall have received up to the Time of such Transmission and Remittance, whatever the same shall amount to, and shall also transmit therewith to the Cashier the whole Notices received by him from Contributors during the course of the preceding Year.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That in case any Collector appointed by the Contributors shall fail, within Two Weeks after each annual Meeting of Contributors hereby appointed to be held on the last Saturday of July, to transmit to the Cashier the said State, or to remit to him the net Balance, if any, due by him, with any additional Sums received by him on account of the said Fund, up to such Date, or in case any Collector, having at any Time any Sum amounting to Five Pounds belonging to the said Fund in his Hands, shall fail to remit the same to the Cashier, after being required by him so to do, the said Cashier is hereby authorized in such Case to issue a Requisition under his Hand, and to deliver or to transmit the same by the General Post, addressed to the several Heritors of the Parish, or any of them, to the Treasurer or to the Town Clerk of the Burgh, for the Magistrates thereof, or other Person or Persons liable for Salary payable to such Collector as Schoolmaster, certifying the Fact, and requiring them to make Payment to the said Cashier of the Salary due by them to such Collector at the Time, and also of the Salary which shall become due for the then current Term, when the Term of Payment shall arrive; and it shall be lawful to renew such Certificate and Requisition from Time to Time until all the Sums received by such Collectors shall be accounted for and paid up; and the said Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, or others shall upon every such Requisition make Payment of the said Salary, when due, to the said Cashier, for which he shall be bound to account to the said Collector; and the Receipt or Discharge to be granted by the said Cashier for all such Payments shall be a sufficient Acquittance and Discharge to the Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, or others paying the same; and every such Requisition by the Cashier shall be equivalent to and have all the legal Force and Effect of an Arrestment in the Hands of the Heritors, Treasurers, Town Clerks, and others aforesaid receiving the same, and of a Decreet of Forthcoming following thereupon; and all the Contributors within the Presbytery at the Time of the last Election of any Collector in default as aforesaid shall be jointly responsible for whatever Sum is due by him at the Time for Contributions received by him, and shall immediately after the First Day of January thereafter pay the Amount thereof, under Deduction of any Part thereof recovered by Arrestment or otherwise as aforesaid, to the said Cashier, together with the legal Interest thereof from the Time or respective Times when the same should have been remitted by such such Collector to the Cashier, together with all Expences incurred in recovering the same.

Contributions, &c. to be preferable Debts.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That the yearly Contributions and other Payments to the said Fund to become due after the passing of this Act by the present and future Contributors thereto, with the Interest thereon, and also the whole Sums that may at any Time after the passing of this Act be due by the Collectors for the several Presbyteries to the said Fund, shall be preferable upon their respective Salaries to all their future Debts, and shall also be preferable to all Claims of Retention or Compensation not existing or contracted for at the Date of this Act at the Instance of the Heritors and others liable in Payment of such Salaries, to the Extent of the Half Year's Salary current at the Time when a Demand for such Contributions, Payments, and Sums shall be made upon them by the Cashier, or by the local Collectors respectively, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

When Collectors not appointed, General Cashier may employ Law Agents or others to act as Collector, at Expence of Contributors.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That if the Contributors within any Presbytery shall fail at the Meetings hereby appointed to be held on the last Saturday of July which shall first happen after the passing of this Act, or at the Meetings to be held on the last Saturday of July annually thereafter, to appoint Collectors as herein-before directed, or to appoint interim Collectors in the Case of Vacancies by Death or Resignation, as also herein-before directed, within the Period of Four Weeks after the Occurrence of any such Vacancy, and although such Failure should arise from there being no Contributor within the Presbytery qualified for such Office, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful to the said Cashier to employ a Law Agent, or other qualified Person, to act as interim Collector, who shall, on such Appointment, have full Powers to perform the whole Duties of Collector as fully as any Collector appointed by the Presbytery from among their own Number, and such Agent or other qualified Person shall continue to act till he shall be superseded by a Collector appointed by the Contributors at an annual Meeting on the last Saturday of July; and in every Case of such Appointment of an interim Collector by the Cashier the Contributors within the Presbytery for which such Appointment is made shall be conjunctly and severally liable for and bound to relieve the Fund of all Law Charges and other Expences thereby incurred, Cashier to deposit the Money in a Bank or Banking House, to be named by the Committee.

L. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the said Committee from Time to Time to name a Bank or Banking House in Edinburgh, in which the Money received by the said Cashier shall be deposited, until disposed of by Order of the said Committee, on an Account to be kept in their Name, and to be operated upon by Drafts signed by at least Two of the said Committee, and by the Cashier for the Time being; and the said Cashier shall never hold in his Hands above Twenty Pounds Sterling of the Money belonging to the said Widows Fund.

LI. And

Cashier to keep regular Books, prepare annual States of Funds, &c.

LI. And be it enacted, That the said Cashier shall keep regular Books, under the Direction of the said Committee, and shall annually lay his Accounts, made up to the Thirty-first Day of August from the same Day of the preceding Year, before the said Committee at the Meeting to be held on the Wednesday preceding the Third Friday of September, in order to their being then settled, and shall also prepare annually, and exhibit to such Meeting, a State of the Progress of the Fund, together with Lists of Schoolmasters appointed, of Marriages of Contributors and of Widows, of Deaths of Contributors, of Widows, and of orphan Children, arising in each Year, with the Ages, in so far as the same have been intimated or are known to him; which Lists, after being approved of by the said Meeting, shall be entered in a Book of Record, to be kept by the Clerk for that Purpose; and upon the annual Accounts of the said Cashier being settled, and the several States and Lists above mentioned being revised and approved of by the said Meeting, the same, with the annual States to be received from the Collectors, or such Abstract of these as the Trustees may direct, shall be printed, and Copies thereof transmitted to the several Collectors, for the Use of each of the Contributors; and in case Two Thirds of the said Committee shall at any Time find it necessary they shall have Power to suspend the Cashier from his Office, and to name an interim Cashier, and to call a General Meeting of the said Trustees, which General Meeting shall have full Power either to reinstate the Cashier or remove him from his Office and name another in his Place.

Cashier to lay an annual State of Arrears, before Committee, who shall give Directions as to their Recovery. Letters of Horning to issue on Certificate by Cashier.

LII. And be it enacted, That the said Cashier shall annually make up a State of Arrears due by Contributors and others, and shall lay the same before the said Committee at their Meeting on the Second Saturday of March, and the said Committee shall then, by a Minute to be entered in the Sederunt Book, give Instructions to the Cashier in regard to their Recovery, and the Cashier shall follow out such Instructions accordingly, but the Cashier shall not thereby be restricted from recovering all other Arrears due to the Fund to which such Directions shall not apply; and the Lords of Council and Session are hereby authorized and required to issue their Warrant for Letters of Horning, Arrestment, Inhibition, or other Diligence, in Name of the Cashier, against all Contributors in arrear, on Production of a Certificate of the Amount of such Arrears and Interest, signed by the Cashier; and no Suspension of a Charge on such Letters of Horning shall be granted without Consignation of the whole Sums charged for.

Cashier to give Security.

LIII. And be it enacted, That each Cashier shall, within One Month from the Date of his Appointment, and previous to his entering upon Office, be bound to lodge with the said Committee a Bond or Bonds of Caution, with Sureties to their Satisfaction, for his Intromissions to the Extent of such Sum as shall be fixed at the Meeting at which he is elected, not being less than Two thousand Pounds; and after the Cashier shall be chosen, and shall have found Caution, he shall not on being re-elected be bound to find new Caution; but any Bond given by any Cashier under the said recited Act of the Forty-seventh

Year of His Majesty King George the Third, and any Bond to be given by any future Cashiers, shall continue in force against the Cashier and Cautioners, and the Cautioners therein be bound as Securities for the said Cashier during the Time of such Cashier continuing in Office, unless Two Thirds of the said Committee shall require a new Bond of Caution, which they are hereby empowered to do.

Duties of the Clerk.

LIV. And be it enacted, That the Clerk and every Clerk to the said Fund for the Time being shall attend all the Meetings of the Trustees and of the Committee, and frame the Minutes thereof under their Direction, and keep a correct and authentic Record of their Proceedings, and shall ingross therein all Minutes, States, Lists, Reports, and other Documents laid before the said Meeting, with their Orders, if any, made thereupon; and the Clerk shall issue Circular Letters or Notices for calling the Meetings of the Trustees and of the Committee held under the Authority of this Act, and he shall also perform such other Duties as the Trustees or the Committee may from Time to Time require; and the Minutes of the Proceedings of all such Meetings shall be signed by the Preses of such Meeting; and Extracts or Office Copies from the said Record, signed by the Clerk, shall be probative, and shall be received as Evidence in all Courts of Justice.

Interest to be calculated at the highest Rate.

LV. And be it enacted, That in every Case where Interest is made payable by this Act by the Contributors to the said Fund such Interest shall be calculated and paid according to the Table contained in Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, or according to the highest Rate for the Time allowed by Law to be taken.

Trustees to sue and be sued in Name of the Cashier.

LVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the said Trustees to sue and be sued, and to prosecute all legal Diligence, and to enter into Submissions or Arbitrations, for and in relation to the said Widows Fund, and all Matters and Things connected therewith, and in relation to the Management and Recovery of the same, whether arising under the said first-recited Act or under this Act, in the Name of the Cashier for the Time being; and no Action, Suit, or Diligence, or Submission or Arbitration, wherein the said Trustees or the said Committee shall be concerned as Parties in Name of the said Cashier, shall fall or abate by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of such Cashier, but the Cashier for the Time being shall be deemed to be the Party on behalf of the said Trustees or the said Committee and the said Fund in every such Action, Suit, Diligence, Submission, or Arbitration; and in any Suit, Action, or Diligence against any of the Contributors to the said Fund for Payment of any of the Contributions or Taxes due under the said recited Act or this Act, or against any Party liable to make good the same, a State of the Arrears, and the Interest due thereon, certified by the Cashier, shall be sufficient Evidence that the Sums therein contained are justly due and payable, unless such States shall be instructed by written Evidence to be erroneous.

LVII. And

Office to be kept in Edinburgh.

LVII. And be it enacted, That the said Cashier shall have an Office within the said City of Edinburgh, where all the Duties of the said Office shall be performed, and all the Payments and Remittances hereby required to be made to the said Cashier (and which shall be made free of Expence), and also the Annuities herein made payable to the Widows and Children of Contributors, shall be paid at or remitted to the said Office; and all Persons interested shall at all Times, at the usual Hours of Business, have Access to the said Office, and any of the Contributors shall be allowed to inspect the Books and Documents of the Fund at any Time within Two Months after the said Wednesday preceding the Third Friday of September in every Year, without Fee or Reward.

Trustees to fix the Remuneration of the Cashier and Clerk.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees shall, at the General Meeting to be held on the Third Friday of September after the passing of this Act, fix the Remuneration to be made to the Cashier and Clerk respectively for their Services, and by way of Salary or otherwise, and pay the same out of the said Fund; and it shall be lawful to the said Trustees, at any General Meeting to be held on the Third Friday of September, upon due Consideration of the Nature and Extent of the Duties performed, at any Time thereafter to increase or diminish the Remuneration to be allowed to either of the said Officers.

Trustees and Committee not to be liable for Omissions, &c.

LIX. And be it enacted, That neither the said Trustees nor the said Committee shall be liable for Omissions or for Acts done by them bonâ fide in execution of their Duties under this Act, or for the Solvency of the Debtors to whom the Funds hereby placed under their Charge may be lent out, or of the Banks in which such Funds may be deposited, or in solidum, but each only for his own actual Intromissions, Acts, or Deeds.

Trustees may make Regulations for managing the Fund.

LX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the said Trustees at the annual Meetings to be held on the Third Friday of September to make such Regulations from Time to Time as may be found expedient in the Discharge of the Duties herein required of them, and for beneficially managing and administering the Fund committed to their Charge: Provided always, that such Regulations shall be intimated and minuted at a Meeting of a Quorum of the Trustees to be called as aforesaid, or at a Meeting of the Committee, Three Months at least previous to their being adopted, and within Ten Days after such last-mentioned Meeting communicated by the said Cashier to the Collectors for their respective Presbyteries, for the Information of the Contributors within their respective Bounds, which Regulation shall continue in force until altered in whole or in part by an annual General Meeting of the Trustees to be held on the Third Friday of September after the Intention to alter the same shall be proposed and communicated as aforesaid; Provided also, that such Regulations shall not be repugnant to the Law of Scotland, nor to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

(13.) Nos.	(14.) Notes.

DIRECTIONS FOR FILLING UP THE WITHIN RETURN.

1. The Columns 1. and 2. will be an exact Transcript of the corresponding Columns in the printed Return for the preceding Year, observing the same Alphabetical Series.

2. In the Column 3. will be inserted the Names of the Contributors in each Parish on the 25th Day of July of the Year for which the Return is made, inserting against the Name of each Parish, first, the Name of the established Schoolmaster or Schoolmasters then in Office, and under this the Names of any other Contributors then having their fixed Residence in the Parish.

3. The Column 6. will be a Transcript of the outstanding Arrears as in the Right-hand Column of the printed Return for the preceding Year.

4. The Columns 7, 8, 9, and 10. do not require any Explanation. To the Left of each Payment the Collector will insert the Date when it was made to him. These Columns will be added up before the Return is transmitted to the Cashier.

5. The Return will contain every Contribution remitted by the Collector to Account of the Arrears contained in the preceding printed Report, transferred to Column 6. of the within Return, and of the Rates for the current Year down to the Transmission of the Return, and nothing less or more.

6. The Abstract will exhibit the whole Receipts and Remittances of the financial Year, which will of course balance each other.

7. Any Alterations or Changes which have occurred during the preceding Year, and Errors, if any, in the preceding printed Report, and any Questions that may have occurred with Contributors or others in relation to the Fund, will be stated, and, if necessary, explained (but as shortly as is consistent with Clearness), in the Notes, to which the corresponding Numbers in the Alphabetical Series will be prefixed.
