EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Rules, which supersede the Trustee Savings Banks (Superannuation Value) Rules, 1948, prescribe the method of calculation of superannuation values payable under Section 67 (3) of the Trustee Savings Banks Act, 1954 in respect of officers transferred between one trustee savings bank institution and another. The revised tables of rates take account of changes in the superannuation arrangements arising from the granting of widows' and children's pensions in respect of deceased officers' services and the abatement of superannuation allowances when officers become eligible for retirement pensions under the National Insurance Act, 1946.
